Death of H. M. Zahniser.
 Henry Martin Zahniser, an old and most respected citizen of this community for many years, died at his home in Tionesta this Wednesday morning at two o'clock, after a long illness. He was born at North Mills, Pa., April 23, 1839. His wife, seven sons and two daughters survive him. The funeral services will be held in the M. E. church, Friday, at 2 p. m. A more extended notice of the deceased will be given next week.

—A thousand barrel gusher was brought in Tuesday morning of last week on the David Scott farm near Bakertown, Butler county. The well is holding up and is the best strike in the Butler oil field in five years. The well is the fifth on the Scott farm. The four other wells started off at over 100 barrels per day.

—Attention is called to the new advertisement of the Forest County National Bank in this issue, which is a new plan of advertising in this section. But this solid and progressive financial institution recognizes the value of live advertising and is now reaching out for more business. A new advertisement will appear each week.

—G. H. Lowe and R. A. Welch have secured a lease of the County farm from the County Commissioners and expect to begin operations on the same within two months for either oil or gas. The Commissioners are hoping that gas may be struck in paying quantities, as it is wanted and needed at the county home for heat and lights.

—Last Thursday the parsonage of the Catholic church was entered by the breaking of a window glass and the throwing of a wash-satch. The house was thoroughly ransacked and some of Father Wiershinski's clothing carried off. The burglars went off leaving a door open. As is known Father Wiershinski is in Europe, so the parsonage is locked up.—Tidout News.

—Alton V. Hoover, who murdered his young wife at Atlantic, Crawford county, in November, 1908, was convicted of murder in the first degree in court at Erie, last Saturday. This is the second time such a verdict has been rendered. The first time was in the Crawford county courts, but the supreme court reversed the decision and a change of venue to Erie county was granted.

—The 20 horse power boiler at the Simon Korb saw mill near Venus, Venango county, blew out its crown sheet shortly after 7 o'clock Tuesday morning of last week. There were a half dozen employees in the vicinity but none was seriously injured. Three of the men were bruised by flying boards. The mill was not badly damaged, although the boiler went into the air a height estimated at fully 25 feet.

—After considerable discussion in the newspapers and otherwise, County Superintendent L. M. Jones, of Jefferson county, has decided to hold the annual teachers' institute in Reynoldsville this year, Sept. 19, 23. In a published statement the superintendent says the time-honored custom of holding the institute in Brookville is changed for the reason that a suitable hall could not be secured in that town.

—The deep well being drilled at Barnes by L. Kraer is down over 4500 feet. At that depth a nice sand was found, but there was little oil in it.—W. W. Kribbs, a former merchant of Marienville and Kellettville, has purchased a home in Los Angeles, Cal., and is now located with his family in that place.—E. B. Catlin has purchased a new Humboldt ranabout, and Sunday with his wife and son gave it a trial trip to Kellettville. The machine worked all right, but they got caught in the storm on the return trip.—Sheffield Observer.

—The effort of County Superintendent of Schools, Burdett S. Bayle, to raise $1,000 to offer as a reward for any information relating to the missing Stefan boy at Ludlow, is not meeting with the response that it should. This is a most worthy object and one that every one should feel a deep interest in. We believe that if our school children were to make an effort in this direction that they would be able to raise a goodly sum for this purpose.—Kane Republican.

—Following is a description of the boy as given by his parents: Between six and seven years of age. Average size for his age. Light hair, blue eyes with a slight squint. Has a scar about an inch long on the back of one leg above the knee. When last seen he wore a gray cap, waist of blue with a small white flower in it, black and white checked duck trousers and coat of mixed dark gray color.

—The plowing in of potatoes is becoming a general feature of farming in Crawford county. The tubers are planted in the furrow close to the side where the soil is turned. Every third furrow is planted and the next furrow covers the seed. The ground may be harrowed a few days after plowing. Cultivation follows the same as for surface planted potatoes, but no shovel plow is used, as the soil keeps the potatoes covered and no additional dirt is necessary. This plan, which has been adopted by many farmers, yields good results.

—A black bear held up the passenger train on the Pankusatuney-Bellwood Division of the Pennsylvania railroad Monday afternoon. The train had just left Lloydsville when the engineer was surprised to see a half grown black bear sitting on its haunches in the middle of the track. A succession of screams from the whistle failed to move him and the engineer was compelled to slow down. When the train had approached to within a few yards of the bear, the black fellow took to his heels, keeping between the rails for a distance of about three miles before he hid himself into the thicket.—Punxy Spirit.

Luncheon was served in the pleasant dining room of the church, after which the business session was held. —PRESS SUPPL.

—G. H. Lowe & Co. have a fine producer in a well completed last Wednesday morning on the C. O. Baird tract, on Dawson run, Harmony township. The pay streak was struck in the third sand at a little over 800 feet and after only a part of the pay was tapped the hole filled up 500 feet with oil. Drilling was suspended for fear of encountering a vein of salt water under the sand. It will not be shot at present. It has been pumped only at intervals, but from the showing made at these times the well is certain to be better than a 25-barrel producer. This strike has awakened the interest of the oil men hereabouts and there is a promise of renewed activity in all fields.

