HAD BAD TEMPERS, Porter Charlton Tells How He Killed His Wife.

Prisoner Was Hopeful of Getting Into This Country Undetected-Was Absolutely Perniloss When Searched, Even His Watch Being Gone. Was Only Twenty-One Years of Age-Arraigned and Locked Up as a Fugitive From Justice.

Porter Charlton of New York is locked up in a cell in the Hoboken police headquarters, the selfconfessed murderer of his wife, Mary Scott Castle Charlton, whose body was found in a trunk fished up from the bottom of Lake Como, Italy, or the shores of which the two had been living in a rented villa.

Charlton was arrested on the North German Lloyd pier in Hoboken just after he had landed from the Prinzess Irene on which he had taken passage at Genoa, on June 9, the day the trunk was brought up from the bottom of the lake by fishermen. Shaking with nervousness while he waited for his baggage to be examined on the pier, he was in a bad condition to disarm suspicion. He made a futile fight to conceal his identity from Captain Henry Harrison Scott, the brother of the murdered woman who had come from his station at Fort Fisher to search the liners reaching there in the next 10 days in the hope of running down the slayer of his sister.

Captain Scott was armed with a description of Charlton and with a cample of his handwriting and in the face of these the boy-he is only 21 years old - finally broke down and confessed to the murder in the office of Chief of Police Hayes, where he , been taken from the pier.

This is the confession which Charlton made to the chief, sitting in his office, and which, when put in typewritten form, he signed: "My name is Porter Charlton, 1

THREE KILLED IN FIRE

Intoxicated Man Starts Blaze With Fatal Results.

The Seneca Falls hotel, an old landmark at Seneca Falls, N. Y., was destroyed by fire three of the twenty-five guests losing their lives. The fact that the fire was dis covered before it had maintained headway and the giving of an alarm by a fusilade of revolver shots that promptly awakened the guests alone prevented great loss of life. The dead are: Mr. and Mrs. Edward White of Rochester and an unidentified man from Cayuga, N. Y. The latter is supposed to have caused the fire. He entered the hotel late at night intoxicated and unable to register. He was assigned to a room in the basement and here at 3:40 the fire was discovered. Rescuers could not reach him and the fire raced through the tuilding so rapidly that all of the occupants had to take to fire escapes. White was overcome by smoke before he could leave the room and the woman evidently tried to assist him.
