—Mrs. Miller, who has recently opened a new store at Kellettville, has a new advertisement in this issue. He invites all the people in that vicinity to call and inspect a bright new stock of clothing, shoes and gentlemen's furnishings, and guarantees satisfaction with his prices and qualities.
 —The two months old infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers, of Rocky Grove, Pa., died last Sunday. The child was a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sibble, of German Hill, who with their son went down to attend the funeral, which was held Monday afternoon at three o'clock.

 —Ricker, Wiles & Co.'s No. 3 well on the Jacob Smeathugh farm, across Tionesta creek, was finished and shot Monday afternoon. The well made a good showing of oil in the Red Valley sand at about 317 feet and it is thought will make a fair producer. The company will install a pumping power as soon as possible and will drill more wells.
 —Lewis Hanna, employed at Smith Bros' tannery in West Hickory, was caught in a crushing machine Monday and so badly injured that he will be unable to work for several weeks. The sole of his right shoe was caught by a set screw in the machine and his knee cap was badly hurt. His home is at Gilfoyle, Jenks township, and he was taken there. Dr. M. C. Kerr attended him.

Mr. Thompson will not remove to his new purchase until the coming fall, but will farm the place, as well as the Kiser farm. Mr. Ledebur will move his family into a vacant house on the farm of Herman Blum and will be employed at tool dressing during the summer.
 —J. C. Miller, of Kellettville, has favored us with three good post card views of the disastrous fire which destroyed the lumber yard at the Salmon Creek. Lumber Co. at Kellettville in the morning of Sunday, April 17th. The views were taken before daylight when the fire was at its worst and show huge piles of fire lumber being licked up by the remorseless flames. The cards are the work of artist John Brennan and make good souvenirs of the big fire.
 —John Licht and Bert Moore, two young men of Leeper, Pa., hired a horse and buggy from liverman W. B. Wright of that place, last Saturday night and drove to Crown to visit friends. While making their call the young men tied the horse to a telegraph pole, with a good strong rope about the animal's neck. They neglected to pass the rope through the bit of the bridle and when they came from the house found the horse dead, it having become entangled and hanged.
 —The borough authorities had the town calaboose removed last week from its location near the old skating rink to the river bank near the old willow tree. The lockup and grounds were in such a filthy condition as to be almost a public nuisance and the residents in that neighborhood will send up a prayer of thankfulness that it has been removed. The swamp in which the building stood will be filled up at once, thus removing a place which might have been a disease breeder.
 —At a regular meeting of Tionesta Lodge, No. 369, I. O. O. F., at their hall Tuesday evening, April 26, the first degree was conferred on two candidates. The full form of the ritualistic work was carried out by the Tionesta team in the presence of a large number of the members of this and visiting lodges. Yokohama, Eden, Emlenton and Dayton, N. Y., were represented. After the degree work was completed refreshments were served by members of the lodge. This was followed by an hour spent in a most social manner.
 —The most disastrous fire that has occurred in this section in recent years was sustained by Ridgway early Saturday morning, which began with an explosion in the boiler room of immense wood-working plant of the Hyde-Murphy Co., which was completely destroyed with a loss of $250,000. Insurance of $100,000. The fire then jumped to Main and Race streets, where many business blocks and private residences were destroyed, bringing the total loss up to $350,000. The fire departments of DuBois, Johnsonburg and St. Marys responded to calls for help.
 —"The Singing School" as presented by the Choral Union of the Presbyterian church, drew a large and appreciative audience to the court house last Friday evening, the proceeds amounting to $75.00. There were forty-four persons in the cast and every part was carried out with a perfection that merited the unstinted applause bestowed upon the production. Many striking and original costumes were presented. While it was not so classical as the "Haymakers," given last spring, it was replete with good, wholesome fun, and was an artistic success. Those who had the affair in charge, as well as all who took part in the production, are to be congratulated upon the success of their efforts.

