Will the world's work presently all be done by men between 25 and 35 and of medium height and thickness? And what will all the others do?
 —George S. Mason, who was well known to all our older readers, died March 10, 1910, at his home in Rocky Grove, Pa., of pneumonia, after an illness of two weeks. He was a native of Venango county, having been born near Cooperstown, Jan. 30, 1840. Prior to the Civil war he was employed by the late Hamilton Stow at Newtown Mills, this county, and while there enlisted as a member of Co. G, 83d Pennsylvania Regiment, serving throughout the war. He was a moving spirit for good in his community and in his death Rocky Grove loses a splendid citizen. A widow, two sons and a daughter survive him.
 —We are indebted to our friend J. C. Miller, of Kellettville, for four post card views of flood conditions in that town during the recent break-up in Tionesta creek. They are the work of photographer John Brennan. The first shows the ice being dynamited below the bridge, two are views of Main street on the west side, looking north, and the fourth a view of the same street, looking south. The amount of ice and water shown on Main street are conclusive proof that the residents had good reasons for their fears for the destruction of the town should the gorges above break before the one then formed below the bridge. These fears were not realized, we are glad to say, and the town was saved.

NEW CHURCH IS DEDICATED.
Tionesta's New Presbyterian Church is Opened With Impressive Services on Sunday Morning.
 With impressive yet simple ceremonies and in the presence of an assemblage which filled every seat and corner in the handsomely appointed edifice, the new First Presbyterian church of Tionesta, so recently completed, was dedicated to the worship and service of Almighty God on Sunday morning, March 13, 1910. Though the skies were threatening all was brightness and gladness within and many came from a distance to mingle their voices in praise with the members of the congregation and to rejoice with them in the fruition of their hopes and plans of the past year. The services were in charge of the pastor, Rev. Harry A. Bailey, who was assisted by Rev. T. M. Thompson, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church at Sharpsburg, Pa., Rev. J. F. Scherer, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Endeavor, Pa., Rev. S. P. Davis, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Seneca, Pa., Rev. W. O. Calhoun, pastor of the Tionesta Methodist Episcopal church, and Rev. E. L. Monroe, pastor of the Tionesta Free Methodist church. The program as printed was closely followed, beginning promptly at 11 o'clock with an organ prelude, followed by the doxology by the choir and congregation. Rev. Mr. Scherer gave the invocation and Psalm 84 was read responsively by Rev. Mr. Davis and the congregation. The choir gave an anthem, "I Was Glad," followed by the hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty." The announcements were followed by the scripture reading from 1 Cor. 3:1-15 by Rev. Mr. Calhoun, a prayer by Rev. Mr. Monroe, and a solo, "Blessed Are They," by Mr. Francis W. Gill. The dedicatory sermon was then delivered by Rev. Mr. Thompson, who chose for his theme "Christ the Sure Foundation," as exemplified by the text found in 1 Cor. 3:11, "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ." For forty minutes the eloquent divine held the closest attention of his large audience with a discourse which was clear and logical in every point and couched in chaste and beautiful language. After the singing of the hymn "The Church's One Foundation," the statement of the building committee was given, which showed the total cost of the structure to be $14,552.08. A debt of over $3,000.00 was practically wiped out by voluntary contributions, which were called for by Dr. Thompson. The "Te Deum" was recited by the pastor and people, the keys of the building were transferred to Mr. A. B. Kelly, president of the board of trustees, by Mr. G. W. Robinson, chairman of the building committee, and the formal dedication then took place, the pastor and people reading the service responsively. After the dedicatory prayer by the pastor, the choir rendered the anthem, "Incline Thine Ear." A hymn followed and the benediction closed a service which will ever remain as a sweet memory in the minds of all who were permitted to meet within those hallowed walls.
 The services throughout the balance of the day were largely attended and thoroughly enjoyable. In the afternoon at 3:30 a fellowship service was held in the new church, at which hearty greetings were given by the visiting ministers, Revs. E. L. Monroe, W. O. Calhoun, S. P. Davis and J. F. Scherer. The choir gave an anthem entitled "God So Loved the World." At 6:15 p. m. Rev. Mr. Davis occupied the pulpit of the M. E. church, delivering a splendid sermon to a large audience.
 In the evening at 7:30 Rev. Mr. Thompson again occupied the pulpit, giving his hearers another spiritual and intellectual treat in a sermon founded on the subject, "Let Us Reason Together," using as his text Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord; though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." As in the morning service, he admonished his hearers to lay hold on Jesus Christ as the only sure foundation on which to build their faith. Dr. Thompson's labors throughout the day were very highly appreciated by our people and proved that his was a master mind in the direction of such services. The choir rendered two fine anthems, "Praise Ye the Name of the Lord," and "Jesus and Shall It Ever Be." Mr. Gill also gave a beautiful solo, "Fear Ye Not, O Israel."
 We feel that the choir, composed of Mrs. Sue M. Sharpe, Mrs. Alice Swanson, Miss Kate Arner, Mrs. H. A. Bailey, Miss Katharine Osgood, Messrs. W. G. Wyman, J. N. Bankhead, F. J. Bovard and F. W. Gill, are entitled to more than a passing mention. The anthems and music furnished were of the highest class and a source of great delight to all who attended the several services of the day. In this we must remember also the faithful accompanist and organist, Miss Elizabeth Randall, who is ever in her place. Her accomplishments as a musician are recognized by all and the prelude at the morning service and the voluntary in the evening were musical gems.
 We gave last week a complete description and history of the stately and beautiful temple of worship, but from this a description of the great gas chandelier was omitted, as it had not yet arrived. The chandelier presents a handsome and brilliant appearance. It is of large size and is suspended from the dome of the beautiful skylight by brass rods 18 feet in length and hangs 12 feet above the floor, throwing its brilliant rays in all directions. It is composed of antique brass, the lustre of which lends beauty to it and at the same time filling the room with a flood of light, displaying the beautiful architecture and adornment of the church, which is a gem—in short an ideal church. This chandelier is the gift of the Christian Endeavor Society of the church.
 The report of the completion and dedication of this handsome edifice would be wholly incomplete without a word of commendation of the part which the Ladies' Aid Society had in the work. From the beginning the ladies have evinced great interest in the work, and to the very end their efforts never lagged for a moment, but all worked in perfect harmony to bring about the magnificent result, and when they have finished it will be found that considerably over a thousand dollars have been contributed by them toward beautifying the interior of the building, all of which was raised by persistent, ceaseless and splendid endeavor.

ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.
 The third entertainment of the high school course was given in Andrews' hall on Thursday evening. The attraction on this occasion was the celebrated Durno & Co. Mr. Durno is well known as one who delights his audience and is a past master at his mysterious doings. Mr. Frank Sherman also told some very amusing incidents in his travels and is quite clever at repartee. Prof. Simmons is to be congratulated upon securing such highclass artists for the course. The hall was well filled, all available space being occupied. There were special trains from Mayburg and Nebraska, which assisted greatly in filling the hall. —Train No. 4 met with a slight accident on Thursday at Brownstown, by the spreading of the rails and letting the coach drop onto the ties. None of the passengers or train crew were injured, but their feelings were considerably jolted. The baggage coach was damaged to some extent and it will be some time before it will be put into service again. —Kribbs & Ray have shipped the past week 215 bushels of fine winter wheat from the Kribbs farm, on Whig Hill, to Erie, where they were paid a good price for the cereal. A. L. Waller also sent along 93 bushels from his farm. We are of the opinion this is the first consignment of wheat exported since 1876, when John A. Proper shipped a car load from his farm on German Hill. —W. A. Cribbs has completed the unloading of a car load of salt, which is to be used on his farm this season. While the venture is purely an experiment with Mr. Kribbs, it is doubtless of some lasting benefit to the land. Good results have already been attained wherever salt has been used as a fertilizer. —Mrs. M. Andrews departed on train 1 Monday for a short stay in Cleveland, where she will purchase a line of spring millinery goods and incidentally visit her son, Charles, and family. She will be absent about a week. M. H. Wilson will have charge of her store during her absence. —F. J. Henderson went to Leeper on Monday to take up some lumber for the Pennsylvania Lumber Co. —The parts of No. 10 logging train, which have been under repair at Corry, have arrived and will soon be on the road again. The boys will appreciate the old reliable when it is in good running order again. —Miss Olive Wolfe and Miss Bertha Shunk, of Whig Hill, departed for Buffalo on Monday. —D. W. Shunk, a former Forest county boy, but for the past five years a resident of Buffalo and Niagara Falls, was calling on old acquaintances last week. —Mrs. Mildred Robinson, of Jamestown, came home on train 4 Monday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Patterson, of Whig Hill. Mrs. Robinson was present at the Jamestown fire of Saturday and Sunday. —T. L. Hill was up from the county home Saturday, visiting relatives.

Clarington.
 The home of Fred Miller, of Blue Ridge, was totally destroyed by fire Sunday, March 13, about 10 o'clock. He was able to save the principal part of his furniture. The fire seemed to start at or near the flue in the room upstairs. Mrs. Miller had gone to D. H. Miller's and Fred was alone with the two children when he saw the fire. A brother and some of the neighbor boys happened to come just in time to assist in the rescue. Eli Ishman is not expected to survive the night, (Sunday, 13th). He has been sick more or less all winter and was able to go to the barn last Monday, but has not been out of the house since. Mrs. Elmer Hensley continues to improve nicely. She has been in the hospital for two weeks.
 Rev. J. F. Strayer is engaged in a meeting at Eddyburn. This finishes the second week. Several have been at the altar, with a number of professions, Rev. J. F. McCaboy, pastor of the M. E. church at Clarington, assisted him this week by preaching twice for him.
 Next Sunday is the regular preaching day at Greenwood. A full house is desired.
 The Sunday school of the M. E. church at Clarington, are to have a special Easter service, Sunday, March 27. The pastor expects to preach an Easter sermon at the morning service. All are cordially invited to each of these, as well as to all other services.
 The District Elder of the Free Methodists preached at the church at Mays' Schoolhouse, Friday night.
 Miss Anna Campbell has been on the sick list, but is better now.
 The school at Cooksburg, assisted by some of the friends, will give an entertainment at Cooksburg, Saturday night.
