Letter From F. P. Walker.

We give below a few excerpts from a letter from Ex-Sheriff Frank P. Waiker, who left here Jan. 8th for Lomison, and the tailoring business, after which they who has been critically ill. His many friends hereabouts will congratulate him on his recovery:

LAMISON, ALA., Jan. 22, 1910. DEAR FRIEND:-I thought I would drop you a line today. I have been in a critical condition since I have been here. The morning we drove from Kellettyille to Tionesta I froze my face and it turned into erysipelas. My face swelled up so large you could not tell what I looked like. I have been under the care of two of the best doctors here and have a nurse with me all the time. The last two weeks have been a blank. I don't remember anything that has passed. They thought they would have to bury me here at one time. I haven't been out of doors yet. The doctor thought he would take me out driving next Monday, G. F. Watson and all of the boys have stayed right by me. The weather is nice here, the nights are cool and the days are warm. I can lie in bed and look out of the window. That helps some. When I get a little stronger I will write you a long letter Ever yours, F. P. WALKES, GEROW.

> John Newton Gerow died at his farm home in Grand Valley, Pa., at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Jan. 30, 1910, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis sustained on the Sunday previous. The family maintained their home there as well as in Tionesta and Mr. Gerow had gone there for a visit on the day when he was stricken. Mr. Gerow was born November 9, 1847, on Oil creek, near Titusville. When the Civil war broke out he answered the first call for troops, enlisting at the age of 15 years in Co. I, 57th Regiment, P. V. I., in which he served four months. He then re-enlisted in the same regiment, serving a year and eight months as a member of Co. K. He was a gallant soldier, serving his country faithfully and well. In the second day's fighting of the Wilderness campaign be was dangerously wounded, a rebel bullet passing through his right hip and lodging somewhere in the lower portion o his back, where it still remained at the time of his death. When he returned from the war Mr. Gerow engaged in the lumber business. For 14 years he had charge of the big lumber plant of L. B. Wood in Grand Valley and from 1880 to 1895 conducted the Grand Valley hotel, Following that for two years be conducted the Hotel Grandin at Corry, For the past 12 years he had been a re-ident of Tionesta, where he owned a restaurant and billiard room. He was a genial, companionable man and had many friends. He was a member of the Grand Valley Post, G. A. R., and of the Masonic fraternity at Cambridge Springs, Pa. Forty-four years ago Mr. Gerow was married to Miss Catherine Peck, of Centerville, who survives him with nine children, as follows: John N. # L. Agnew Purchases Portland Hotel.

The following letter is self-explanatory and Mr. Agnew's many old friends in this county will wish him abundant success in his new undertaking: PORTLAND, ORE., Jan. 24, 1910.

DEAR FRIEND: -On Jan, 10th I bought a half interest in the Princess Hotel in Portland and have taken possession of the same. It is an incorporated company and I am its president, as well as manager of the hotel. All the first class hotels here are incorporated. The Princess is not the largest hotel, but I think one of the nicest, and is the only fireproof hotel in the city. It is a little larger than I have ever conducted but I think I can manage it all right and make it pay without robbing the public. The hotel is a four-story concrete building, steam heated, hot and cold water in every room and most of the rooms have private bath. There is also a nice office, large lobby, restaurant grill and bar, everything first class to accommodate the traveling public, as well as my many eastern friends. You will please hereafter send the good old REPUBLICAN to the Princess Hotel, Portland, Oregon, as we couldn't get the ranch has been quite sufficient for a man of my age. I thought I might as well take life a little more easy and not spend my old days by working on a ranch. We are having our annual sale, as usual, so you see I am very busy at present. I am enclosing you a bill of the sale so you can see what a farmer I was, Robert Carson and his mother are well. He sends regards to all his friends. We are all well and enjoying fine weather at present. Remember me to all the boys. Yours, LEONARD AGNEW.
