PRAISE FOR MR. KNOX

Open Door in China Is Purpose of the Administration.

President Had a Busy Day in Pittsburg—Addressed Students of State College For Women—Saw the Pittsburg Pirates Beat His Brother's Team—Delivered an Address at the Grant's Birthday Dinner of the American Club.

Pittsburg, May 3.—Anyone in this town who had an idea that Secretary of State Philander Chase Knox was not in accord with the administration and would resign must have been surprised if he heard what President Taft had to say about that cabinet officer and the department of state at the Grant's birthday dinner of the American club. The president praised Mr. Knox without stint.
 The president also expressed the hope that the negotiations which have been conducted under Mr. Knox and now in progress will insure peace in the Orient, of which "we have not lost hope," and said: "Open door in China, too, is the purpose and intention of this administration to conserve and maintain."

Before he went to the banquet the president had a busy day. Among other things he addressed the students at the Pennsylvania State College for Women, and saw Hans Wagner and nine others of the Pittsburg Pirates beat his brother C. P. Taft's Chicago Cubs 5 to 2.

Mr. Taft sat in a flag draped box on the second tier. Secretary Knox and several representatives of foreign countries at Washington were with him.

Before the game Louis Mann, the actor, carried to Wagner and to Fred Clark baseballs with the president's autograph and best wishes on them.

The banquet was given in the Hotel Schenley. Mr. Taft said in part:
 "I am greatly indebted to the state of Pennsylvania, to the city of Pittsburg and to the American club for giving me that gentlemanly seat at the head of my cabinet table."

"As the head of the great state department having in its charge our foreign relations, Mr. Knox has shown the same capacity for guarding the interests of his client, the United States, and her purpose in dealing with foreign nations as he did in protecting their rights against the unlawful encroachments of domestic combinations of capital."

The president then went on to praise Secretary Knox's work in connection with ascertaining under the tariff bill what foreign countries were discriminating against the trade of the United States in favor of the trade of some other nation and said:

"Under present conditions there is no undue discrimination against the trade of the United States by any country with which the United States has commercial relations. The Canadian settlement was accomplished by an exchange of notes indicating willingness on the part of each government to enter into future negotiations looking to closer commercial relations between the United States and Canada."

The president expressed the hope that reciprocal arrangements between the two countries would ultimately be consummated. He praised Senator Root's administration when head of the state department and his cultivating good relations with all the South American and Central American republics. This he said had been followed closely by Mr. Knox and the department under him and declared that never before in the history of the country have the relations of the United States with South American and Central American republics been more friendly than they are today.

SETTLERS OWE $1,000,000

Ig Government Can Collect Success In Reclamation Is Assured
 Washington, May 3.—The acid test of the practicability of all the government reclamation work is at hand.
 On April 1 there was due and payable into the reclamation fund from the settlers on the various projects approximately $1,000,000 for water rights. If the farmers are able to meet their payments it evidences that the government is able to secure a return on its investment. If the payments are not made the law is a failure in one of its most important provisions, and the operations of the reclamation service would quickly be brought to an end.
 But a careful canvass of the projects on which water rights charges are due indicates that the settlers as a rule are able and willing to meet them.

 chine was wrecked.

News of Death by Wireless.

New York, May 3.—A wireless dispatch dated "On board S. S. Vigilancia, 228 miles south of Scotland lights," received by the Sun says that Mrs. J. A. Phillips, resident of Montreal, Canada, died suddenly at 10 Sunday morning of apoplexy. Mrs.
 Phillips came aboard at Tampico, Mexico, where she had been visiting friends.

HAVENS SWORN IN

A Cordial Reception Accorded Him by the Democrats.

James S. Havens of Rochester was sworn in as a member of the house of representatives, succeeding to the seat filled for so many years by the late James Breck Perkins. The new member was acclaimed by the Democrats, but the Republicans sat silent as the victor in the recent fight in the 32nd New York district was inducted into the office that George W. Aldridge tried in vain to reach.
 Representative Sulzer, the senior Democratic member from New York, did the honors for the recruit from Rochester. As soon as the perfunctory business of the day had been transacted Mr. Sulzer arose in his place and announced that Representative-elect Havens was present and ready to take the oath of office.
 This brought forth applause from the Democrats. As Mr. Havens and Mr.
 Sulzer marched down the aisle towards the bar of the house, where the oath was administered, the Democrats again applauded and after Mr.
 Havens had subscribed to the oath there was more applause.

