Announcements.

CONGRESS. ENDEAVOR, PA., Nov. 29th, 1909. MY DEAR EDITOR:—You are hereby authorized to announce my name as a candidate for Congress in the Twenty-Eighth Congressional District of Pennsylvania...

EVERN Gilford Pinchot, the great conservator of forests, favors the use of the Christmas tree. It will not deplete the great green woods for many years to come, if ever. The radiance from its decorated branches sheds a mellow and welcome light in many an otherwise dark place.

ANDREW CARNEGIE says if he started in business again he would let every employe have a share of the profits. We do not believe he would. If he had that kind of a feeling he would go right now and share up some of the millions he is giving away with the men who did the work from which he drew his profits.—Franklin News.

PROF. WEBB of Franklin, read a paper before the Cosmos club of that city, in which he went after the present form of education being taught in the schools. He said that too much attention was being paid to Latin and Greek and not enough to the things that are practical. The bread and butter test should be applied to all pupils who graduate.

GREAT BRITAIN and her colonies continue to be our best customers. They took nearly one-half of the grand total of exports from the United States this year. And as one good turn deserves another, the United States got more than one-fourth of its imports from Great Britain and her colonies. This is a sort of reciprocity that binds nations closer together.

RURAL free delivery costs $37,000,000 annually. It saves American farmers $188,000,000 yearly in unnecessary trips to and expenditures in towns, besides giving them daily produce and weather reports. It has helped to advance farm prices at least $750,000,000, or 25 per cent to 40 percent. There are 41,000 routes, covering over one million miles a year and serving twenty million people. Of manufacturers in the United States 30 per cent get their mail by rural service. In several cities 90 per cent of recent gain in newspapers' circulation is said to be due to rural free delivery.

UNDER general direction of the Secretary, our navy business is henceforth to be run by naval men. The work falls into four logical departments,—namely, material, personnel, fleet operation, and inspection. The Secretary of the Navy is to have four advisers, each of them a Rear-Admiral, and each representing one of the four departments. The bureaus will be grouped and arranged under these headings, everything important will have to be cleared through the Secretary's quadrilateral band of advisers, and the old-time clashes and conflicts will necessarily disappear.—American Reviews of Review for January.

Resolutions.

We, the teachers of West Hickory schools, desiring to express our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family over the death of Alice Palmeter, do hereby adopt the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Almighty God in his infinite wisdom has been pleased to remove from our midst by the hand of death our well beloved pupil, Alice Palmeter, whom the Savior took unto himself December 27, 1909, therefore be it Resolved, That our school has lost a faithful and most beloved pupil who, by her cheerfulness and her beautiful life, endeared herself to all who knew her.

Resolved, That although we do not understand why one who was such a blessing to her home and friends should be taken from us so early in life, yet we humbly submit to the will of God, who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That we tender our warmest sympathy to the bereaved family and friends with whom we deeply mourn our severe loss, yet we have the consolation that she died in the fullest assurance of a brighter and a fuller life with Him who suffered death for us; and further, be it Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and that they be published in the local papers.

MARTHA H. MORROW. MARY A. CASEY. J. J. STUDEBAKER.

Pigeon Hill.

Miss Blanche Blum, of West Hickory, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blum, over Christmas.—Forest Blum is driving team for Herman Blum.—Miss Louise E. Clark, teacher of the Pigeon Hill school, spent Christmas at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark, at Eagle Rock.—Mr. and Mrs. George Childs and family visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ledebur, over Christmas.—Henry and Herman Blum have employed a number of teams to haul their lumber to the Tionesta station.—We are sorry to lose our neighbors, Mrs. Wm. Cropp and son Lina.—Miss Mand Ledebur was home for the holidays.—Miss Arley M. Blum visited her sister Blanche at the Globe Hotel, West Hickory, a few days.—Howard Blum has been on the sick list for a few days.—Karl H. Kiser has gone to the Fogle Farm to haul lumber.—Raymond Childs has gone to the lumber woods below Franklin to cut logs for his father, R. A. Childs.—Howard Blum took a sled load of young folks to the Christmas entertainment at the Mt. Zion Lutheran church.

Mayburg.

