Died Among Strangers.

Mrs. Hannah McCray, of Hunter Staion, Tionesta township, died suddenly Saturday morning, Feb. 12, 1910, while coming from Marion, Ind., to Meadville, Pa., on an Erie railroad train. Mrs. Mc-Cray went to Marion the week before Christmas. She had been ailing for more than a year with stomach trouble and while at Marion was a patient in the hospital. She was on her way home when overtaken by death. The body was removed from the train at the first stop, Ashland, Ohio. The first news of her demise came in the following message, dated Ashland and sent to Dr. F. J Boyard, of Tionesta: "Elderly lady died on train today, holding your receipt, Enroute from Union City (Ind.) to Meadville. Can you give relatives name. Dr. Ash, Coroner," The receipt mentioned furnished the only clue to her identity, Her son Seiden left Saturday evening to claim the body, returning Tuesday afternoon with the remains. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at two o'clock in the Tionesta M. E. church Rev. W. O. Calhoun, officiating. The body will be laid beside that of her husband in Riverside cemetery.

Mrs. McCray was born Sept. 3, 1836, as be old Hunter bomestead, across the river from Tionesta. Her parents were William and Sarah (Range) Hunter, who were among the first settlers of this section. She was the twelfth of sixteen children born to this worthy couple. In the fall of 1860 she was united in marriage with Andrew McCray, who died many years ago. . The family had resided in this section ever since; first in Tiones ta, then two years in Emienton, then on Hunter run, and for the past thirty years on their farm, which was formerly the Pierson farm, at the mouth of Pierson run. Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. McCray, two of whom survive, as follows: Selden McCray and Ida, wife of Henry Armburger, both of Hunter Station. One brother and two sisters also and Mrs. Ellen Ahlstrand, of Mill Village, Erie county, Pa., and Mrs. Martha L. Bimber, of East Hickory, Pa. The deceased was a woman of many good qualities and will be missed in the community
