REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEETING.

In pursuance of the rules governing the Republican party of Forest County, I hereby give notice that a meeting of the newly elected county committee of said party will be held at the court house, Tionesta, Pa., on Thursday, June 30th, 1910, at 2:00 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of organization for the fall campaign, and the transaction of such other business, as may properly come before the committee. It is desired that every member of the committee be present at said meeting.

C. A. HANDALL, Chairman. Tionesta, Pa., June 21, 1910.

ARIZONA and New Mexico are to come into the Union of States within the next two years. This will mean two more stars in the shield and two more battle ships on the seas.

FOLLOWING a stormy session of the Prohibition convention at Harrisburg last Friday, the following ticket was placed in the field: Governor, Madison F. Larkin, of Saratoga; lieutenant governor, Charles E. McConkey of Grove City; state treasurer, Irving W. Hucks, of Philadelphia; secretary of internal affairs, Charles W. Huntington, of Williamsport.

JUDGE REED, of Jefferson county, who was holding court in that county, did a rather unusual act recently. The district attorney was sick and by the consent of all parties, Judge Reed acted as the prosecuting attorney and also as the judge. After presenting the case the judge delivered his address to the jury and then made his charge. After all of this work the jury disagreed.

JOHN KINLEY TENER, the Republican nominee for Governor, is a representative in Congress from the twenty-fourth district, and is in the banking business in Charleston. He was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, in 1863, and came to America in 1872. He received his education in the public and high schools of Pittsburgh, and played professional baseball from 1885 to 1890. He has been engaged in the banking business since 1891, in which he has been successful. He served as Grand Exalted Ruler of the Order of Elks and was elected to the present Congress as the successor of Ernest F. Acheson, whom he defeated for nomination. Tener is an Apollo in personal appearance, and his friends claim that he is an able, forceful and amiable man.

THANKS to the action of the ruling bodies in several of our cities and towns this year's list of killed and wounded due to the usual idiotic way of celebrating the glorious 4th will be considerably decreased. Sense at last has triumphed over politics in forbidding the promiscuous sale of fireworks, and although the movement is not yet as widespread as it should be, the impetus it has gained this year by the accession of New York and other places will carry it far over the country before another twelve months have passed away. In several towns a citizens' committee has been formed and programmes arranged that will give the people, young and old, all the pleasure they want and teach besides something of what the day means; and at its close, though there may be many tired and weary bodies, there will be none bearing the marks of a mutilation that means either permanent disfigurement or death. Such a celebration, taking place at Hartford, Conn., was described in The Ladies' World of two years ago, and this publicity, and persistent agitation by newspapers and magazines against putting the deadly firecracker in the hands of children, has undoubtedly had much to do with bringing about a better condition of things. Now let every father and mother, in places which have not yet seen the light, do their plain duty, which means not only to provide firecrackers for the children or allow them to be bought, but to provide some other way of entertaining the active little bodies and brains.—"The Editor and the Reader," in The Ladies' World for July.

Congress adjourned near the hour of midnight last Saturday with a record for enacting laws intended for the betterment of the condition of the common people never before equalled, and which will probably have no parallel in many years to come. In the matter of reform movements, most of which were promised in the Republican national platform, and for which President Taft stood sponsor, there were many instances of success. Chief in the list of legislation for which the Administration contended were the following:

Striking revision of the railroad laws, including the creation of a commerce court. Admitting Arizona and New Mexico as separate states. Authorizing the establishment of postal savings banks. Giving the President unlimited authority to withdraw public lands for conservation purposes. Providing for publicity of campaign contributions. Authorizing the issue of $20,000,000 in certificates of indebtedness to complete reclamation projects.

Creating a bureau of mines.

Extending the activities of the tariff board and appropriating $200,000 for its use.

Looking to the suppression of traffic in "white slaves."

Authorizing the entry of the surface of coal lands.

Creating a commission to consider economies in the administration of the Federal government.

Providing a new tariff system for the Philippines.

Legislation which ultimately is expected to give practical prohibition to the Hawaiian Islands.

Minutes of June Argument Court.

The regular session of June argument court was held last Thursday, Judge Joseph W. Bonton, of McKean county, presiding for Judge Rice, who had formerly been an attorney for some of the parties making the appeal from the tax assessment. Associate Judges P. C. Hill and Samuel A. also occupied their usual places on the bench.

The petition of David H. Henderson and G. W. VanHorn, executors of the last will and testament of John J. Henderson, late of Barnet township, deceased, for leave to sell real estate for the payment of debts, was granted.

J. C. Geist was appointed guardian for R. R. Henderson, a minor interested in the estate of John J. Henderson, deceased.

A pluries subpoena was awarded in the divorce case of Frank Zuendel, libellant, vs. Lizzie M. Zuendel, respondent.

After hearing proofs and allegations of the Commonwealth in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Harry York, Mrs. Jennie Putnam, prosecutor, the defendant was discharged for the reason that no crime was charged against him when he was committed to jail. The case is one involving the non-payment of a board bill of $61.99. The defendant was out on bail and was again arrested on the same charge and lodged in jail.

After taking testimony a decree of divorce was granted in the case of Cordie E. Bender, libellant, vs. Robert P. Bender, respondent.

A petition of thirty-five citizens of Barnet township for the appointment of viewers to lay out a public road in said township, to begin at a point on the Maple Creek hill on the W. R. Coon road, at a creek in the road on the south side of Maple Creek and to end at a point on said Coon road where said road crosses the Huttons and Hall line at a distance of about one-half mile from the Clarington and Redeflyte road, and vacate such part of the road known as the W. R. Coon road between said points, as the same would be useless, was granted. D. W. Clark was appointed viewer, and T. J. Reynor and L. H. Mensch, viewers.