John Anderson and daughter, Mrs. Ed. Nicolls, spent Christmas and New Years at Mr. Anderson's home in Summerville.—Clifford Foreman was a Christmas visitor in town.—Mrs. J. G. Richards was called to Medina, N. Y., on Wednesday, by the very serious illness of her brother, Andrew Jackson.—Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Brown spent Christmas at Mr. Brown's home in Brookville.—Warren Cook is visiting friends in Beaverdale, Pa., this week.—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. V. Card and daughter Cressed, of Sigel, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Richards and sons of Warren, spent Christmas at the home of Wm. Richards.—Miss Margaret Steel visited her brother, Stephen Steele, the past week, returning to her home in Brookville, on Friday.—Catherine and Carmel Walters have been quite ill for the last few days.—Timothy Padden has had a bad attack of the grippe but is recovering under the care of Dr. Datar.—Victor Hendrickson and Miss Maude Watson spent Christmas with Victor's parents.—The Christmas entertainment given in the Band Hall Christmas eve was well attended and enjoyed by all present. The programme was very good and some beautiful gifts were distributed from the two large Christmas trees. About fifteen of the young people from Kelleitville drove up in sleighs to attend the entertainment.—Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Richards spent Christmas with Mrs. Richards' parents at Reno.—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Brown were Warren visitors on Monday.—Miss Helen Paul visited her parents at Newtown over Christmas.—Miss Viola Horner came home on Thursday from Franklin to spend her holiday vacation with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Horner.—Harrison Sheffer, of Franklin, visited at the parsonage over Christmas.—Mr. and Mrs. Coon, the evangelists from Grove City, came Saturday night to help Rev. A. J. Horner in the revival meetings begun in the F. M. church on Sunday evening, Jan. 2.—Erna Donnelly came home from Kelleitville to spend her Christmas vacation.—Miss Anna Blausler is visiting her parents during the holidays.

Porkey.

Robert Burdick, Jr. and his friend, Mr. Murphy, of Robinson, Ill., are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Thos. Miller. Robert reports the oil business as being quite dull in the western field.—L. D. Littlefield and family returned to their home in Clarendon, Saturday, after a week's stay with the former's parents.—George and James Welsh, who have been in West Virginia for the past year, are making their parents a visit.—Mrs. Dorothy Spencer and Donald Burdick of Henry's Mills, are visiting at the home of Thomas Miller.—Tionesta creek has been frozen over for the past two days so people could not cross on the ice below the foot bridge, but the rain Saturday night and the thaw Sunday has caused the creek to overflow the ice and spill the pleasure. This is the first time in five years that the creek has been frozen over at Porkey.—Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Downey and children returned home Saturday after a week's visit with the latter's sister, Mrs. Wm. Card, at Grand Valley.—Viveta and Malinda Rupert have been spending their week's vacation with their aunt, Mrs. Lottie Burdick, at Henry's Mills.—John Littlefield returned home Thursday from Coalinga, Cal., after a stay of two months. He had the misfortune to get one of his eyes very badly hurt while at work building a rig. He was unable to work and was advised by his physician to return home.—Rev. R. J. Montgomery delivered a very interesting sermon Sunday. His wife accompanied him and they took dinner with H. E. Giespie and wife.—Little Earl Kinch seems to be on the mend again.—A number of people from Hastings and Henry's Mills attended the mask ball at Stover's hall, Friday evening.—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lore are disposing of their household effects, as they intend going south about the middle of January. Mr. Lore has been employed as a pumper for the South Penn Oil Co. for the past twenty-four years.—George Stroup, of Henry's Mills, visited James Welsh, Friday and Saturday.—Benjamin Kinney visited his son and daughter, Arthur and Iva, during the week.

