

The Smart and Silberberg Co.

Here Are The New Hats Fresh From Their Boxes.

It may be because of the beautiful colorings of the flowers that are used so freely in the trimmings, it may be because of the materials, and of the charming shapes with the new rolling brim effects, certain it is, however, that the present showing appears more attractive and pleasing than any we have ever presented before.

Now is the time when all the correct styles are shown in abundance, for you to determine the exact shape, coloring and general type that is best suited to your individual requirements.

Please remember that our department is at your service for suggestions or expert advice, and you will not be importuned to buy.

Those Seco Silks at 25c.

One of the most popular sales we have advertised for some time. Any shade or color you can suggest, in either the plain Seco or the plain with a little silk woven dot or figure.

Seco Foulards at 35c.

The only fault we can find with them is they are so pretty they spoil the sale of the high priced silk foulards. Especially good just now are the navy blue ones with white polka dots.

Selling $5 Silk Petticoats at $3.50.

A goodly number sold out the first day of the sale, but there's still a full assortment left. All the wanted colors and black, and all made good and full of a good rusty taffeta. Really the best petticoat we have ever seen at this price.

R. & S. Coleen Poplins.

In all the world of Fashion, Poplins are to hold sway this season. We show a line of R. & S. Poplins at $1.75.

Pertinent Observations

The Tailored Suits, shown by any store, reflects the character of the suit houses he patronizes. This will be readily granted, no doubt, even by the most casual observer.

If then, the suits shown here come, as they do, from several of America's most celebrated suit makers, famous alike for the distinctive style and tailored perfection of their suits, would not that fact entitle such merchant to the kindly consideration of discriminating suit buyers?

If, in addition to the very evident superiority of suits made under those conditions, the prices are, as a matter of fact, less than the prices of suits made by suit makers of indifferent reputation and questionable skill, would not that be another good reason why the facts set forth in this advertisement should be investigated?

Misses' Tailored Suits $8.50, $12.50, $14.50 and $16.50.
Women's Tailored Suits $12.50, $14.50, $16.50, $18.50 to $65.
