—The Brookville Republican insinuates that a lyre used to be an instrument with three strings, but now it's a fellow with a shotgun and a hunting dog.
—W. C. Imel, P. R. R. agent here, sold one of his two residence properties, at the corner of Main and Scott streets, in Tidoute, last week, to H. J. Jennings.
—Mary, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Merkle, at Endeavor, Pa., died at an early hour Monday morning, after a week's illness. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, Rev. J. F. Scherer officiating.
—The young people's chorus of the M. E. church of Tionesta will hold a sacred song service in the church auditorium, Friday evening, November 19th, at 8:00 o'clock. Every one is cordially invited to attend. A silver offering will be taken.
—The annual report of Auditor General R. K. Young shows that Forest county returned personal property to the amount of $283,933.00 for taxation for state purposes. The gain for the year in the state was $37,380,658.98, the total being $1,141,894,087.92.
—Croup is most prevalent during the dry cold weather of the early winter months. Parents of young children should be prepared for it. All that is needed is a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many mothers are never without it in their homes and it has never disappointed them. Sold by all dealers.
—The report of the Oil City Trust Company, to the commissioner of banking, published elsewhere in this issue, speaks strongly of the prosperity of Northwestern Pennsylvania. The deposits show an increase of over $320,000.00 since their last report, and now aggregate $2,529,000.00. The assets of the company, exclusive of all trust funds, reach a total of $3,313,000.00.

—Remember the "covered tea" to be given by the Woman's Relief Corps in their hall this Wednesday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The "tea" will be served in a novel manner which you must see to appreciate. Everybody, both old and young, cordially invited.
—Mrs. Minnie Grove of Tionesta has disposed of her oil property in Harmony township to George H. Lowe of Jamestown, N. Y. This property is located on Dawson run and is known as the C. O. Baird lease. It has a number of producing wells and room for quite a number of new locations. We understand that it is Mr. Lowe's intention to operate the lease extensively.
—Mrs. Lindamine Richardson, wife of J. S. Breitenstein, died in Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 4th, as the result of burns received a few weeks previous. She was the daughter of Caleb and Elizabeth Richardson, and was born at East Hickory, April 25, 1854. The family formerly resided in Tidoute, where the remains were taken for interment. She is survived by her husband and two sons.
—The U. S. Civil Service Commission announces that, on Saturday, Dec. 18, 1909, an examination will be held at Marienville, for the position of fourth class postmaster at Redcliff, Pa. The compensation of the postmaster at this office was $117 for the last fiscal year. Full information concerning the requirements of the examination can be secured from the postmaster at Marienville or Redcliff.
—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold their annual bazaar Friday evening, December 3d, in Bovard's Hall. Many fancy and useful articles will be on sale, attractive amusements, a market where the choicest viands may be found, aprons, linens, handkerchiefs, good home-made candy; also a good hot oyster stew, sandwiches and coffee will be served. Doors open at 7:00 o'clock, sale beginning at 7:30. Every member of the congregation is kindly requested to contribute to this bazar.
—The younger members of the Nebraska W. C. T. U. are preparing a literary entertainment for Thanksgiving evening, the same to be held in the K. O. T. M. hall. The union has been very active since the county convention in September. A mothers' meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. Allison on October 21st, and a meeting at Mrs. Reed Weaver's on November 4th, at which time the report of the state delegate, Mrs. Adams, was read. Both meetings were pleasant gatherings and enjoyed by all who attended.
—Miss Agnes Buhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Buhl of Marienville, died at a hospital in Pittsburgh yesterday morning, following an operation for bowel trouble. Miss Buhl had gone to Pittsburgh about a week ago to visit friends, and was overtaken by illness and advised to go to the hospital for treatment. The operation was deemed necessary, but failed to effect a cure. Her father and brother reached her bedside before she died. The remains will be brought home today and tomorrow the interment will take place at Sheffield. Miss Buhl was an exemplary young lady and was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She was aged about 22 years.
—Peter Crahan, of Oil City, one of the oldest engineers in the service of the P. R. R., was killed at the roundhouse in Oil City last Wednesday afternoon. His run for the past 22 years has been between Oil City and Olean, N. Y., and on Wednesday he went to the roundhouse for his engine. Standing in the doorway of the roundhouse he motioned the hostler to come on and as he swung himself aboard he was caught between the tender and the door sill and his chest crushed in. He lived only 20 minutes. Mr. Crahan was well and favorably known along this end of the road, and much sympathy is expressed for his family of wife and seven children, all grown. He was aged 64 years and a veteran of the civil war, enlisting at the age of 16 years.
