 three cents by the Seep purchasing remain as they were. This leaves the price of Pennsylvania oil $1.40, the lowest it has been in about three years.

Secret service men are on the lookout for money order blanks Nos. 28085 to 28200, which were stolen from Station 19 at Washington, D. C., on January 17th.
 If asked to cash any of these, merchants should hold the man presenting it until an officer arrives.

Woman's Relief Corps, No. 137, are moving their quarters this week from the Killmer block to the Kepler block, having rented the south half of the second floor from the Tionesta Club.
 Capt. George Stow Post, G. A. R., will also occupy the new hall.

The Derrick's oil report for December shows that 581 wells were completed in the Pennsylvania fields, a loss over November of 168 wells, though the production was increased 4,357 barrels. There were 770 new rigs and drilling wells up, a decrease in new work of 94.

We neglected to mention a fine cele-star which we received last week from the Oil City Blizzard and which adorns our sanctum walls. With an independence that is refreshing the Blizzard follows its motto, "It blows on whom it pleases," and we just couldn't keep house without it.

Under orders from the postoffice department, every rural carrier in the United States commenced on January 1 to keep a daily account of all parcels of unmarketable matter which they carry for hire or as an accommodation outside of the mails, together with the approximate weight of all such packages. The record is to be kept for the full month and at the end of the month postmasters are to forward to Washington a statement of the totals and their weight. The information it is supposed is wanted in connection with the agitation for a parcels post.

seventeen years ago this winter there was an unusually large supply of snow, according to two old timers who were talking over the weather. They stated that the snow in the woods was up to a man's waist. This section does not have snows that compare with those of the years that have passed.

For the third time in as many years Connecticut suffered a heavy loss as a result of a fire last Wednesday morning, which swept the Main street and put the telephone system out of business, causing a loss estimated at $25,000. Eight of the most prominent buildings fell a prey to the flames. The origin was not ascertained.

W. A. Kribbs, of Kellettville, was in town this week on business. Mr. Kribbs was driving a team which he is very proud of and he thinks very highly of them. They were King Burdo, 2221, and a young mare by Moquette, with a mark of 2:16. The latter is a full sister of L. M. Shannon's fast pacing mare Bessie Drake.—Clarion Republican.

Cupid has been sadly remiss in his duties in Forest county during the past year, judging from the falling off in the number of marriage licenses issued from the number issued in the preceding year.
 In 1908 the licenses numbered 68, while in 1909 only 39 were issued. Your guess as to why this is thus will be just as good as ours, so we refrain from making one.

Now the musical people of Tionesta will be able to get all the latest vocal and instrumental music at home and at the same price paid if sent for at any outside town. Mr. Zaver has made a deal with a jobbing house so our musical people can get popular 25c music, as well as the Mc-Kinley 10c music, and save the trouble of sending away. Call at the Zaver News Room.

Sixty cents a dozen was offered for strictly fresh eggs in Erie last Wednesday. A West Side grocer in that city makes the prediction that eggs will go to $1 a dozen before spring. He gives as one reason for the scarcity the fact that the state board of health has a standing order for several hundred dozen fresh eggs monthly as food for patients at tuberculosis stations.

According to a DuBois banker the alleged flow of spurious nickels in Du-Bois is nothing more than hundreds of new 1908 nickels that the banks have been putting into circulation and which were received in the original package from the department. The edges of the coins look as though they had been smoothed up with a file and have the appearance of counterfeit but there are none better.

The Republicans of Hickory township held a caucus Saturday evening at the Township House at Endeavor, when the following ticket was placed in nomination for the February election: Treasurer, G. W. Warden; assessor, Joseph Green; supervisor, N. P. Wheeler, Jr.; auditor, H. H. Warden; school directors, W. O. Fuhlhart, M. E. Keyes, James Whitman; judge of election, J. E. Carpenter; inspector, F. H. Beatty.

Br'er James B. Borland, of the Franklin News, has consented to allow the use of his name as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Mayor.
 There is no man in the town more deserving of the honor, no man who has done more to uphold the town, no man who knows better the needs of the city than our friend "Jim," and the voters will make a mistake if they do not make his nomination and election unanimous.

Many of our citizens are complaining of "fluebacks" on the roofs of their residences, the warmth from the gas fires below melting the snow, and the water therefrom coming in contact with the ice, around the edges, being forced back under the shingles, finds its way down through the ceilings. And they don't seem to derive much satisfaction from the thought that it will make lots of work for the plasterers in the gladsome springtime.—Oil City Blizzard. Same here.

