"Sperry & Hutchinson" Green Trading Stamps

Strongest, best premium proposition on earth. That is one reason why we installed this Wonderful Profit-Sharing Plan. For nearly fourteen years it has held the confidence and commanded the respect of this great American public. By means of it we will enable you to obtain fine China, exquisite Cut Glass, beautiful Rugs, Sterling Silver and Silver Plated Ware, Furniture, Bric-a-Brac, &c., all of the highest standard of manufacture, absolutely free.

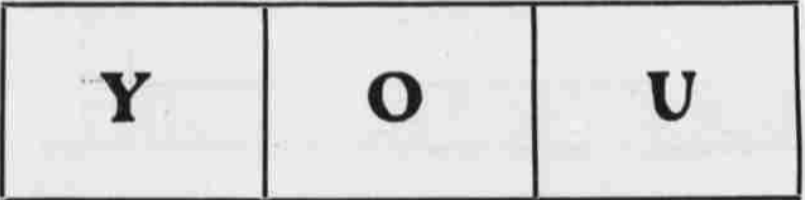

Thirty Stamps Free

To start a book, beginning July 23 and continuing to July 29, will be given to every visitor in "S. & H." Premium Parlor, in the basement of this store.

This is your affair. Your own purse is affected. To understand the great extent to which you will profit you must come and see this wealth of magnificent premiums. In plain words, "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps are a valuable discount on what you spend. We will give them in future with all cash sales; at least one stamp for each 10 cents of purchase. They represent a purchasing power greater than would their equivalent in cash. They enable you to obtain premiums (which consist of everything) of greater value than you could buy with the equal amount of money. Forgetting to ask for "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps is actually denying yourself some comfort, utility or luxury. Remembering to ask for them enhances the beauty of your surroundings without the outlay of a single penny. The ladies in particular should be interested. We are solicitous that they derive all the benefits possible from this generous profit-sharing plan. To them especially we would say that we merchants who give "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps charge less for our merchandise for the reason that the stamps bring us cash at the counter. That gives us ready cash with which to take advantage of the markets and save our discounts. Since we can buy for less, certainly we can and we do sell for less. So by dealing with "S. & H." Green Trading Stamp merchants, you reap a double advantage. First—You get better and fresher goods for less money. Second—You get an additional inducement, the richest premiums the world affords. You can greatly accelerate the filling of your stamp book if you will bring your tobacco tags, soap wrappers, labels, etc., and particularly your Hamilton Bonds and Coupons to the Premium Parlor. You will be given "S. & H." Green Trading Stamps for them. You are invited to call and get a book and 30 stamps free.

RIOTS ON D. & H.

One Killed and Six Injured at Carbon-dale When Tracks are Dynamited.
Wilton-Barre, Pa., July 25.—Serious rioting, dynamiting and train wrecking has occurred along the line of the Delaware & Hudson railroad between this city and Carbondale on which 1,200 section hands are striking, in the past 24 hours.
In a riot at Carbondale one was killed and six injured, the tracks of the railroad beneath the Laurel line viaduct at Avoca were dynamited and blown out while in the railroad yards at Hudson three miles from this city the fish plates on a number of the tracks were removed, spikes were drawn and the rails replaced so that they were spread two inches wider. Similar work was done in the Carbondale yards and as a result a locomotive was derailed in each yard and more serious accidents were narrowly averted.
A mob of about 500 attacked strike-breakers at Carbondale and several hundred shots were fired, the police trying to protect the strike-breakers. In the melee James Clione was shot through the head and he died later. Several arrests have been made.

TURN BACK 200 YEARS

Newbern, N. C., Citizens Hold Allegorical Celebration of Founding.
Newbern, N. C., July 26.—Sailing up the Trent river just as their forefathers did in 1710, citizens of Newbern, customed to represent John Lawson and his Swiss colonists and Baron de Grafenreid and his Germans, in ships which are replicas of the 18th century riggers, landed here at noon today.
This ceremony inaugurated a three-day allegorical celebration of the founding, 200 years ago, of Newbern, the second oldest city in North Carolina.

A Ready Compliment.
She—Some day I want to show you our family tree. He (looking at her admiringly)—I should like to see it. I am sure it must be a peach.—Somerville Journal.

The Trust Company or the Individual as Trustee.

The service of the trust company is always available, for it takes on vacations and is never absent from the city—something that cannot be said of the individual.

Another point which must be properly considered in this connection is that an individual trustee may die during the period of trust and quite possibly leave his affairs in such shape as to require a great deal of expense to the estate before they can be properly readjusted and his duties performed by someone else.

The Franklin Trust Company, if named in your will as executor, guardian or trustee, assures faithful attention to the provisions which you make therein for the future comfort and welfare of your family or heirs.
