

Calendar for January 1910 showing days of the week and dates.

Announcements.

CONGRESS. ENDEAVOR, PA., Nov. 29th, 1909. My DEAR EDITOR:—You are hereby authorized to announce my name as a candidate for Congress in the Twenty-Eighth Congressional District of Pennsylvania, subject to the rules governing the Primary to be held Saturday, June 4th, 1910.

TOWNSHIP CAUCUSES. TIONESTA TOWNSHIP. The Republican voters of Tionesta township will meet at the Township House, Saturday, January 22, 1910, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for township officers to be elected in February.

ORION ALLO, Committeeman. GREEN TOWNSHIP. The Republican voters of Green township will meet in K. O. T. M. hall, Nebraska, Saturday January 22, 1910, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for township officers to be elected in February.

MELVIN SIBBLE, Committeeman. HARMONY TOWNSHIP. The voters of Harmony township will hold a union caucus at the Township House, Fogie farm, Saturday, January 22, 1910, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for township officers to be elected in February.

H. C. YARNELL, Committeeman. A. C. WALTER, Committeeman. WISCONSIN boasts of some wide-awake workmen. The men who shoveled the snow for one of the great railroads struck for higher wages and "chicken once a day." What Eastern man would dare suggest chicken once a day?

THE State Highway Department has announced a ruling, based on an opinion by Deputy District Attorney General Hargest, by which it will require every person operating an automobile, not an owner, to wear a driver's badge. Hereafter only professional drivers will be required to take out badges.

THERE is but one rational and safe solution of the woman suffrage question: Let everybody vote, regardless of sex, who have the moral and intellectual qualifications to vote intelligently and patriotically, and bar everybody else. The troublesome question of course remains—how and by whom shall such qualifications be determined?—Punxy Spirit.

NINE hundred million dollars' worth of agricultural products were exported from the United States last year, according to the Bureau of Statistics in the Department of Commerce and Labor. Secretary Wilson says that the total value of our farm products for that year was $8,776,000,000 so that a little more than 10 per cent, of our farm products were sold abroad and the home consumers had to be content with the remaining nine-tenths.

ATTORNEYS of this state are coming to the conclusion that there are too many kinds of courts in the commonwealth to accomplish good and speedy results. The Pennsylvania State Bar association in convention assembled, recently passed resolutions recommending the abolition of the superior court on the grounds of its absolute futility. Its existence prolongs legal action and causes tedious and vexatious delay. Another consideration is the extra time and expense involved. Fewer courts would remedy some of the existing evils.

MY son, follow not in the footsteps of the loafer, and make no example of him who is born tired, for, verily, I say unto you, his business is overstocked. The seats on the corner are all taken, and the whittling places are all occupied. It is better to saw wood at two bits a cord than whittle at a whittling match and abuse the government. My son, whilst thou hast thy skull and the sense of a jay bird, break away from the cigarette habit, for, lo, thy breath stinketh like a glue factory and thy mind is less intelligent than a store dummy. Yes, thou art a cipher with the rim knocked off.—Milwaukee News.

IT may seem just the thing to pass a curfew ordinance, but there is this to be remembered: More or less bitterness and clashing of citizens is almost certain to result from its enforcement unless an effort is made to avoid conflict where the parent sends the child out for some legitimate purpose, and there will be difficulty in keeping the enforcement up to the mark unless public sentiment is practically unanimously behind the law. There have been many cities with a curfew law and very few that enforced it for more than a few months. However, we hope for the best.—Franklin News. Tionesta's has been a dead letter for some time, although it did work well for a number of years.

DOMESTIC exports for 1909 were $77,000,000 less than in 1908. Cotton alone is the one redeeming feature. It shows an increase of over $22,000,000, while all other exports disclose decreases ranging from $5,000,000 to $7,000,000. The 2,000,000 increase in cotton exports reflects the high prices which prevailed during the year. While the number of bales exported was 1,000,000 less than in 1908, the value was $22,000,000 greater. Breadstuffs led the decline with a falling off of more than $25,000,000, and meat and dairy products fell off more than $28,000,000. Mineral oils about held their own, with losses of a little more than $5,000,000. The individual losses in four classes brings the gross decrease to more than $100,000,000, but this is reduced by the increase in cotton exports.

Nitro-Glycerine Explosion Kills Three.

Two men and a boy were killed in an explosion of nitro-glycerine at the magazine of Augustus Pease at Brandon's Ferry, 20 miles below Oil City, at 11:25 o'clock last Wednesday morning, Jan. 12th. The dead are, Jacob Green, aged 32, Peter Jennings, aged 63, and John Jennings, his son, aged 13.

