LEST WE FORGET

To the Republican Voters of the Twenty-Eighth Congressional District of Pennsylvania:

When you cast your Ballots at the Primaries on Saturday, June 4th, bear in mind that a VOTE for Joseph C. Sibley is a VOTE for the System, and that a VOTE for NELSON P. WHEELER is a VOTE for the PEOPLE.

THIS IS THE PEOPLE'S YEAR

Vote for your OWN interests; not for CORPORATE interests.

Vote for the man who, in Congress and out, has supported you and your District; not for his opponent, who defied your wishes in always supporting special privileges.

Here are the facts compiled from the Congressional Record. Contrast the public record of Joseph C. Sibley with that of Nelson P. Wheeler:

What Joseph C. Sibley Did in Congress.

One of 17 members of the House to vote against the Esch-Townsend Railroad Rate Bill in the 58th Congress.

One of 7 members of the House in the 59th Congress to vote against the Hepburn Railroad Rate Bill, a bill strongly endorsed by Theodore Roosevelt when he was PRESIDENT.

One of 4 members of the House to vote against the Conference Report on the Hepburn Railroad Rate Bill.

Sibley said of the Hepburn Rate Bill that "It is a bill to establish the business of transportation by law suit."—Congressional Record, page 1899, 1st Session, 59th Congress.

Of the Roosevelt Railroad Rate Bill Sibley said: "Not all men supporting this bill are Socialists and Anarchists, but every Socialist and Anarchist in this nation does endorse this bill."—Congressional Record, page 1899, 1st Session, 59th Congress.

He favored increased railway mail pay for the railroads of the South.—Congressional Record, page 4802, 2d Session, 59th Congress.

In the 58th Congress he secured the passage of only two special pension bills for the Relief of Old Soldiers.

He introduced 40 Special Pension Bills in the 1st session of the 59th Congress for the relief of Old Soldiers, 34 of which he permitted to die in Committee.

In the 2d Session of the 59th Congress he introduced one Special Pension Bill for an Old Soldier, and that died in Committee.

What Nelson P. Wheeler Has Done in Congress.

One of 200 members of the House to vote for the Townsend-Mann Railroad Rate Bill amending the Hepburn Rate Act, along the lines favored by Roosevelt and Taft.

One of 47 members to vote for a duty on CRUDE PETROLEUM AND ITS PRODUCTS.

One of 200 members to vote for a REDUCTION OF THE DUTY ON LUMBER from $2 per thousand to $1.25.

One of the 274 members to vote to put HIDES on the FREE LIST.

Voted in favor of an investigation into the cost of Wood Pulp and Print Paper.

Voted in favor of increasing the pensions of Soldiers' Widows from $8 to $12 per month.

Voted in favor of retaining "In God We Trust" on U. S. Coins.

Voted in favor of the use of American manufactured articles in the construction of our Fortifications.

Voted in favor of an increased appropriation for soil investigations—This in the interest of the American Farmer.

Voted against the construction of four battleships in the 60th Congress.

Introduced 50 Special Pension Bills in the 60th Congress for the relief of Old Soldiers, 14 of which became laws.

Introduced 52 Special Pension Bills for the relief of Old Soldiers, Soldiers' Widows and Minor Children in the 61st Congress, of which 18 have become laws, and the session is not over.

Spoke in favor of a countervailing duty on oil.—Page 280, 1st Session, 61st Congress, March 26, 1909.

Remember that Nelson P. Wheeler has stood and stands for the working man.

Remember that Nelson P. Wheeler has stood and stands for the Old Soldier and those dependent upon him.

Remember that Nelson P. Wheeler has stood and stands for the interests of the 28th Congressional District.

Remember Nelson P. Wheeler by voting for him on Saturday, June 4th.
