Grange Entertainment.

The Grange entertainment held at Mount Union Grange Hall, on Cropp Hill, Nov. 6th, was a complete success, The program of exercises commenced at 8:00 p. m. and consisted of dialogues and recitations, filled in at intervals with music by the string band and a few songs by the choir. One hundred and twenty persons were present and seemed to be pleasantly entertained, by the good attention given during the program, which came to a close at 10:00 o'clock, at which time the audience retired to one side of the hall and the ladies of the Grange and table with refreshments, of which all Oil City, this week. they had been well treated and also pleasantly entertained, hoping to meet on a similar occasion soon. How to Cure Sleeplessness.

A writer in Success Magazine tells how a friend, who had heard that he some-

I did as he suggested, and now, for the benefit of others who may be afflicted Harmony township, gave a surprise with insomnia, I feel it to be my duty to report what happened, so far as I am able this morning to recall the details. First let me say my friend was right. I did and two daughters, Ada and Jessie, Mrs. | go to sleep very soon after my retirement. Then a friend with his head under his arm came along and asked me if I wanted to buy his feet. I was negotiating with Scowden and daughter, Essie, of Tio- him, when the dragon on which I was nesta; Mrs. Muzette Joslin, of Oil City; riding slipped out of his skin and left me floating in mid-air. While I was considering how to get down, a bull with two heads peered over the edge of the well and said he would haul me up if I would first climb up and rig a windlass

So, as I was sliding down the mountainside, the brakeman came in, and I asked him when the train would reach my station. "We passed your station 450 years ago," he said, calmly folding up the train and slipping it into his vest pocket. At this juncture the clown bounded into the ring and pulled the center pole out of the ground, lifting the tent and the people in it up, while I stood on the earth below watching myself go out of sight among the clouds above.

Then I awoke and found that I had een asleep almost 10 minutes.
