WOMEN are to be employed to do the baking for the regular army, they say. It is believed that the soldiers will fight better if given the kind of bread that mother used to make.

AMERICAN exports of automobiles have doubled within a year, statistics say. Europeans may be mortgaging some of their spare castles to make this investment, but they will get plenty of satisfaction out of the best machines.

THE Pullman Company claims to be losing money, thus preparing the dear public for a raise in rates, we suppose. The New York American points out that the company has paid dividends at the rate of 8 per cent, since 1893. In addition it paid a 50 per cent, stock dividend in 1898 and another of 36 per cent, in 1906, while on June 30 the stock brought $155,25 per share on the floor of the stock exchange. By all means the poor Pullman company should raise its rates.-Franklin Herald.

THE Keystone party, the name given to the new organization which has for its aim the defeat of both old parties in Pennsylvania, met in convention Thursday in Philadelphia and placed in nomi nation the following ticket: William H. Berry of Delaware county for governor; D. Clarence Gibboney of Philadelphia for lieutenant governor, Cornelius D. Scully of Allegheny county for state treasurer, and John Casey of Luzerne county for secretary of internal affairs. The platform adopted by the malcontents severely condemns both old parties and charges them with the violation of the entire political decalogue, to be sure.

Time was when the newspapers believed they were indulging in goodhumored fun if they referred to Sagamore Hill as in any way a notable spot in the United States. Yet there is no question but to-day it is at least as well known as Monticello, Hawarden, or Karlsruhe. Within the last nine years the owner of Sagamore Hill has become the greatest figure of the present generation and perhaps one of the greatest in history. It is no wonder, therefore, that the public manifests an interest in the little estate at Oyster Bay, in its owner, and in the daily life he leads there. And truly, the life which Theodore Roosevelt leads upon his hill is in itself so absolutely wholesome and so typically American that we cannot but envy it. It is a sane and a healthy outdoor life, the kind most of us who are city-pent constantly yearn for. Quiet that life could easily be upon the sundrenched hill, but politics, that exacting occupation of Mr. Roosevelt's, pursues him even here and now in his retirement, and breaks in upon his tranquillity. -American Review of Reviews for Aug.

Square Deal For Man's Best Friend.

The horse is to have a square deal. After years of suffering on its part somebody put himself, figurativly speaking, into the animal's place and while under the thral composed a prayer to its master, to be uttered by any level beaded borse that knows what's what. The prayer is being distributed by humane societies in all sections of the country, and the effect is wonderful and very gratifying. Copies are being called for from every direction, and are being posted in livery stables and other places where horses are kept, Everyone who has to do with "man's best friend," the noble horse, should read it often and grant the touching prayer. Here it is:

To thee, my master, I offer my prayer: Feed me, water and care for me, and when the day's work is done provide me with shelter, a clean, dry bed and a stall wide enough for me to lie down in comfort. Always be kind to me. Talk to me. Your voice often means as much to me as the reins. Pet me sometimes, that I may serve you the more gladly and learn to love yon. Do not jerk the reius, and do not whip me when going up hill. Never strike, beat or kick me when I do not understand what you want, but give me a chance to understand you. Watch me, and if I fail to do your bidding, see if something is not wrong with my harness

Do not check me so that I cannot have the free use of my bead. If you insist that I wear binders, so that I cannot see behind me as it was intended I should, I pray you be careful that the blinders stand well out from my eyes.

Do not overload me, or hitch me where water will drip on me. Keep me well shod. Examine my teeth when I do not est. I may have an ulcerated tooth, and that, you know, is very painful. Do not tie my bead in an unnatural position, or take away my best defense against flies and mosquitoes by cutting off my tail.

I cannot tell you when I am thirsty, so give me clean, cool water often. Saye me by all means in your power from that fatal disease-the glanders. I cannot tell you in words when I am sick, so watch me, that by signs you may know my condition. Give me all possible shelter from the hot sun, and put a blanket on me, not when I am working, but when I am standing in the cold. Never put a frosty bit in my mouth; first warm it by holding it a moment in your hands.

I try to carry you and your burdens without a murmur, and wait patiently for you long hours of the day or night. Without power to choose my shoes or path, 1 sometimes fall on the hard payements, which I have often prayed might not be of wood, but of such a nature as to give me a safe and sure footing. Remember that I must be ready at any moment to lose my life in your service.

And finally, O my master, when my useful strength is gone, do not turn me out to starve or freeze, or sell me to some cruel owner, to be slowly tortured and starved to death; but do thou, my master, take my life in the kindest way, and your God will reward you here and hereafter. You will not consider me irreverent if I ask this in the name of Him who was born in a stable. Amen,

RECENT DEATHS.

HUDDLESON.

Theodore Gerst Huddleson was born in Mercer county, Pa., in 1857, and died at Evanston, Wyoming, July 23, 1910. For pany years Mr. Huddleson lived with his parents on their farm near East Hickory, Pa. After the death of his mother, Mrs. Rose Ann Huddleson, he made his home with his uncle, George W. Huddleson, also of East Hickory. Mr. Buddleson for many years was one of the best drillers of this section. About eight years ago he went west and settled at Chelsea, I. T., and there became interested in the oil business. Through his honest, persevering ways he soon amassed a comfortable fortune. He was a large stockholder in the Holman Oil Company and held the office of vice president in the company. Mr. Huddleson was one of the most widely known men of this section, as well as of the western oil fields. He was of a kind and sympathetic nature, ever ready to aid the needy and to give his sympathy to those in trouble. Those who knew him best mourn his loss deeply. One full brother, Lewis E. Huddleson, of Cratton, Pa., two half brothers, Adam Urey, of Catalina Island, Cal., Daniel Urey, of Mercer, Pa., and three half sisters, Mrs. Christina Manross and Mrs. Lydia Traine, of President, Pa., and Mrs. Margaret Moon, of Franklin, Pa., survive him. Mr. Huddleson was never married. His death was caused by a stroke of paralysis. It was always considerable interest in that direction. J. bis desire to be buried with his parents in the cemetery at East Hickory and here ducers in the Warren and Tiona districts, he was laid to rest Friday, July 29, 1910.