—The open season for killing deer in Pennsylvania began on Monday of this week, November 15, and continues till the last day of the month. While there may not be many deer in this immediate vicinity, there are Forest hunters of the game who may go after it, so it will be well to be posted on the laws formulated as to its protection. Only male deer, with horns visible above the hair, may be lawfully killed, and no hunter may kill more than one of these in a season. The penalty for a violation of the law is $100. Those having deer in their possession from which the heads have been cut are liable to the same penalty unless they have the head at hand to show it if called upon to do so. It is unlawful to shoot deer with buckshot or from a gun carrying more than one bullet at a single shot, nor is it permissible to hunt deer with dogs. In every case a violation of law may result in the imposition of a $100 fine. No deer or part thereof may be bought or sold.
—A very enjoyable social event was pulled off at the Hotel Weaver last Thursday evening, when friends to the number of about two dozen sat down to a most appetizing and sumptuous dinner, gotten up by mine host Weaver, landlord of this popular hostelry. The banquet was given in honor of the jolly bunch of Meadville gentlemen who spent the week here hunting and recreating, and at whose hands a few Tionestans had "suffered" a like fate at the elegant cottage of the Messrs. Hudekeper at Conneaut Lake a couple of months prior. The honor guests were Messrs. R. A. Hays, Earl Hudekeper, Fred Prenatt, Fred and George Sowden and James Shults. An hour was taken up in the discussion of the elegant spread, and another in responses to the toasts proposed by Toastmaster J. C. Scowden. Mayor Reck extended a very cordial welcome to "our guests" and presented high game executioner Hays with a key to the city. Messrs. Hudekeper and Prenatt each made a good speech and expressed the hope that the Meadvillians might have the pleasure of meeting their Tionesta friends at the cottage next summer. And it's dollars to doughnuts that they will. Jimmy Shults was prepared with a good speech but someone switched him off and he gave his friends a fine dissertation on how to train a pointer dog, a splendid specimen of which he brought with him on this occasion. At a reasonable hour the banqueters dispersed in fine fettle and expressing a hope that all might again meet in a similar attitude a year hence. The visitors left for home on Saturday morning with a fine string of game.

—Along with the hunting stories of the more sensational order comes one told by passengers on the Beech Creek train running from Williamsport to Clearfield, which arrived at the latter town shortly before noon yesterday. The setting of the story is near Panther Run, which is in the vicinity of Snow Shoe. While the train was speeding along the track, a large deer appeared on the ties ahead, having been chased out by the many hunters in the woods at that place. After racing along in front of the engine for a distance of over a mile it finally was tired and was killed by the train. A number of local people were passengers on the train and vouch for the truth of the story.

—The cornerstones of the new Presbyterian church was laid without any formal ceremony last Thursday morning and the brick walls are now looming up. The cornerstone is placed just to the right of the main entrance and in the copper box which reposes in the receptacle were placed the following articles: Old records taken from old cornerstones, history of First Presbyterian church, copies of the FOREST REPUBLICAN, Democratic Vindicator and Marienville Express, names of present trustees, elders, minister, building committee, architects and contractor, copy of Rev. J. V. McAninch's last message to the church and his photograph, names of church societies and officers, records public schools of Tionesta, names of teachers and high school course of study, names of churches of Tionesta and ministers, three banks of county, county superintendent, judges of court and district attorney, all business places of Tionesta, doctors, lawyers, telephones, railroads, which streets are paved, sermon by Rev. H. A. Bailey and his photograph, population of county and town, and number of members of Presbyterian church.
Sentenced for Robbery.
Monday afternoon, in the November quarter sessions court, Judge Rice pronounced sentence upon John W. Kane and Charles Witherell for robbing Thomas E. Martin of Endeavor, on Thursday of last week, the young men having pleaded guilty to the offense. The circumstances of the case are about as follows: Kane, who gives his age as 25 years, came to West Hickory on Wednesday evening. Next morning he fell in with Witherell and some others. They procured some alcohol and were drinking, and when Martin arrived from Tidoute, where he had been in the forenoon, they induced him to join them in a drink or two of the alcohol, and he became sort of paralyzed for the time being, and when in this condition Witherell and Kane took from him as he alleges, his watch valued at $20, about $20 in money, his rain coat and a pair of gloves. When Martin "came to himself" he made known his loss, and in the evening Sheriff Maxwell was notified to look out for and arrest the perpetrators if they appeared in Tionesta. This the Sheriff did and detained them until Martin arrived on Friday morning and made formal information against them before Justice C. A. Randall, who bound the young men over to court in the sum of $400 each.