Nearly every Democrat in the house shook the new member's hand at one time or another in the course of the day, and whenever Foss, the newly elected member from Massachusetts, and Havens appeared together the Democrats smiled and asked the Republicans how they liked the two new Democratic members. The Republicans, however, were keeping their mouths closed and pretended that they did not see the point of the joke.

GREAT AMERICAN SCULPTOR

Death of John Quincy Adams Ward at His Home in New York.

John Q. Ward, the sculptor, who had been ill since February last, died Sunday morning at his residence, 236 Manhattan avenue, New York. Just before his death Mr. Ward was at work on a seated statuette of August Belmont.

For a quarter of a century John Quincy Adams Ward, because of his age, reputation and the extent of his work, had been described as the dean of American sculptors.

He was born at Urbana, O., in 1830. He never studied a day abroad.
 His first work of real note was the Indian Hunter, now in Central park.
 Among some of his other well-known works are "The Pilgrims," "Shakespeare" and the "Seventh Regiment Soldier," all in Central park, and the statue of Washington in front of the sub-treasury.

One of Mr. Ward's last commissions was an equestrian statue of General Phil Sheridan, over which there arose a dispute. It was to be erected in Washington by the Army of the Cumberland but the society rejected the model. He brought suit against the society for $32,000, alleging breach of contract.

DIED FROM EATING GREENS

Farmer Dead and His Wife, Three Children and Hired Man Seriousously Ill.

As a result of eating greens gathered from a field Antonio Mardo is dead and his wife and three children and a hired man are seriously ill, but it is thought that they will recover.

All the sick people, who reside near that city, were hurried to St.
 Mary's hospital in Amsterdam. When a farm hand entered the Mardo home soon after the dinner hour Saturday he found Mardo and one of his daughters unconscious and the rest of the inmates violently ill. He hurried them to the hospital. An autopsy will be held on the body of Mardo.

HUSTON CONVICTED

Found Guilty of Conspiracy to Cheat the Commonwealth.

Joseph M. Huston of Philadelphia, architect of the state Capitol, was found guilty of conspiracy to cheat and defraud the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The jury returned a verdict at 5:20 p. m., having been out 26 hours.
 Huston is recommended to the lenitency of the court on account of his previous irreproachable reputation.
 Counsel for Huston made a motion for a new trial and President George Kunkel gave them 30 days in which to file their reasons.

The jury went out at 3:30 Thursday afternoon. Huston was not in court when the verdict was announced, having gone home to Philadelphia on Thursday night.

Buffalo, Rochester and Eastern.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the public service commissioner, Second district, will resume hearings on the application of the Buffalo, Rochester and Eastern Railroad company for approval of the commission to the construction of its proposed steam railroad across the state from Buffalo to Troy. It is expected that the applicant company will conclude the presentation of its case during the week.

BARRED FROM STATE

Department Finds Irregularities In United Surety Company.

President Knabe and His Son Said to Have Used the Insurance Company For Their Personal Financial Ends—It Appears That the Metropolitan Trust Company Received 16 Per Cent For Discounting a Note For the Knabes Endorsed by the Company.

The insurance department of New York state has forbidden the United Surety company in the state, owing to an impairment of the company's capital and to irregularities in the conduct of its business. The department finds that Ernest J. Knabe of Baltimore and William Knabe of this city, who until recently controlled the company, used the company for their personal ends in financial operations, and the investigation which brought these to light also revealed such practices on the part of some financial institutions that the insurance department has brought them to the attention of the banking department.

In the one specific case affecting a banking institution made public in the insurance department's formal statement, it is set forth that the Metropolitan Trust company got 16 per cent for discounting a note of the Knabes, secured by an indemnity bond given by the Surety company.

