A souvenir post card received from John Lawrence, who is now in the west, shows that it is hard to keep a good man down, even in base ball. A clipping attached to the card says that on May 29th the Chelalis, Wash., team defeated the Montezano team in the State League by a score of 10 to 0 in ten innings. John was the catcher for the Chelalis team.

This is the year that the 17 year locust is due again, and in a few weeks he will make his appearance in the farms of the Middle West. At least the authorities on locust lore and superstition are sure he will, and they have never been mistaken in the past. No one seems to know exactly where the 17 year locust comes from, but it is a matter of record that he does show up regularly just the same.

Calvin, recently returned from California, who was formerly located at Mill-creek, is transferred to this new operation and is assisting A. Wayne Cook in getting the same going. There are about 10,000 acres of timber to cut and saw and it is said it will take eight years or more to complete the job. It is expected that everything will be running by the middle of July.—Clarion Democrat.

Frank Barnes, the notorious crook, who was released from the Venango county jail May 25th, after serving nearly two years for the robbery of Miss Eliza Copeland at Pithole, June 24, 1908, just can't keep out of prison. He professed to have reformed and went to Olean, N. Y., but was arrested after a few days charged with extorting money from various women by threats. He confessed and last Friday was sentenced to six months in the Erie county penitentiary at Buffalo. When arrested Barnes was with a married woman from Franklin, who had run off with $200 of her husband's money. The money was found on Barnes. They had bought trunks and were preparing to leave for some point in Pennsylvania. This makes Barnes' eighth penitentiary sentence, besides numerous jail sentences. While in Olean he traveled under the names of Reth, Brown, Cummings and Ahern.

Mrs. George First, of Meadville, a sister of Edward Graham, of Tionesta, died at her home Thursday, June 2, 1910. Mrs. First was aged 68 years. Her fatal illness was of short duration and caused by a scare which she experienced while she was on the street Wednesday. A street car collided with a wagon near where she was standing and she was so frightened by the occurrence that she fell to the ground, unconscious. She had suffered a stroke of apoplexy and never regained consciousness, dying the next morning at 6:30. She is survived by her husband and these children: Edwin, of Villa Grove, Ill.; Laverne First and Mrs. Louise Giddings, of Meadville; Mrs. Fannie Dwyer, of Cambridge Springs; Mrs. Jennie Detekman, of Pittsburg. Besides her brother she leaves one sister, Mrs. Thomas McKinney, of Meadville. The funeral was held at the home Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, with interment in Greendale cemetery. A. F. Ledebur & Co. have found a good well on the old Ledebur farm, on German Hill, Green township, which they finished last Wednesday. The company was after the third sand but found a fine pay streak of oil in the second sand at a depth of 724 feet and stopped the drill. There is 40 feet of the sand, The well was treated to a sixty-quart shot on Monday and old experienced oil men say the well is showing up for an eight to ten barrel well per day. This strike is considerably in advance of any other development, especially in the second sand. The company will drill the next well on the Transit lands, adjoining the Ledebur farm. Here's to your good luck.

An interesting case was recently decided when the Supreme Court affirmed the decision of the Superior Court in the appeal of Rockwell & Co., which is the case on the taxing of oil rights, coming up from Warren county, and means that the county wins its contention that these oil rights are taxable. Some years ago F. H. Rockwell sold a tract of unsealed land in Cherry Grove township and reserved the oil, gas and mineral rights. The assessors not only assessed the land but placed a valuation on the rights reserved and a tax was levied. Rockwell appealed and the case has been tried in two courts, once before Judge Lindsey, who decided in favor of Rockwell. The county took an appeal and the Superior Court reversed Judge Lindsey's decision, deciding in favor of the county. County Solicitor John Siggins, Jr., of Warren, argued the case before the Supreme Court and can feel proud in winning.

Miss Mary Williams, a niece of Mrs. G. W. Bovard, of this place, lost her life by drowning in India, June 3d. Miss Williams was a missionary of the Methodist Episcopal church and was located at Camp Baroda, quite a distance north of Bombay. It is presumed she was enjoying a vacation, as the accident occurred in the Gulf of Cambay, near Bombay. She was bathing when she got into difficulties. Howard Bishop, of Boston, a Baptist missionary, also lost his life in attempting to save her. He was a strong swimmer and made a heroic effort to get her to shore, but became exhausted and both sank. The bodies were recovered. Miss Williams was 35 years of age and was the daughter of A. D. Williams, of Grove City, Pa. She was a graduate of Grove City College and was a young woman of exceptional intellectual attainments and sweet disposition. She had been in the missionary work for seven years prior to 1908, when she was home on a year's vacation. She returned to India in the fall of that year. Miss Williams was well known here, where she was a frequent visitor. During the summer of 1908 she was here and spoke twice on her work. Her untimely death is greatly deplored by many friends. Arrangements will be made later to bring the body home for burial.

Memorial Services at East Hickory.
On Sunday, May 29th, our worthy townsman, C. E. Geisler, made two trips with his automobile and carried the old boys to Endeavor, where we were greeted by a large and enthusiastic gathering at 11 a. m. Rev. J. F. Scherer was at his best and delivered a grand sermon brim full of noble and inspiring truths, eliciting the praise of the vast assembly.

Monday, May 30th, came with a down pouring rain, but by 10 a. m. the weather became cool and the clouds gave way and we were relieved. The Endeavor Band was on hand at the appointed moment, the assembly grew into hundreds and was soon in line, headed by the band. We marched to the beautiful cemetery, where rest many of our beloved comrades and friends. Our ritual services were rendered perfectly without a mis of one jot or tittle. Who knows that our kind Heavenly Father did not bring forth these beautiful flowers to beautify the resting place of our loved ones. His purpose is fast being revealed. On returning to the hall a basket picnic was enjoyed by all. At one o'clock the assembly was in perfect quietness. The large hall was more than full and standing room was at a premium. The band and choir gave forth patriotic notes that thrilled the assembly beyond all expectation of the most somber hearers. The first speaker introduced was Rev. L. R. Phipps, of West Hickory, and a son of a veteran. His address was an able one, in the midst of which he sang an appropriate song, the band joining in the chorus. Dr. Smith, of Whig Hill, was next in line and responded in his enthusiastic style.

Next came Rev. J. F. Scherer, of Endeavor. No introduction in his case is needed, as he is always loaded on every patriotic occasion. Then came the young Americans with their recitations, carrying the old boys back in thought to those days where loyalty meant sacrifice, the snapping of home ties for battlefield experiences. In all this program the band and choir performed their part most nobly. All in all East Hickory never enjoyed such a day. Never had we so large and good natured patriotic assembly. Eli Berlin Post is proud of its vocal and instrumental music, and of all the different orders that so cheerfully assisted in making the day a success, a day never to be forgotten during this life. Not a single mistake occurred from beginning to finish. The Sons of Veterans and Woodmen acted as guard of honor. May long and happy lives attend one and all, is the prayer of Eli Berlin Post. J. A.
