Can You Write a 50 Word Criticism? $35 Given For the Best 3 Received. Webster's New International Dictionary and Atlas.

I need a few satisfactory criticisms of this magnificent volume and the premium Atlas and I have concluded to get them in this way: To the writer of the best favorable criticism I will pay $20 in gold, to the second best $10 and to the third $5. Each criticism must be written in less than 51 words and the contest is open only to the 50 first subscribers in Forest county. The judges of the contest will be, probably, a committee of ministers or prominent educators.

Drop a card or speak to me personally and the Dictionary and Atlas will be brought to your house or office for examination. After you have examined the work thoroughly you can subscribe or not as you please and I will thank you just the same. Cards and requests to examine will be entered in the order received and no matter in what part of the county you live your request will be complied with. The publishers have decided to sell this special subscription on easy terms so that a few cents saved each week pays it.

You all know what Webster's Dictionary is. It is the foundation of all other Dictionaries. Its many splendid editions have culminated in 1910 in the NEW INTERNATIONAL—a superb volume of 3000 pages, 400,000 words, 6000 illustrations and 20,000 Historical References which give a chronological history of the world from 6000 B. C. to 1910. It gives every word in the English language, spells it, pronounces it, defines it and gives its etymology. The 83 premium Atlas of the World contains all the political and statistical information of the globe, an account of Peary's trip and a full description of the Panama canal. This Atlas I give free to each of the 50 first subscribers.

This statement appears but once and you should drop me a card the moment you read it. Notice will be printed in the newspapers of the time and place of the award, and the successful critics in the competitive contest will be given orders on the bank for the prize he or she wins.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Kulick, of Kellettville, died Sunday night of stomach trouble. The child was aged about six months. It is the third child to die in this family. The body was taken to Tidioute Tuesday morning for burial in the Catholic cemetery.

M'CLOSKEY.

Robert McCloskey, a prominent farmer of Crown, Pa., died at his home Saturday, aged about 83 years. He was a man of means, and is said to have become wealthy through the sale, some years ago, of a tract of timber land in Forest county for $30,000. He was born of Irish parents, and retained throughout life, in a marked degree, the characteristics of his race. He always had a cheery word and cordial greeting for his friends.

BEHRENS.

Mrs. Anna Margaret Behrens, wife of Ernest Behrens, died at the family home on German Hill, Green township, Monday morning, April 11, 1910, at 5 o'clock. Her death was due to ailments incident to old age and came after an illness of eleven weeks. Mrs. Behrens, whose maiden name was Hopf, was born in Gumbert, Hessen Cassel, now Hessen Nassau, Germany, September 21, 1817. She came to America in 1848, sailing from Antwerp on May 27th, and locating first in Allegheny, Pa. There on April 25, 1850, she was united in marriage with Mr. Behrens and in 1859 the family came to Forest county, settling in the then almost unbroken wilderness on German Hill. For one year they resided on the Adam Sibble farm and since that time on the farm on which she ended her days. During all these years she was a faithful and loving helpmeet for her husband, who survives her at an advanced age, being in his ninetieth year and yet hale and hearty. Five children were born to this worthy couple, three of whom survive, as follows: Lewis Behrens, of Starr; Rudolph Behrens, of Lindsay, Cal., and Mrs. Sophia Kiser, living on the old homestead. There are also thirteen grandchildren and six great grandchildren. In early life she united with the Lutheran church and faithfully followed its precepts until the Lord called her home. An affectionate mother and a good neighbor, she will be sincerely mourned in the community. Funeral services will be held at two o'clock this afternoon in the Mt. Zion Lutheran church, German Hill. The services will be conducted by Rev. H. J. Reimann, of Oil City. Interment will be made in the Lutheran cemetery.

MILLER.

Henry Washington Miller died at his home at Beaver Valley, Hickory township, at 4:15 Saturday afternoon, April 9, 1910. Mr. Miller had been visiting his sons in West Virginia and came home sick on Sunday a week before his death, his ailment seeming to be mostly in the form of a bad cold. His death was unexpected and came as a great shock to many old friends. He was born in Clarion county, July 4, 1836, where he grew to manhood. About 40 years ago he came to Forest county and located at Beaver Valley, where in former years he followed the lumber business and later was engaged in farming. He was a man of strong physique and prided himself on his ability to do a full day's work up to within a few days of his illness. He was a veteran of the Civil war, enlisting in 1862 in the 155th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry and serving for the balance of the war. He was a good citizen and will be greatly missed in the community where he had made his home for so many years. His old comrades who were wont to march to the cheery notes from his fife at many of their gatherings, will also mourn the loss of a gallant comrade. Mr. Miller was twice married, his first wife being Miss Emmeline Weaver, who died many years ago. To them were born nine children, seven of whom survive, as follows: Mrs. Samuel Hunter, of Endeavor; Mrs. H. F. Blum, of Newtown Mills; Mrs. John Thornton, of Henrys Mills; Mrs. Harry Spencer, of Endeavor; Warren and George Miller, of Glady, W. Va., and Wilbur Miller, of Kellettville. His second marriage was with Miss Ellen M. King, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry King, of Beaver Valley. Seven children were born to them, all of whom with the mother survive, as follows: Mrs. Burr Hunter, Martin and Frank Miller, of Endeavor; Orion Miller, of Glady, W. Va.; Miss Freda Miller, Stephen Miller and Miss Alice Miller, of Beaver Valley. The deceased had recently disposed of all his property and was preparing to take his family to Maryland. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the M. E. church at East Hickory, conducted by Rev. J. F. Scherer, of Endeavor. Interment in East Hickory cemetery.