On being arraigned in court they confessed their guilt, and Judge Rice sentenced each to an indeterminate term in the Western penitentiary, not less than fifteen months nor more than five years. Before pronouncing sentence, however, the Judge gave the young men some good, fatherly advice, admonishing them to turn from the downward course on which they seem to have started, and when released from prison to lead proper lives and become sober, reputable citizens.
Witherell was born and reared in Hickory township. He is 25 years of age, has a wife, and a son who is four years of age. They are living in West Virginia where he also lived until last Spring.
Kane took the court that he was born at St. Petersburg, Pa., 25 years ago. His parents are both dead, and for several years past he has moved about from place to place with no settled residence. He is not married.
Mr. Martin's watch and $10 in money were restored to him.
Sheriff Maxwell and Wm. F. Blum as his deputy, leave on the 11:01 train today to deliver the prisoners to the penitentiary authorities.

PERSONAL.
—H. A. Dotterer of Muzette was a business visitor in town Monday.
—Miss Grace McCrea of Reno was a guest of Miss Ethel Clark over Sunday.
—A daughter was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Rhodes of Tionesta township.
—Mr. and Mrs. Perry McCaimont of President were shopping in Tionesta Thursday.
—E. B. Head of West Hickory was a pleasant caller at the REPUBLICAN office yesterday.
—Judge Samuel Aul was down from Marienville Friday shaking hands with friends and attending to business.
—Miss May Mays, Mrs. Ray Birtell and nephew, Paul Cos, visited relatives in Oil City a few days of last week.
—Mr. and Mrs. James H. Kelly left for Chicago, Monday, where they will be the guests of relatives and friends for a week.
—Howard Kelly returned Sunday morning from Pittsburg, where he had been serving as a juror in U. S. District Court during the past week.
—Mrs. James J. Connelly, nee Miss Ardie Robinson, came up from Pittsburg Monday to visit her father and other friends at her former home.
—Mrs. George H. Coe and children of Pleasantville were guests of the former's parents here over Sunday. Mrs. Mays accompanied them home Monday for a week's visit.
—William Proctor and Mary Rounds, both of West Hickory, Forest county, were united in marriage by Justice of the Peace J. E. Wheeler at his office this forenoon.—Warren Mirror, 12th.
—Our old friend Edward Klabbatz, who has resided in Union City for several months, writes that he likes the place very much, but not so well as his old home in Forest county, and thinks he will have to return to spend his old days amid the scenes that have become so dear to him. Come back whenever it suits you, Edward. Your many friends will welcome you.
—I. M. Fox and G. B. Evans of Endeavor, W. J. Campbell, D. W. Morrison, T. F. Ritchey, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. W. Reek of Tionesta, left for Pittsburg Monday. They were joined in Oil City by a large delegation of the Masonic fraternity and will attend an important meeting of those high up in that order this week. Mr. and Mrs. Reek will visit friends in Alliance, Ohio, before returning home.
—Ray Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Cole of Nebraska, is ill with diphtheria at Bear Lake, Pa., where he is under quarantine at the home of George Cooper. Ray went to Westfield, N. Y., September 6th, where he was employed in the grape business, and at the closing of the season a week or more ago went to Bear Lake for a visit with the family of Mr. Cooper, where he was taken sick. Mr. Cole was in town Saturday and stated the young man's physician had informed them the case was a light one, that the patient was receiving the best of care and would be able to go home as soon as released from quarantine.
—Messrs. O. E. McCauley, E. Y. Clark, Wm. Stewart and Mr. Blatt, of Rochester Pa., friends of our townsman, Dr. Dunn, came up Saturday to spend the week in hunting, and are quartered at Newtown Mills for a few days. Mr. Stewart was obliged to return home Sunday evening on account of the death of a relative. The party started out hunting Monday morning and after a short chase succeeded in bringing down a fine 200-pound black bear, which they captured on the ridge between Salmon creek and Lamentation run. While they are all considerably elated and excited over their good fortune, we can confidently assure their friends at home that the excitement has had no bad effect and they will be able to resume the chase after a short rest.
—In some way or other the friends of Rev. J. F. Scherer, of the Endeavor Presbyterian church, learned that Monday was his birthday, and lest he might himself overlook the fact, they worked a little "reminder" on him in the form of a surprise. In the evening about 8 o'clock he was induced to step into Kindergarten hall and on entering he found himself in the presence of a very large company of friends. So complete was the surprise that the popular person was rendered well nigh speechless, and when you catch him in this condition you may calculate that you are "going some," so to speak. A most bountiful spread was served, and the evening was very enjoyably spent in a social way, at the conclusion of which a handsome purse of money was presented to the honor guest, besides a large number of other gifts of beauty and value. Mr. Scherer expressed his gratitude and pleasure in his usual happy style, having by this time recovered his composure.