The Knabes seem to have been good payers of these bonuses, for their testimony shows that in something over a year they paid between $40,000 and $50,000 to brokers representing them in such transactions, the greater part of the money being turned over to the financial institutions.

While investigating the People's Mutual Life Insurance association and league, the insurance department found that the Knabes had some connection with the Louisville promoter, John Tevis, who tried to get control of that concern to reinsure its business in the Federal Life Insurance company of Canada, and that through Tevis the Knabes had become interested in that Canada company.

What the department there learned suggested an investigation of the United Surety company's affairs and this was undertaken in connection with the Maryland department. Besides the revelations already noted, this examination revealed considerable loans to personal friends of the Knabes on doubtful collateral.

JEFFRIES BREAKING DOWN?

Rumors Reach New York That He Is In Poor Condition.

Is James Jeffries ill and is there an attempt to conceal the fact from the public? Rumors have reached Broadway all the way from California that Jeffries is in poor physical condition; that he finds it impossible to do strenuous work and that he is actually in need of medical attention.

Letters have been received here from sporting men on the coast to the effect that Jeffries is worrying a lot as to his ability to get into proper trim for the fight with Johnson and is somewhat discouraged because he still finds his wind deficient. One of these letter writers in a screech to the Sun man says:

"Do not be surprised if there is an explosion at Jeffries' camp. He is ailing with various troubles and is in no condition to train hard. Berger and Choyinski both want to keep the truth secret because the truth may hurt the fight, but nevertheless it is a fact that Jeffries is ill and may call the fight off at any moment."

"Jeffries is peevish and ill-tempered nearly all the time. He looks heavy and flabby and he has nothing of the old speed. If the fight took place within a week Johnson would cut Jim to ribbons first and then knock him out. There is a conflict of authority at Jeffries' quarters and the big fellow seems visibly annoyed by it. He looks disgusted and as if he is sorry he ever decided to return to the ring.
 If he does not call the fight off it will be for two reasons—either he will think he can get back his old strength, or unwillingness to lose the $10,000 forfeit."

This kind of information will be received by many persons with knowing winks, for they are the ones who have insisted from the start that there'd never be a fight; also that neither Jeffries nor Johnson ever intended to fight and made the match solely for the purpose of squeezing a flood of money out of the easy going public.

$100,000 FOR BARLOW HEIRS

Government Soon to Pay For French Seizure of Frigate Betsey.

The heirs of the late Solomon Barlow are soon to receive from the government $100,000, this being the result of the French seizing the frigate Betsey in the year 1792, and at that time valued at $125.
 The war department has been investigating Barlow's claim, and now five of his grandchildren are to receive from the government the sum of $100,000, that being the amount of the claim after a lapse of 112 years.
 Mrs. Planthaber and Mrs. Colebaugh, both of Morrison, Ill., are two of the heirs.

Dragged Along Roadbed.

Pittsburg, May 3.—With his foot caught in the steel stirrup of a freight car, Robert Laffey, 16 years old, of Twenty-first and Carson streets, was dragged head downward some distance in the Pittsburg and Lake Erie yards and probably fatally injured. His skull was fractured and his leg broken.

Killed by Train.

Fairpoint, O., May 3.—Frank Mills, a well-known citizen of Bannock, was run down by an east-bound freight train on the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling railroad and instantly killed.

A CONTINUING AGREEMENT

Evidence to Connect F. Augustus Heinze With Copper Pool.

New York, May 3.—After a day of almost fruitless delving into the operations of the Heinze family and associates in United Copper in 1907, the government at the trial of F. Augustus Heinze succeeded in bringing out some evidence by which it is hoped to connect the defendant with the alleged pool in that stock which culminated in October of that year with failure of the firm of Otto Heinze & Co. and the panic.

Although Otto Heinze, the defendant's brother, insisted that F. A.
 Heinze had no connection with any pool or with the operations that were undertaken to protect it in the market, the government attorneys got Max Shultz, his partner, to identify an agreement given by F. A. Heinze to the firm of J. F. Bache & Co. in which
 F. A. Heinze