Cosgrove has been confined to the house for several weeks with a sore on one of his legs.—Our school teacher, Miss De-wood, visited her parents during the holidays.—Glen Kuhns, of north Pine Grove, attended the Christmas service here and was the recipient of a very nice present.—S. S. Breneman, of Cooksburg, was a visitor in our town last Friday.—J. B. Campbell and family took supper with their cousin, John Hepler, of Sigel, last Friday evening.—The Christmas tree service at our school house on Christmas eve was well attended and all report an excellent time.—John Silvis spent Christmas in Marienville.—Guy Leslie was calling on friends at Scotch Hill, on Christmas eve and reports a pleasant time.—Albert Wolfgang was home from Sheffield with his family over Christmas.—Harvey Fulton, of Sheffield, visited his parents during the holidays.—Will Hetzel, of Halsey, was home for a few days last week.—Wild animals seem to be quite numerous this winter, as there was a Wolf and a Bear seen in the vicinity of Greenwood one day last week.—There will be no ice famine here next summer, as Reid Breneman is filling his ice house with as fine a quality of ice as can be found.—This is a fine winter, and no mistake, and every body around here is enjoying it to the fullest extent.—The play party at Bob Black's last Thursday evening was well attended and all report an excellent time.—W. A. Croasman has several teams at work hauling boat stuff to Maple Creek, also a number of teams hauling other lumber to Coleman, where they will load it in boats in the spring.

Silver Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Turner celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Christmas night in their beautiful home at Rixford, Pa. Eighty-five guests were entertained. The house was beautifully decorated for the event, the reception hall and dining room being done in red and green with Christmas bells and holly. The parlor was in am-lax and white carnations. The den on the third floor was specially decorated in imitation of a grotto for the men and proved to be so comfortable and attractive that even the ladies could not stay away. Mr. and Mrs. Turner received their guests in the parlor and they were showered with congratulations and best wishes. The guests not only brought good wishes, but substantial and beautiful gifts. China, linen, cut glass, silver, furniture and other gifts showing the high esteem in which the couple are held by their many friends. The guests were delightfully entertained. While the buffet luncheon was being served Mrs. Turner's White Ribbon sisters gave a fine musical program. Mrs. Henry Wagner, of Tionesta township, a niece of Mrs. Turner, was one of the guests. Mrs. Turner is a sister of Mrs. Anna Silzinger and Mrs. M. N. Hepler, of Tionesta.

RECENT DEATHS.

AGNEW. Mrs. Bertha Agnew, wife of C. M. Agnew, died at their home in Washington, D. C., Sunday morning, December 26, 1909, of a grippe, after a short illness. She was aged about 53 years. Besides the sorrowing husband, one sister survives to mourn her loss. The funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the home. Mr. Agnew is the son of Mrs. Jennie Agnew, of Tionesta, and is well remembered by many friends here, all of whom will sympathize with him in his sad bereavement.

ROYT.

Very many Forest county friends will be sorry to learn of the death of Onas Hoyt, one of the oldest residents of Howe township, which occurred at his home at Cooper Tract, December 15, 1909. He had been a great sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism for more than fifteen years. Two years ago a cancer began growing upon his lower lip, which was the cause of his death. Mr. Hoyt was born September 12, 1830, at Bridgeville, Sullivan county, N. Y., and came to Warren and Forest counties in the Spring of 1865. He followed the oil development in the sections in which he resided and also drove a stage from Sheffield to Cooper tract for about nine years. He was a good citizen and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. He held various township offices and served as overseer of the poor almost twenty years. He had been assistant postmaster at Cooper Tract for the past ten years, where he kept a grocery store. He was twice married, first in 1874, to Mrs. Sarah Little, who died in 1888. He then married Mrs. Mary Maroney, who survives him.

WALTERS.

William Walters, a former resident of Tionesta, died Dec. 25, 1909, at his home at Albany, Indiana, where he has resided since leaving here about fifteen years ago. From a personal letter from his sister, Miss Minnie Walters, we glean the following facts regarding the deceased: "William Palmer Walters was born Jan. 9, 1867, in Chautauque county, N. Y. He was the only son of George and Jennie Walters. He was married to Miss Jennie Agnew, Nov. 27, 1885, at Warren, Pa. To them were given five children, Winifred, aged 13 years, George, aged 11 years, Irene, aged 8 years, Beatrice, aged 4 years, and Glenn Elwin, aged 18 months. He had always been employed in the oil fields as a driller until August, 1909, when he was severely injured in his left shoulder and side while at his work. He had never fully recovered from this injury. On Dec. 21st he was taken with an acute attack of quinsy, complicated with a weakened condition of the heart. He died at one o'clock, Dec. 25th, and was buried at his home in Albany. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, five children, his father and two sisters." Will was an exceptionally moral man and had many friends, both at home and among the men with whom he was employed. He is well remembered by many friends here, who will be sorry to learn of his death.