—Mrs. G. W. Osgood has returned to her home here after a visit of a month or more with Mrs. W. F. Jones, at Newtown Mills. These two ladies, in company with Misses Anna Halet and Pearl Clay, while enjoying a day's recreation and fishing on the 15th inst., caught 163 fish (mostly suckers and shiners) while fishing with hook and line just below the Newtown dam. This isn't intended as a fish story but merely to show what the ladies can do when they set out for a good time.
 —Three men named Hessley, Hildman and Stinger were arrested at Sheffield several days ago by Fish Warden J. P. Alberts for dynamiting fish in Tionesta Creek. The trio appeared before Justice J. Borden of Sheffield yesterday afternoon and pled guilty to the charge for which they were assessed $100 and costs of prosecution. There are a number of other residents of Sheffield and vicinity against whom information has been made for the same offense and their arrest will follow within a few days.—Warren Times, 23d.
 —Edward Dripps, aged 22 years, an employe of the Doverspike lumber mill, at Rockmere, was drowned in the Allegheny river, near the mouth of Panther run, late Saturday afternoon. He was riding a float of logs when the logs parted, throwing him into the water. He could not swim and drowned before help could reach him. The deceased was single and was a native of Hoboken, N. J. He had been at work about a week. Three brothers, Albert and Lawson, of Hawthorn, Clarion county, and Carl, in the navy, survive him. Although diligent search was made, his body had not been found up to Tuesday night.
 —Eight young men of this place, G. B. Robinson, Dr. F. J. Boyard, A. H. Kelly, J. N. Bankhead, M. A. Carringer, Harry Craig, G. H. Herman and J. A. Lawrence, have formed an outing club, not yet named, and are having a club house built at the harbor, just above the mouth of Little Tionesta creek. Carpenters Wallace Mealy and Harry Wertz began work on the house Tuesday, which is to be 18x24 feet, with an 8-foot porch. The club has certainly chosen an ideal spot, far from the madding crowd, for its camp, and the boys are anticipating many pleasant days to be spent there during the hot weather of the coming summer.
 —The Tionesta Summer School will open Tuesday, May 10th, and continue for a period of eight weeks. The directors have been fortunate in securing the services of Prof. G. W. Mitchell, supervisory principal of the Johnsonburg, Pa., schools, as one of the instructors. Mr. Mitchell needs no introduction to any one in Forest county who is interested in educational matters. Those who remember the success which he attained as the head of the summer school here in the years 1907-8 will be glad to learn that he is to be with us again. Prof. O. L. Moore, assistant principal of the Tionesta high school, will also be an instructor in the summer school for a part of the term. A teachers' examination for summer school students only will be held at the close of term.
 —Earl Albaugh, of West Hickory, was arrested this morning for trying to pass a forged check on the O'Dell Clothing Company. The check was drawn on the Citizens National Bank of Tionesta and signed by T. D. Collins. The clerk to whom the check was given in payment for goods which Albaugh purchased was suspicious and the paper was sent to the Warren Savings Bank, where it was pronounced a forgery. Geo. E. O'Dell refused to push the charge of forgery and the matter was then taken up by the bank and the man was arraigned before Justice Perry and he pleaded not guilty to the charge. In default of bail, which was fixed at $300 he was sent to jail. Albaugh is a punper at Hickory and his reputation has always been good heretofore.—Warren Times, 23d.
 —Edwin Adams, the 9-year-old son of C. H. Adams, of Lamont Station, near Kane, was lost in the woods Saturday, April 16th, and although thousands of men have scoured the woods since that time, no trace of the lad has been found. With three other lads, all older than himself, he was trout fishing along a private stream when they saw a man approaching whom they thought was a game warden. The boys all ran in different directions and young Adams has not been seen since. On the same day Mike Stefan, the 6-year-old son of George Stefan, of Ludlow, got lost in the woods while fishing with a number of other boys, and no trace of him can be found. There is talk of kidnapping, but the parents of the lads are poor, and therefore this is not generally believed. Harry Arrow-smith, a demented young man of Corydon, who disappeared about the same time, has returned home and could give no account of his wanderings.
 —The semi-annual meeting of the Clarion Presbyterian church, Oil City, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. About 75 ministers and elders were present from the 90 churches in the Presbytery. Rev. J. B. Eakins, of Puxunatunney, was elected moderator for the ensuing term. The following delegates were elected to attend the General Assembly, which convenes in Atlantic City on May 19th: Rev. E. L. McIlvaine, Ridgway; Rev. H. A. Bailey, Tionesta; Elder James Owen, Rahobeta, and Elder H. L. Berry, Ayers. Rev. P. J. Stonaker, of Brookwayville, was dismissed to the Butler Presbytery, having accepted the pastorate of the church at Parker. Rev. S. D. Waidrop, of Falls Creek, was dismissed to the Presbytery of Abilene, Texas, having accepted a call to a church in that state. Rev. R. A. McKinley, of Cottonwood Falls, Kan., was admitted to the presbytery, having a call to the church at Reynoldsville.