—Several railroad officials of the Baltimore & Ohio, and the B. & P. railroad were here yesterday and were met by our representative men of the town, and railroad matters discussed, the chief proposition being that of standardizing the Baltimore & Ohio narrow gauge between Kane and Foxburg. No definite agreement was reached with either company, but it looks as though the widening of the Baltimore & Ohio road would be a sure go. As to the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg extending its lines to Kane, as yet that is only a rumor.—Kane Republican, May 24. In this connection Brother Pickens of the Marienville Express, let out a few extra whoops last week and says they have been assured that the road will be standardized this summer. We hope the information is correct.

—Wm. Richards, of Mayburg, and T. D. Collins, of Nebraska, are making preparations to drill a deep test well for gas on the Cook lease, about a half mile north of Mayburg, in Kingsley township. The well will be No. 134 on the lease and will be located on warrant 5235. The contractor is Edward Christy and he expects to begin drilling in about three weeks. The well will be drilled to a depth of 6,000 feet unless gas in paying quantity is found before that depth. In order to do this they are providing themselves with a heavy drilling rig, every portion being made in the most substantial and lasting manner. The derrick is 102 feet in height and an extra heavy cable will be used for the work. A similar test for gas was started in that neighborhood sixteen years ago, when a well was drilled to a depth of 4,000 feet and abandoned, because the rig would not stand the strain. The length of time required cannot be estimated, as it depends altogether upon the luck attending the drilling. This venture will be watched with interest by oil and gas men in all fields.

Tionesta Will Celebrate the Fourth.
 At a well attended meeting of the citizens of Tionesta in the Council Room last Friday evening, to consider the matter of celebrating the Glorious Fourth this year, J. B. Muse was elected chairman and L. L. Zuber was elected secretary. After discussing the question it was on motion decided as the sense of the meeting that a celebration should be held and the following committees were appointed: Committee of Arrangements, R. M. Herman, Geo. W. Holeman, George Henshaw, J. W. Landers, Frank Joyce and Frank Amsler; Finance Committee, Chas. Carlson, Robert A. Fulton, Chas. Clark and David Blum. The committee of arrangements has full power to appoint all sub-committees. The extent of the celebration will of course be governed by the amount of funds which the finance committee may be able to secure, so you are expected to be ready to "loosen" when the committee calls on you. Help the boys along in their efforts to live up.

Graduates Well Spoken Of.
 Mr. John Thein of Lander, recently graduated from the Hoff Business College has been placed through the assistance of the Underwood Typewriter Company in a stenographic position at Crystal Beach, Ont. L. J. Holmes, manager of the Hoff Business College received a letter from the Remington Typewriter Company of Buffalo a short time since stating that the Hoff Business College graduates that came to them were better prepared than the average business college graduate that applied to their employment department. —Warren Mirror, May 24.

Memorial Day Observance.
 Memorial Day, Monday, May 30th, was fittingly observed, practically the entire community uniting with the veterans of Capt. Geo. Stow Post, No. 274, G. A. R., in honoring the memory of their patriotic dead.
 The memorial sermon delivered by Rev. W. O. Calhoun in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning was a most excellent discourse and the services were largely attended. The reverend gentleman chose as his text 2 Kings 6:17: "And Elisha prayed, and said, Lord, I pray thee open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha." In eloquent words he pleaded for the opening of the eyes of the people of this generation to the debt of gratitude they owe to these saviours of the nation, and to the problems yet to be met.
 On Monday, after an elegant and satisfying banquet served at noon by the ladies at the Relief Corps hall, the Post formed in line and escorted by the Sunday school children, Woman's Relief Corps and citizens, marched to the river bridge, where flowers were strewn on the waters. The march was then resumed to Riverside cemetery, where the full ritual service of the order was carried out and the graves of the departed heroes were decorated.
 Immediately after these exercises the set speech of the day was delivered at the Court House, the speaker being Curtis M. Shawkey, of Warren, and a former citizen of Tionesta. Mr. Shawkey was in a reminiscent mood and revived tender memories in the hearts of all his hearers as he called by name and spoke reverently of a long list of patriots who have gone before. He spoke eloquently of the part played by the soldiers in the salvation of our country, and we cannot do better than to quote here one sentence from his speech: "A search in the pages of human history from its earliest dawn to present's twilight will not discover anything so sublime, so true and so wonderful as the story of the American volunteer soldier except the old old story in the book of our God."

Dress Well at Moderate Cost
 Good taste in dress does not carry with it the outlay of a lot of money for clothes. You have seen men who always look spick and span on the street, at home and on social occasions, and the cost of their clothes has little to do with the trick. A $60 Made to Order Suit on you may not look so good as a $20 ready-to-wear, hand-tailored Lammers Suit on your neighbor. That's because your neighbor knows what to wear and how to wear it.
 Prices for our good kind of clothes are not extravagant, quality considered, and that is the test of wear.
 $10, $12, $15, $18, $20 and $25.

Straw Hats.
 See our window display. Shapes to suit young and old. You may hunt the town over, but you won't find greater choice from which to select a becoming straw. Our aim has been and is to show more styles than any other shop. It's up to you to find out if we can "make good." Of this we're sure, that no man need worry about getting just the right shape, style and right price here.
