Announce Their Lace and Embroidery Sale This Week.

Laces—Assortment at 3 cents a yard.

Imported Torchons, Linen Machine Torchons, French Valenciennes and Platte Valenciennes, both edgings and insertions. Varied widths.

Assortment at 5 cents a yard,

Consists of over 5,000 yards, including all Linen Torchons in both fine narrow and wide heavy laces-Imitation Torchons, Platte Valenciennes, Paris Valenciennes and French Valenciennes. In this assortment will be found laces worth several times the price.

Assortment at 10 cents a yard.

Medium and wide Valenciennes, Machine Torchons, Linen Torchons and Orientals, in both edges and insertions. This lot is not as large as the one at 5 cents, but on account of their wonderful value we predict a ready sale.

Several Embroidery Lots, very special. A lot at 11 cents.

A grand lot it is too. Edges and insertions-narrow and wide. Little narrow, neat edges with insertions to match, in fine dainty nainsook cloth, or wider and more serviceable sets in cambric and Hamburg cloths,

Corset Cover Embroideries at 29 cents.

Not the kind usually sold at this price, but a special lot of fifty pieces, of regular 50c values.

A Bank Account Helps Establish Credit

A savings account is a very good guide post to a man's character.

The man who saves a little money regularly every week or every month shows himself to be prudent, careful, cautious. He exercises foresight and sound common sense-and is usually deserving of the respect of his fellow townsmen and generally gets it.

Not so with the spendthrift; he is usually in debt or at periods at least hard pressed for funds-he is a poor credit