Green was employed by Mr. Pease as a treader of the high explosives and as an oil well shooter. He had worked at the business for 15 years and was an expert and careful man. Wednesday morning he went to the magazine to take a load of the explosive to the Clintonville magazine. He did not use the regular equipment, but hitched his team to a bobbed with an ordinary wagon box filled with straw instead of the usual padded stock box and rack for the shells. From the surroundings it is believed that he filled the wagon box with loaded cans from the magazine and that Jennings and his son left their work where they were chopping wood nearby and came to him, either to assist in the work or as onlookers. The elder Jennings conducted the ferry and with his family lived a short distance from the magazine. As is usual in such accidents nothing is left to tell the tale, but it is supposed the sled load exploded first and the shock in turn caused what was left in the magazine to explode. The magazine was blown to pieces, its site being marked by a great hole. Another hole is supposed to be where the sleds had been. There was some stock and empty cans in the factory. This building had its roof blown off but the stock inside did not get out. About 575 quarts of the stuff exploded. The country for miles around was shaken as though by an earthquake and the shock was plainly felt in Tionesta. Only a few shreds of the bodies of the three men could be found and were partially identified. The horses were both killed but were not badly mangled. A bloodhound owned by Mr. Pease was also killed.

An element of sensationalism is added to the accident by a remark which Jennings made to his wife that morning when he said, "Well, after today you can give my breakfast to somebody else." It is thought he may have been despondent and deliberately planned to cause the explosion.

Green made his home with Mr. Pease and is survived by his mother, three brothers and five sisters. All that could be identified of his remains were interred Friday at Cherrytree.

The Jennings family formerly resided at Nettilton, in Forest county. They were also well known here, having lived for a time on the old farm of the late Capt. Clark, a few miles up Hunter run. Mr. Jennings is survived by his wife, three daughters and one son. Arrangements have been made by the County Commissioners to admit the family to the Venango County Home. All that remained of Jennings and his son were placed in an infant's casket and after services at the home Friday afternoon were interred at the Twin Churches on Bully Hill.

Mayburg. Miss Lottie Glenn returned home after a two weeks' visit with friends in Painesville and Westerdale.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hiles on Wednesday, Jan. 12, and died the following Sunday. Everyone sympathizes with them in their loss.

The Misses Mabel Watson and Belle Spencer of Kelleetville, Pa., spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. John Peterson.

Miss Nannie Morrow of Kelleetville spent Saturday at the home of Wm. Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Brown and James Brown, Sr., spent the past week in Pittsburgh.

Mr. Glenn was called home last week by the death of his mother.

Mrs. Ed. Nicolls and daughter, Fay, returned home after a two weeks' visit at Mrs. Nicolls' home in Summerville, Pa. Roy Berliu was a Warren visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Christie came down from Bailtown and spent Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives in town.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Deebner on Saturday, Jan. 15.

THIRTY SEVEN applications to organize national banks were approved during December and 27 were authorized to begin business. This makes the total number of national banks in operation 7,064. Comptroller of Currency Murray reports that banks had on deposit during the year $5,000,000,000, or an increase of $29,000,000. Their capital stock was increased from $930,000,000 to $964,000,000.

A good country road is always to be desired and is a source of comfort and convenience to every traveler. Good roads attract population, as well as good schools and churches. Good roads improve the value of the property so that it is said a farm lying five miles from market, connected by a bad road is of less value than an equally good farm lying ten miles away from market connected by a good road. A larger load can be drawn by one horse over a good road than by two over a bad one. Good roads encourage the greater exchange of products and commodities between one section and another.

WILL OF DARIUS OGDEN MILLS. Leaves $400,000 to Public Institutions and Balance to His Two Children. New York, Jan. 18.—The will of Darius Ogdan Mills, which was filed for probate today, leaves $400,000 to public institutions and gives the balance of the estate to his two children, Ogdan Mills and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid.

The public bequests are as follows: Metropolitan Museum of Art, $100,000; American Museum of Natural History, $100,000; home for the incurables in the city of New York, $100,000; botanical gardens in the Bronx, $50,000; American Geographical society, $25,000; and the American Red Cross, $25,000.

RECENT DEATHS.

BROTHERS. Mrs. Mary Brothers, a life long resident of the community, died Saturday morning, January 15th, at 6:45 o'clock, at the home of William Waller, at Crown, Clarion county. Her maiden name was Bender. She was aged 88 years and her death was due to ailments incident to old age. She is survived by three sons and five daughters. The funeral services were held Monday at ten o'clock a. m., at St. Marys church, Crown, and were conducted by Rev. Joseph E. Keegan.

PORTER. John Stevens Porter, of Salem township, Clarion county, was born November 30, 1827, and died January 5, 1910, aged 82 years, 1 month and 5 days. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Wm. Earl Davis, of Lamartine, Pa., and the body was laid to rest beside that of his wife in the churchyard of the Salem Reformed church. Mr. Porter is survived by one son E. M. Porter, who lives at Kelleetville, Pa., and one daughter who lives on the home farm in Salem township.