Not in the recollection of the oldest inhabitant have the prices of fresh and salt pork been as high as they are now.
 The normal price of fresh pork, by the carcass has been from five to six cents a pound, but for the last few years it has been gradually rising until now meat market men can not buy carcasses for less than ten and in some localities for less than eleven cents. This figure has not been reached in the history of the county.

This year, 1910, Lent will begin on February 9, 15 days earlier than it did last year, so that Easter Sunday will fall on March 27, instead of April 11, as it did last year. Inasmuch as the first full moon after the vernal equinox, which falls on March 21, each year, marks the proper date, it is evident that this year will near the record for early dating. It will be the second earliest Easter in a quarter of a century, that of March 23, 1894, being the nearest to the vernal equinox in that period.

A very fine little bear, brought here recently from Warren county by J. W.
 Lusher, Oakstreet, is attracting not a little attention at Wagon's market, where it is on exhibition. Though the animal is small it has one of the finest skins ever seen locally, the hair being long, thick and heavy. It is also fat as a hog and when cut up the flesh will make a tooth-some delicacy, in the game line, for those fortunate enough to secure a piece of the meat. Bruin is frozen stiff and is in standing position and looks to be about as big as a 10-year-old boy. Standing up in front of the market he has aroused the interest of juveniles and is attracting a good notice as if he were a grizzly in a zoo. George Wager intends having the skin tanned and made into a rug.—Thusville Courier.

The County Commissioners are seriously considering the question of doubling the dog tax in Forest county for the year 1910. The rate at present is 75 cents for a male dog and $1.50 for a female. This is liable to be boosted considerably on account of the number of claims paid for sheep killed by dogs during the past year, amounting to $483.00.
 Of this amount $143.00 was paid in Jenks township, $21.00 in Howe township, and $19.00 in Harmony township. Besides those paid, claims to the amount over $100.00 for sheep missing and not accounted for were rejected by the commissioners. Under the law a surplus of $200.00 must be maintained in this fund at all times and this can hardly be done under the present rate of taxation if the claims continue to increase as they have during the past year.

Chief Game Protector Joseph Kalbus, of Harrisburg, received a message from Warden Joseph Berrier that Berrier had caught a man in Butler county "who worked the smoothest trick ever pulled off on the game commissioner." The prisoner shot a doe in Elk county, and in endeavoring to escape the law against shooting any deer but one with horns, he punctured the doe's skull and fitted on a handsome pair of antlers. The "nature fake" almost succeeded but Berrier got on the man's trail and landed him in Butler county. He was fined the maximum, $100. The costs amounted to $25.

A correspondent writing from Beers' Camp, Hickory township, under date of Jan. 5th, says: "All is activity in camp with the recent fall of snow. The trail road is a glare of ice and the teams are doing a rushing business. R. W. Beers recently hauled in a trail of logs, eighteen in number, containing 10,265 feet. This trail was hauled by a team weighing 2,900 pounds and driven by teamster Bert Albaugh. The logs were scaled by J. T.
 Rutherford, who used the Scribner rule.
 Who can beat this? This camp is one of those engaged in supplying logs to the Wheeler & Dusenbury mills at Endeavor, Pa.

The goosebore weather prophets who have been predicting an open winter will have to guess again. The past week has astonished the oldest inhabitant as regards the severity of the winter weather, and with about 18 inches of snow on the level and the mercury trying to drop through the bulbs of our thermometers, it is more anything except an open winter. Saturday morning thermometers in Tionesta registered from 12° to 15° below zero, according to location; Sunday morning it was 9° below; Monday morning 14° below and Tuesday morning 4° to 11° below.
 That ought to hold the prophets for a while.

The season for shooting bear in Pennsylvania closed on December 31, and according to secretary Joseph Kalbus, of the Game commission, the killing of bear the past year was the greatest known in ten years or more. Dr. Kalbus' estimate is that at least 400 bear were shot, principally in the northern and Allegheny mountain counties. The bears were more numerous, too, than for a long time and a score or more of hunting parties reported that they came close to camp.
 This was the first bear season to close with the year, as heretofore the bear season has run until spring. The season for bear as made by the last Legislature was from October 1 to January 1.

The farmers of this county will be interested to learn that there will be held this year a series of Farmers' Institutes at Clarington, Friday and Saturday, Feb.
 18th and 19th, and at Tionesta, Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 21st and 22d. The instructors from other parts of the State will be present to join with the farmers of this locality in the discussion of topics relative to agriculture are Prof.
 Franklin Menges, of York, Prof. Chas.
 F. Noll, of State College, Chas. T. Corn-man, of Carlisle, Clarence C. McCurdy, of Hartstown, and E. B. Dorsett, of Mansfield. These meetings are free and open to all, and all the farmers of this county should avail themselves of the advantages to be gained by attending these meetings.
 Programs will soon be issued.

