When they appeared before Squire Siggins both waived a hearing and were bound over to May court in the sum of $500 bail for each. The case is the outcome of the recent charge against Dr. M. C. Kerr for selling liquor illegally, both the accused being detectives who appeared in the case against the druggist.

—The Painesville Spirit of May 2d says that Wayne McDermott, a nineteen-year-old boy, of Marienville, Forest County, was brought to the Adrian Hospital here, suffering from an injury of the head, which was regarded as serious. According to the boy's own story he was engaged in a friendly scuffle with a friend when the latter became angered, grabbed a piece of iron and struck him over the head. Previous to the time the young man was brought here, he suffered from convulsions, and this gave rise to the belief that his skull had been fractured. Later it was reported that he was improving rapidly, and is now up and around. It was found that the injury was only a contusion, not a fracture, as was at first feared.

—About seventy of the men of Tionesta met in the M. E. church last Friday evening for a meeting of the Brotherhood. After the opening exercises there was a debate on the subject, "Resolved, That the men of Tionesta have justifiable reasons for not attending church." The argument for the affirmative was presented by D. W. Morrison, C. F. Feit and F. R. Lanson. The negative side was represented by Rev. B. F. Feit, C. W. Flick and T. F. Ritchey. The board of judges composed of J. C. Geist, S. M. Henry and Melvin Sibley, by a vote of two to one decided that the negative side had presented the best argument. After the judges had rendered their decision, Rev. W. E. Brinkman, the pastor of the English Lutheran church in Warren, was introduced and for over an hour held the close attention of his hearers as he discussed the "Ideal Brotherhood."

NEW FREE METHODIST CHURCH

To be Dedicated With Appropriate Ceremonies Sunday Morning, May 15th, 1910.

The new Free Methodist church in Tionesta will be formally dedicated to the worship of God next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The general district quarterly meeting and holiness convention of the Oil City District, Oil City Conference, will be held during this week and will be in charge of Rev. M. B. Miller, District Elder. Services began Tuesday evening at 7:30 and will be continued each evening of the week at the same hour. A morning and afternoon service will also be held each day at 9:30 and 2:30. The quarterly conference will be held Saturday morning and Saturday afternoon a meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the district will be held. The dedicatory service takes place Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, the sermon to be delivered by Bishop Wm. Pierce, of Jamestown, N. Y. There will also be afternoon and evening meetings. All the ministers of the district are expected to be present.

The early history of Free Methodism in Forest county will not differ materially from the establishment of a new society in any community. The first protracted meeting was held in 1874 at East Hickory in the grove back of the M. E. church, in charge of Rev. R. W. Hawkins, presiding elder. A society was organized and placed in charge of Rev. Mr. Henning. A church was built there about 1878. The good work spread to other parts of the county and in the summer of 1879 the first camp meeting was held in Tionesta. At the close of the camp meeting Bishop Hart and wife conducted a series of meetings in the old Universalist church. A class was organized and in 1880 a lot was purchased on lower Elm street from S. H. Haslet, on which a very commodious and comfortable church building was erected. This was occupied until last year when it was disposed of to James Haslet. The congregation then worshipped in the old M. E. church until the first Sunday in February last, when the structure which is now to be dedicated was completed and made ready for occupancy. The class is now in a flourishing condition and is pressing on with a firm faith in God for a greater prosperity in the future. We give below a list of the ministers who have served the class since its organization:

1879-1880—J. Barnhart.
1881—W. W. Browne.
1882—D. B. Tobey.
1883—James T. Brennan.
1884—John D. Rhodes.
1885—M. L. Schooley.
1886-87—S. Sager.
1888-89—A. D. Gaines.
1890-91—F. F. Shoup.
1892-93—A. T. Sager.
1894-95—F. F. Shoup.
1896-97—F. E. Glass.
1898-99—F. W. McClelland.
1900—C. H. Miller.
1901-02—R. McGarvey.
1903-04-05—R. A. Zahniser.
1906—H. D. Call.
1907-08-09—E. L. Monroe.

The new church edifice stands on a very slightly elevated location on East Bridge street, is centrally located and easy of access. The lot was presented to the congregation by Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Foreman, of Tionesta. The building is 82x45 feet, with a nine foot two-story vestibule at the southwest corner and a pulpit alcove at the rear. There is also a basement for a furnace room. The side walls are 13 feet to the square and the roof has a half pitch. The walls are of wire-cut red brick veneer, laid on a substantial foundation of native sand stone, the window and door trimmings being of Berea sand stone. All the interior wood work including the pews is of Georgia yellow pine, finished natural. The windows are of ground glass. The building is planned throughout, and the walls and fine arched ceiling have been beautifully decorated by artist G. F. Rodda. At the base appears a dark brown wainscot, with a frieze of lighter shade. The walls are of ecor blending into a lighter shade for the ceiling. Both the walls and ceiling are surrounded by a border of a rose design in dark green and white, giving a very pleasing effect. The auditorium will seat comfortably 275 persons. Work on the building was begun in September, 1909, and it was finished early in February, most of the work being done by different members of the congregation. The cost of the structure will be about $2,500, exclusive of the lot, which was valued at $500. We congratulate the congregation on the completion of their handsome new home and trust it will prove a joy and inspiration to them for many years to come.
