PHILOSOPHY from Punxsutawney Smith's Spirit; Genuine ugliness in a human being consists in selfishness and hardness of heart, Misshapen features look comely with an amiable disposition.

An enthusiastic Massachussetts preacher expects to enjoy baseball in heaven, but whether the umpire will succeed in pleasing everybody is still a somewhat mixed question. Perhaps they will not get there.

THE Franklin Herald gets squarely matrimonial matter and delivers itself of this perfectly unbiased opinion, in which we concur to the very letter: "Miss Elkins is going to get the Duke. Or the Duke is going to get Miss Elkins, From all reports this Duke seems to be a man as well as a Duke and Miss Elkins is a beautiful American girl. It is a cinch that the Duke deserves congratulations ing both ways. and we are inclined to congratulate Miss Elkins also."