The cases of the appeals of T. D. Collins, The Central Pennsylvania Lumber Co., L. S. Clough and estate of James Crabb, from the assessment of taxes for the triennial assessment for the year 1910, were continued on motion of the County to Tuesday, July 26th, at 9 o'clock a. m. From present indications these cases will be warmly contested, as a large number of witnesses were present. The attorneys appearing in the cases are D. I. Ball, of Warren, for T. D. Collins, C. H. McCaulley, Jr., of Williamsport, for The Central Pennsylvania Lumber Co., W. D. Hinkle, of Warren, for L. S. Clough and the Crabb estate; A. C. Brown, County Solicitor, and W. J. Breene, of Oil City, for the County.

After dinner all the guests took part in the sports as they came, thus making the day bright for all. Mrs. Shaffer received many useful and happy returns of the day. The young people met in the evening and report having a fine time.

Misses Edie Shaffer, Elva Lashure, Edith Sibleyhouse, Edith Davis, Gertrude Wenk and Master Ray Lashure, Amos and Willie Shaffer took baskets down to the sulphur spring last Thursday and enjoyed themselves eating an elaborate dinner, viewing the landscape, and playing games of interest.

M. Coy.—Pearl Blum is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blum, near Tionesta, on a number of our people attended the ball game at Kellettville, Saturday afternoon. Sorry to hear that Lickingville was defeated.

Whig Hill.

The extremely hot and dry weather is certainly an extreme change from our prolonged wet spell of recent date. A real soaking rain would be welcomed, no doubt.—The new F. M. church, of which mention has been made several times in our papers, was dedicated last Sabbath morning without the least difficulty whatever. Where everything is moving along in peace and harmony, and which mention has been made several times in our papers, was dedicated last Sabbath morning without the least difficulty whatever. Porkey.

It is reported that one of our young ladies will be married this week and we unite in wishing her all the joy possible if it is true, and the same thing if it is not true, as there is nothing mean or selfish about our makeup.—Walter Slocum of Henry's Mills was the guest of friends here on Saturday evening, and returned home on Sunday afternoon, riding on his new "bike".—Mrs. James Little went to Dunkirk, N. Y., on Friday last accompanied by her children, and would be joined at Hastings by Mrs. Claude Littlefield who was bound for the same port.—Marian and Lora Run, Rupert, went to Sheffield on Tuesday last week to visit their grand-parents and returned with their mother who went out on Friday last shopping.—J. C. Welsh has a fine driving horse that is a beauty, a colt lately trained by Mrs. Kribbs, the liveyman at Kellettville. It is not afraid of anything that runs the roads which makes it more valuable.—Miss Lauretta Wolfe and Mrs. E. A. Babcock of Kellettville are guests of the Welsh family at Newtown. Jacob Wolfe, their father, is also making a visit at the same place.—Several of our young girls are looking forward to the time when they can begin taking lessons in music. We expect their teacher this week and we hope they will take an interest and not slight their practicing, as this is the road to success.—A family named Shay have lately moved to Weiler's which will add some to the number to the school.—The residents of that place are anxious to have a school nearer than Sheriff but we do not think it possible. The law fixes the distance that schools shall be apart. The Board of Directors, generally, do all in their power to make it easy for the young to get an education and we think our board is one of the finest ever. So do the school matrons; say, don't they, Charney!—Several of the Henry's Mill ball players were here on Sunday last to play ball, also a lot of the Cooper Tract fellows.—On Thursday evening J. C. Welsh took a party of the campers from Logan to Mayburg for a call on the J. G. Richards family. The trip was made in Welsh's White Steamer, James III, without any serious mishap. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McMichael and Nell Skelton of Sheffield, Mrs. L. J. Catlin of Jefferson, Ohio, Miss Lellie Thurber of Shamburg, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dale, and Mr. Chas. Griffin, of Oil City. The evening was spent in a pleasant visit, the leading feature being the talent for music exhibition by Miss Nellie Thurber, Mrs. R. C. Dale and Nell Skelton, who gave several pleasing renditions on the piano. The only dangerous predicament on the whole journey was the close call to a collision with another machine in the city limits at Mayburg; but so near, and yet far enough to escape.—Mr. D. Scalfaro and Miss Lena Rabb of Mayburg were at the Rupert home for a short visit on Sunday last.—Last week an old maid and old woman passed through town going to Mayburg looking for a job, as they have no home and have to earn their own way. We did not learn their names but they were pretty old looking to be walking so far. Probably they were from the Beer-shubs to Dan.—A party of Mayburg young people spent Sunday at Hermit Spring on Sunday last and had a lovely time.—There was a large crowd at the ball game here on Sunday last and at one time there was an enormous lot of people on the foot-bridge at once. One of our natives had to tell them not to crowd it. The people that have no donation in a thing of this kind are the ones to mislead it. The bridge management would like to impress on these people's minds that only four grown people are supposed to be on the bridge at one time.—All auto drivers should go over the small bridge at Porkey run carefully, as it is very weak and unsafe. We are much afraid that some one will get hurt by a flying plank when they cross it at such high speed. Our heart stopped beating last Sunday when a large machine crossed it and most all the crowd raised up to more than a foot and settled back.—Next week we can tell you about the "glorious Fourth" and its accidents. Watch for it.
