Special Sale of Flowers.

1,000 Bunches Assorted at 19 Cents a Bunch.

A traveling man came to us recently—a representative of one of the very best Importing Milliners in the New York city—it was his last stopping place—the last town on his last trip for the season. His mind was full of blissful anticipation of his coming vacation and his one idea was to dispose of his samples. We did not need any more goods in this line, but when they throw down a chance like this at us we are bound to sit up and take notice. His flower samples represented only the very best of imported lines. The prices run from $6 to $24 a dozen, but so good a bargain did we drive that we now offer the lot at 19c a bunch. Just think of it—19 cents a bunch.

WEBSTER'S BIRTHPLACE

Location of Exact Spot Disputed by Franklin, N. H., Man.

Franklin, N. H., May 24.—Frank Proctor of this town has just come out with an interesting statement concerning the birthplace of Daniel Webster. He says that the stone monument marking the site of the birthplace of the great expounder is located in the wrong place.

The late Hon. George N. Smith of Franklin in his will provided that a monument should be erected on the spot of his illustrious friend Webster.

Mr. Proctor says: "It seems incredible that Miss Annie Nessmith, executrix of her father's will, herself a member of the New Hampshire Historical society, should have mislocated the birth spot. Such, however, is undoubtedly the fact.

"The rustic stone monument which she caused to be set up, is on the site of the 'Log cabin' which Daniel's father, Ebenezer Webster, in 1761 planted on the outskirts of civilization. It is well known that Daniel and his brother Ezekiel were not born in this log cabin, but in the west front room of a frame house which was erected several years after the cabin and stood diagonally across the road, to the northeast. The field stones which formed the cellar walls still mark the spot.

"In 1899 before Judge NeSmith's death he told my father that Daniel recollected running across the road with some of his elder brothers or sisters, barefooted, to sleep in the log cabin, the frame house in which he was born being at times overcrowded."

SAFETY OF TRAVEL

Pennsylvania Killed One Passenger In Two Years, Long Island None.

New York, May 24.—According to the figures just compiled by the Pennsylvania railroad of the 299,762,658 passengers carried on its 24,000 miles of track in 1908 and 1909 only one was killed as a result of a train wreck. This passenger was killed in 1909, in which year 158,067,115 passengers were carried, or 11.55 per cent more than in 1908.

The same figures show that in the two years a total of 370 passengers was injured in train wrecks of all kinds. In 1909 there were two less freight collisions than in 1908 and the number of freight derailments was smaller by 69.

One of the subsidiaries, the Cumberland Valley, carried in the two years past 3,395,266 passengers without having one killed or injured in any way, and in the two years one employe only was slightly injured. The Long Island carried 50,709,597 in the two years without having either a passenger or employe killed on its lines.

GIRL TAKEN FROM GRAVE

Young Woman Is Pronounced Dead by Doctors, but Family Hopes to Restore Her.

Osceola, Wis., May 24.—Although the attending physicians repeatedly have pronounced the girl dead, and in spite of the fact that she was buried Thursday for several hours, the family of Elizabeth Scholl are making persistent efforts to bring her back to life.

Her parents insist that life is not extinct and point to the fact that the color remains in her cheeks and that rigor mortis has not set in.

Miss Scholl died a week ago last, after an illness of half an hour, her death being attributed to a brain affection. Certain signs about the body led the members of her family to believe that what was pronounced by the attending physician to be death was in reality a trance. They, however, consented to her burial.

After the funeral the belief that possibly she was still alive became so strong that the grave was opened and the body was removed to Miss Scholl's father's house.

More Than One.

"I remember your wife as such a dainty and pretty thing, Humly, and yet they tell me she has turned out a fine cook."

"Turned out a fine cook? She has turned out half a dozen of them within the last three months."

Let us be of good cheer, remembering that the misfortunes hardest to bear are these that never come.—Lowell.

His Rent Flag. On Jan. 18 every year, the anniversary of the battle of Waterloo, the Duke of Wellington is bound to present to the sovereign a small flag, which is the annual rent in "petit sergenty" by which the estate of Stratfieldsaye is held of the crown. The flag must be a miniature tricolor or eagle of the Napoleonic army, fringed with gold, with a glided eagle on the head of the staff and the number of the year embroidered at the top corner of the flag near the eagle.

An Old Idea.

"In those old times when they cut off people's heads the train of events proceeded on one modern idea." "What was that?" "The block system."—Baltimore American.

The Trust Company as Guardian

When acting as guardian, the Franklin Trust Company takes entire charge of the estate, managing it in conformity to the law, or if appointed by will you may be sure that the provisions thereof will be carried out to the letter and prompt and careful attention given to all details at all times.

The individual who acts as guardian sometimes dies before the children become of age, thus involving costly legal proceedings and loss of property, or he may mismanage the estate or take advantage of the minors in his charge.

You may be familiar with experiences of this kind, where women and children have lost heavily because of the failure of supposedly honest guardians to prove trustworthy.

Owing to the security which this company offers and its perpetual life, there is no possibility of such occurrences when it acts as guardian.

SUMMER VACATIONS.

The time is coming for summer outings. Have you thought about yours yet?

No country on the face of the globe contains so many delightful summer resorts as the United States, with its near neighbor, Canada.

The Pennsylvania Railroad will issue its popular Summer Excursion Book on June 1, and you will find it a wonderful help in plotting out your summer trip.

It contains descriptions of about eight hundred of the leading resorts of North America, lists of hotels and boarding houses at these various places, a map, routes and rates from the principal stations on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and other valuable information.

If you have grown tired of the resort you have visited for years, you may make a selection from this book for a stay of a day, a week, a month, or the whole summer.

You may plot out an extended tour covering mountain and seashore, or a fishing trip, or a hunting jaunt, by rail or boat or a combination of both.

Any Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad will be glad to furnish a copy of this valuable book for Ten Cents, or it will be mailed you postpaid, on receipt of Twenty-five Cents, by Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia, Pa.