BRADY.

Miss Walters says that her father has been in very poor health for the past three or four months and that his son's death was a severe shock to him. Mrs. Martha Elizabeth Brady died unexpectedly at the home of her son, G. W. Brady, near Starr, Kingsley township, Tuesday morning, Dec. 28, 1909, aged 72 years, 1 month and 11 days. Mrs. Brady had been in poor health for a number of years but in the evening before her death was about the house as usual and appeared to be in good spirits. When Mr. Brady arose early in the morning he went to his mother's room to start a fire and heard her moving in bed. About nine o'clock his wife went to call the mother for breakfast and found her dead in bed, death having come suddenly, probably from heart trouble. Mrs. Brady was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Remensmider and was born Nov. 17, 1837, in the province of Hessen, Germany. When she was six years of age the family came to this country and settled on a farm near Lickingville, Clarion county. In her early life she was for many years employed in the household of the H. H. May, of Tionesta. October 14, 1865, she was married to Conrad Brady, who died Jan. 27, 1905. After their marriage a few years were spent at Stowtown, now Endeavor. The family then moved to German Hill and cleared up the farm on which she died. She was a member of the Free Methodist church for twenty-six years and was a consistent Christian. Mrs. Brady is survived by the following children: J. H. Brady, of Eagle Rock; Mrs. H. P. Ralston, of Whig Hill; and G. W. Brady, of Starr; also by two sisters, Mrs. M. A. Sandrock and Mrs. Minnie Sandrock, both of Lickingville. The funeral services were held at the Zoendel church, Thursday morning at ten o'clock, conducted by Rev. E. L. Monroe, with interment in the Zoendel cemetery, where her husband and other kindred rest. In this connection the family desire to express their thanks to all who assisted them in any way.

No two persons are ever more confident and cordial than when they are censuring a third.—Jenn Paul Richter.

Too Good a Chance to Miss. He indignantly—they have put us in a back pew this morning. Why, I wonder? She (calmly)—They probably noticed that I wore a dowdy hat and that I shouldn't care to have it seen?

—An attractive dessert: Cut two pieces from each orange, leaving what remains in shape of basket with handle, and remove pulp from both baskets and pieces. Cut top of baskets in points, using scissors, and keep baskets in ice-water until ready to serve. Strain juice obtained from pulp and make into an orange jelly mixture. Turn into a shallow pan, chill, cut in cubes and fill baskets. —Woman's Home Companion for January.

BEARDSLEY'S SHREDDED CODFISH

You can save a surprising amount of bother and trouble tomorrow by serving Beardsley's Shredded Codfish for breakfast.

You can have this delicious fish food ready for the table in less time than it takes to make coffee.

It is ready to cook the instant you open the package. No bones to pick out—no washing—no boiling. We have done all that for you.

And please don't think that there's any "fish-odor" in cooking. Instead, there's a tempting, savory smell—a smell that will make you hungry.

BEARDSLEY'S SHREDDED CODFISH

Sweet-Flavored Fish. Beardsley's Shredded Codfish doesn't taste at all like the old-fashioned dried codfish.

And it's wrong to judge it by any other kind that comes in packages.

There's no other fish food in existence half so delightful in flavor.

For we use only the choicest fish—the fattest and plumpest—the finest that come out of the deep.

We get them from Northern waters.

Fish caught elsewhere can't compare with the cod we use.

Then we take only the choicest part of each fish—the sweetest, most delicately flavored meat. So there's no strong taint whatever.

Beardsley's Shredded Codfish means pleasing variety in meals.

There are so many appetizing ways to prepare it your family will never tire of it. Most people want it at least once a week, either for luncheon or breakfast.

Each package makes a full meal. And the cost is only 10 cents.

So order a package today. And please see that you get Beardsley's—the package with the red band. For Beardsley's is the only Shredded Codfish. Our wonderful Shredding Process is patented. Beardsley's is the kind all people like.

Free Book of Recipes. Your grocer will give you a free book of new recipes you'll want to try. Or write us—we'll send you the book, and with it a generous sample of Beardsley's Shredded Codfish.