W. R. C. Installation.

The public installation of the officers of Woman's Relief Corps, No. 137, took place in their hall last Wednesday evening and the occasion proved to be a very enjoyable social event to the ladies of the Corps, the comrades of the Post, as well as quite a number of invited guests. It had been planned to install the officers of Capt. George Stow Post, G. A. R., at the same time, but the unavoidable absence of the Commander, D. W. Clark, who had suffered a hard fall on the icy pavement that day, made it necessary to postpone the Post installation until their next regular meeting. The Corps officers were installed by Mrs. Frances Grove, who performed her duties in a very efficient manner. After the installation a short camp-fire was held, at which speeches were made by a number of friends, and this in turn was followed by the serving of dainty refreshments.

The officers as elected and appointed are as follows: President, Mrs. Garris Holeman; senior vice president, Mrs.
 Anna Fones; junior vice president, Mrs.
 Mary Thomson; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie Agnew; chaplain, Mrs. Suie M. Sharpe; secretary, Mrs. Bessie Felt; musician, Mrs. Gertrude Long; conductor, Mrs.
 Emma Hunter; assistant conductor, Mrs.
 Elizabeth Scowden; guard, Mrs. Marie Hopkins; assistant guard, Mrs. Eva Smearbaugh; color bearers, 1, Mrs. Mattie Gaston, 2, Mrs. Della Canfield, 3, Mrs. Allie Campbell, 4, Mrs. Alfartha Herman; patriotic instructor, Mrs. Frances Grove. The delegate to the State Encampment is Mrs. Mary L. Thomson; alternate, Mrs. Della Canfield. Delegate to the annual meeting of the Brookville Memorial Home Association, Mrs. Jennie E. Agnew.

RECENT DEATHS.

OVERLANDER.
 Jacob F. Overlander passed away at the Oil City hospital, this morning at one o'clock, after an illness extending over a period of about six weeks, at the age of 86 years. He was one of Tionesta's oldest citizens, and a resident of Forest county for nearly 40 years. Surviving him are these children: Mrs. John McCown of Enon Valley, Pa., Mrs. L. J. Johnston of Beaver Falls, Pa., Mrs. J. R. Morgan of Tionesta, Mrs. J. D. McCown of Tulare, California, S. Jesse Overlander of Tionesta, Jacob F. of Pittsburg, Mrs. Jennie Galey of Zanesville, Ohio, and Caldwell M. Overlander of Pittsburg. His wife, living at Warren, Ohio, also survives.
 The burial will take place here, but the time of the funeral had not been set when this paper went to press. A more extended notice will be given next week.

SMATHERS.
 David Smathers died Friday, January 7, 1910, at 1:30 p. m., at his home at Helen Furnace, Clarion county, of ailments incident to old age. Mr. Smathers was aged about 85 years and was a native of Ohio, coming to Clarion county about seventy years ago. He first resided at Mill Creek and at State Road, on the Clarion River, where he followed his trade as a boat-builder. He was one of the best of the old-time pilots on the Clarion and Allegheny Rivers, and was well known throughout that section.
 About fifty-one years ago he purchased and cleared up the farm on which he ended his days and had developed it into one of the finest farm properties in the county. For nearly a year he had been in failing health, but the illness which caused his death was of less than a week's duration. He was a member of the M. E. church since his youth, a consistent christian, and a man who was esteemed by all who knew him. About the year 1847 Mr. Smathers was united in marriage with Miss Martha Whitehill, of Helen Furnace, who survives him at the age of 83 years, and who is remarkably active in body and mind. Twelve children were born to them, nine of whom survived, as follows: Mrs. Joseph M. Morgan, of Tionesta; Albert Smathers, of Knox, Pa.; Mrs. H. E. Moody, of Tionesta; Mrs. David Shadel, of Brookville, Pa.; Mrs. Albert Dale, of Tylersburg, Pa.; Mrs. Wm. Weiser, of Youngstown, Ohio; William Smathers, of Cocksburg, Pa.; Harry Smathers, at home, and Scott Smathers, of Clearfield, Pa. Funeral services were held Sunday at 2 p. m., in the Helen Furnace M. E. church, and were conducted by Rev. M. B. Riley.
 Interment in the cemetery there.