OVERLANDER. Jacob F. Overlander, brief mention of whose death at the Oil City hospital, Jan. 12, 1910, was made last week, was born in Jefferson, York county, Pa., May 13, 1822. His parents were Peter and Susanna (Foreman) Overlander, the father being a native of York county and the mother of Baltimore, Md. Their family consisted of five sons and three daughters, of whom three are living at present: Mrs. Catherine Anderson, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mrs. Elizabeth Ludwig, of Youngstown, O.; and Peter Overlander, of Enon Valley, Pa. The subject of this sketch grew to manhood at Jefferson, later going to Ohio, where he superintended coal mining operations at Buffalo and East Palestine. He also conducted a hotel at the latter place. From there he removed to Oil Creek, in this state, where he followed the oil business and conducted a hotel at McClintockville. About the year 1867 he came to Forest county, locating first at Geebuck, near Gultonville, where he was a contractor in stocking the sawmill of David Gill. Later he purchased the Wm. White farm, near Jug-handle run, on Tionesta creek, which was his home until he came to Tionesta in the spring of 1891. In his early life he followed his father's footsteps and learned the stonemason's trade, at which he was an expert, and there are many monuments to his skill in this line in this community. He was one of our oldest citizens, rugged, honest and industrious, and will be much missed. In early life he united with the Lutheran church; later with the Presbyterian church, and died trusting in Christ as his Savior.

Mr. Overlander was first married to Miss Margaret McCown. To them were born two children, Mrs. John McCown of Enon Valley, Pa., and Mrs. L. J. Johnston of Beaver Falls, Pa. His second marriage was to Miss Jane Fowler, of Darlington, Beaver county, Pa., who died in Tionesta. To them were born nine children, Mrs. James R. Morgan of Tionesta, Mrs. J. D. McCown of Tulara, California, William T. Overlander, deceased, S. J. Overlander of Tionesta, J. Melvin Overlander, deceased, J. F. Overlander of Pittsburgh, Pa., Mrs. George Gealy, of Zanesville, O., C. M. Overlander of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Seymour C. Overlander, deceased. Mr. Overlander was married in 1908 to Mrs. Lois Mosier of Warren, O., who survives him.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 3:30 in the Tionesta M. E. church, and were conducted by Rev. W. O. Calhoun. The body was interred in Riverside cemetery. In this connection the family wish to extend their sincere thanks to all friends who assisted them in any way.

The relatives present from a distance were, Mrs. John McCown and Mrs. Myrtle Marshall, of Enon Valley, Mrs. L. J. Johnston, of Beaver Falls, J. F. and C. M. Overlander, of Pittsburgh, Lawrence Overlander, of East Palestine, Frank McCown, of Conway, Pa., and Clark Morgan, of Oil City.

Postmaster Held up and Robbed. Meadville, Pa., Jan. 15.—After Kaster & Brooks' general store at Geneva, containing the postoffice, had been robbed Saturday night, Walter Blakeslee, aged 18, and Norman Buttry, aged 20, were captured Sunday morning. Blakeslee has only one arm and part of one hand. The boys have been readers of sensational novels. Saturday evening, armed with revolvers and knives, they started for Geneva. They were seen loitering about the town till the store was about to close when, it is said, they entered.

Brooks was alone, and it is alleged the boys, masked with handkerchiefs, covered him with guns and ordered him to hand over his money. Brooks gave up about $50 and the intruders backed out of the store and ran. Fifteen minutes later they were running down the Erie railroad track with a posse of farmers after them. The fugitives took to the swamp and could not be found until County Detective John Laley and Police Captain H. J. Grindrod of Meadville arrived. The boys, suffering terribly from exposure, were captured in a farm yard. The money was recovered.

Killed While Crossing Track. Jeannette, Pa., Jan. 18.—A Pennsylvania railroad train struck and instantly killed Andrew McGinstry, 25 years old, when he attempted to drive across the tracks in a sleigh.

—Have you a weak throat? If so, you cannot be too careful. You cannot begin treatment too early. Each cold makes you more liable to another and the last is always the harder to cure. If you will take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at the outset you will be saved much trouble. Sold by Dunn & Fulton.

Will Get Pensions.

It will be pleasing news to William Brubaker and his friends to learn that a pension of $30 a month is an immediate prospect for him. In our issue of December 18 mention was made of the activity of Congressman N. P. Wheeler in securing pensions for Civil war veterans in this district. There have been only two pension days in the House this session but Mr. Wheeler was successful in getting the following bills reported out of the committee favorably, which practically assures the granting of the pension: Joseph C. Pettigrew, Franklin, $24 per month.

Edward L. Morris, Youngsville, $30 per month. Nathan Laughner, Ridgway, $24 per month. William Brubaker, Greenville, $30 per month.

John Woods, Stoneboro, $24 per month. Mr. Wheeler has certainly been fortunate in securing this action of the Pension committee of the House. No pension ever came more worthily or as a greater boon than to William Brubaker. He lost his eyesight some years ago and is entirely incapacitated from making a livelihood.—Greenville Evening Record, 7th.