Porkey.
It was reported a game warden was in the neighborhood of Porkey last Sunday. It must surely have been a mistake, or else he crawled in a hollow log, or was entirely deaf and had very poor sight, as the report of the gun could be heard from early morn until late in the evening.
Mrs. Lina Downey and Mrs. Edward Littlefield were Kellettville visitors between trains Wednesday.
Miss Mamie Merchant was shopping in Warren Friday.
Marian Rupert visited his aunt, Mrs. Nathan Burdick, of Heury's Mills, over Sabbath.

—The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 36 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by all dealers.

November Court Minutes.
The regular session of November court convened Monday morning, with President Judge Rice and Associates Kreidler and Hill on the bench. There being very little business to transact no juries had been summoned to appear and the term of court was of short duration, lasting only a few hours. The constables of the various townships made their returns.
The constable of Jenks township reported one case of f. and b., and returned a case of violation of the game law.
The constable of Hickory township reported that the bridge over Hickory creek was in need of repairs, also that in many places where public roads intersect one another sign boards are lacking.
Judge Rice took occasion to again remind all constables as to their duties regarding the carrying of firearms by aliens. Also to the sale or gift of cigarettes and cigarette papers to persons under 21 years of age, and especially in the borough of Tionesta, where he had understood the practice was carried on.
L. H. Mensch filed a bond of $5,000 as guardian of Lenora Merrell of Marienville.
George L. King was appointed guardian of Mary L. Vail of West Hickory.
A subpoena in divorce was granted in the case of E. A. Collins vs. Maud E. Collins, of Harmony township.
An account of the disposition of the larceny case of Commonwealth vs. John W. Kane and Charles Witherell will be found in another column.
Sudden Death of Wm. H. Cropp.
All this section of the county was startled upon learning of the sudden death of William Henry Cropp, one of the prominent citizens of Green township, which occurred Tuesday morning, Nov. 16, 1909, at his home on Cropp Hill. The deceased was born on the farm on which he died, July 14, 1860, and had always resided in that vicinity. He was noted for his honesty and industrious habits, and was respected and trusted by all. He was an expert driller, a good carpenter and an all round mechanic. He was the originator of the well known Cropp drilling rig, which is being used quite extensively all over the country. Although not enjoying the best of health for the past year, he had been able to attend to his duties the greater part of the time, and on Monday forenoon he finished the building of a small frame barn for Chas. Metz on the Reck, Cooper & Co. lease on Cropp Hill, and in the afternoon he was engaged in repairing a gas line at his home. Being taken suddenly ill about five o'clock, he started to enter his home. Reaching the steps at the front porch he was suddenly stricken with apoplexy, which affected his entire right side. He was helped into the house and lost consciousness in about twenty minutes, his death occurring at an early hour the next morning, the best medical attention which was hastily summoned failing to relieve him. Mr. Cropp was for many years a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and in his death this society has lost a worker whose place will be hard to fill. He was united in marriage Feb. 26, 1886, with Miss Alice Henry, of Callensburg, Pa., who with one son, Linus, survives him. He is also survived by his aged father, C. F. Cropp, of Cropp Hill, and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. A. Kropp of Venus; Mrs. Frank Cole of Meadville; Mrs. A. Rhodes of German Hill; Miss Mary Cropp of Cropp Hill; Jacob A. Cropp of Cropp Hill; John R. Cropp of Tionesta and Charles A. Cropp of Cropp Hill. Funeral services will be held in the Zaenel church Thursday at 2 p. m., Rev. W. O. Calhoun officiating. The interment will be made in the cemetery there. Tionesta Lodge, No. 369, I. O. O. F., of which the deceased was a member, will have charge of the ceremonies at the grave.
Thanksgiving Proclamation.
President Taft has issued the annual Thanksgiving proclamation in the following language:
"The season of the year has returned when, in accordance with the reverent custom established by our forefathers, the people of the United States are wont to meet in their usual places of worship on a day of thanksgiving appointed by the civil magistrate to return thanks to God for the great mercies and benefits which they have enjoyed.
"During this past year we have been highly blest. No great calamities or flood or tempest or epidemic sickness have befallen us. We have lived in quietness, undisturbed by wars or rumors of wars. Peace and the plenty of bounteous crops and of great industrial production animate a cheerful and resolute people to all the renewed energies of beneficent industry and material and moral progress. It is altogether fitting that we should humbly and gratefully acknowledge the Divine source of these blessings.
"Therefore, I hereby appoint Thursday, the 25th day of November, as a day of general thanksgiving, and I call upon the people on that day, laying aside their usual vocations, to repair to their churches and unite in appropriate services of praise and thanks to Almighty God."
