The agitation for good roads keeps right on growing stronger and there is no doubt but that in time something more tangible than the present unsatisfactory "patch work system," as Commissioner Hunter has designated it, will be brought about.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT'S enemies keep right on roasting him at every cross and turn, but he is cutting a bigger swath in the eyes of the world than the whole pack of them put together. It is merely a case of a lot of whistles snapping and snarling at a big mastiff.

THE PENNSYLVANIA legislature which meets next year will be called upon to take action in regard to a proposition to abolish the toll roads of the state. There are more than 700 miles of these roads, and motorists complain bitterly of them on account of the exorbitant rates which are charged for motor vehicles.

ACCORDING to reports filed with the State Railroad Commission at Harrisburg show that during April, 101 persons were killed on the steam railroads and trolley lines of the state. The railroads killed 77, and injured 688 while 34 met death on trolley lines and 533 were hurt. Of the total accidents most occurred on trolley lines. Employes were the largest number injured and the trespassers the majority of those killed.

THE aggregate number of 32,936,446 communicants or members of all religious denominations in continental United States was reported for 1909, according to the U. S. Census of Religious Bodies for the same year, as detailed in part I of the U. S. Census Bureau's special report on the subject, now in press. Of this grand total the various Protestant bodies reported 20,287,742, and Roman Catholic Church 12,679,142.

OUR esteemed and greatly admired fellow citizen, Col. Theodore Roosevelt, is now on the high seas, homeward bound from his trip abroad. His ship is due to arrive next Saturday at New York, and the ovation that will attend his homecoming will be something that has never been witnessed before in this great land. The hearts of all honest people are still with Teddy, and if he will allow it to be done, they will again land him in the Presidential chair where he will have the opportunity to finish the good work he had well under way when he stepped down.

AT a medical convention in St. Louis, Mo., Dr. Cotton criticised the American mother. Dr. Kerley of New York then declared eloquently: "I am weary of listening to this tirade against American motherhood. No woman in the world is more intelligently and more keenly interested in her children than the educated young American mother, and no one is more willing to make sacrifices where sacrifices are necessary. But the fact that she is a mother does not necessitate her exclusion from all her normal female habits of life." He believed it far better for a rich family to have one child carefully reared than for a poor family to have a dozen grow up in ignorance.

WHILE The News can not countenance some of the methods used by Mr. Wheeler's managers in the recent campaign, it wishes to express to him its good will and to congratulate him upon the splendid run he made in the district. While he failed of election, he had the satisfaction of having carried four of the five counties. Personally, we have the highest regard for the Forest county man, and we are sorry that some of the men who worked for him and some of the newspapers which sought his nomination permitted their zeal to run away with their judgment. Mr. Wheeler comes out of a strenuous campaign defeated, yet still a man. Franklin feels kindly toward him and he will always be a welcome visitor here.—Franklin News.

Official Vote of Forest County.

Following is the official vote cast in Forest county for the candidates for Congress and Assembly on the Republican ticket, at the primary election held Saturday, June 4, 1910:

A Statement From Mr. Wheeler.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—Congressman Wheeler, who is extremely philosophical under defeat, and really is happy over the result, because it takes him out of the turmoil of politics, issued the following statement today:

"The Republican voters of the 28th Congressional District have decided who shall lead the fight for them in the campaign now on." As to the wisdom of that decision I have not a word to say for it was upon their verdict my candidacy was predicated.

"It is a sense of deep and lasting satisfaction to me that I carried four of the five counties composing that district, but the overwhelming majority given my opponent in Venango county offset the will of the people in the rest of the district.

"While it would be hypocritical for me to say I do not care as to the result, at the same time it brings a sense of deep relief and I bow to the will of the electors of the district in which I have lived for forty years.

"So far as I am concerned, I can truthfully say that the campaign has been conducted upon clean and honorable lines, free from all personalities.

"I wish to thank my many friends for their loyal and earnest support in this campaign. No man ever had truer friends than I in the canvass just closed. Their friendship is very dear to me, and sometimes defeat knits people together more than victory."

Mr. Sibley Is Grateful.

Before leaving for Washington, D. C., last week, Mr. Sibley gave out the following statement for publication:

"To My Friends:
"It will never be in my power to express my appreciation of the good men and noble women who through good and evil report made the contest for one who, sick and blind, was unable to help himself. In some campaigns I had thought my personal efforts were largely instrumental in securing success, but this has been alone your battle and is alone your victory. Many friends whom I love and some whom I believe honor and sincerely like me opposed my candidacy, for, before I entered the contest, they had become honorably committed to my opponent. They made a brave and loyal battle, and knowing their earnestness and loyalty, I could not but regret that their efforts were for another rather than myself. If defeated, I should have sincerely congratulated Mr. Wheeler on having through such friends won a victory, and the grand vote given me by my neighbors and friends in Venango would have left no trace of bitterness in my heart towards those who had honorably opposed me.

"As your candidate and as your Congressman it will be a duty, as it will also be a pleasure, to try and justify your good opinion of me. How can I thank you so truly as by trying to promote the welfare and happiness of those who have shown me honor by choosing me to be their representative in the Nation's councils? I pledge you one and all my earnest, unselfish and loyal service.
JOSEPH C. SIBLEY."
