If your liver is sluggish and out of tone, and you feel dull, bilious, constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets tonight before retiring and you will feel all right in the morning. Sold by Dunn & Fulton.

Jacob Cropp, of Cropp Hill, had a deep gash several inches in length cut into his left leg below the knee, one day last week, by the antics of his horse which got a fractious streak on while he was driving into his barnyard. It required several stitches of the surgeon's needle to close the wound.
The merry-go-round which has lain dormant on the ball grounds for some weeks, was yesterday transported to Marienville, where it will be put in commission as an accessory in the merry-making at the Buck wheat picnic on Friday of this week. The old town is going to put on a swell picnic this year.
The W. C. T. U. of Nebraska elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. Maule Myers; vice president, Mrs. Emily Cole; recording secretary, Mrs. Chloë Walters; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Tressa Young; treasurer, Mrs. Emma Secor. Delegates to the county convention, Mrs. Alice Neal, Mrs. Melissa Combs.

The only who taught a class of small boys in the Sunday-school desired to impress upon them the meaning of returning thanks before a meal. Turning to one of the class, whose father was a deacon in the church she said: "William, what is the first thing your father says when he sits down to the table?" "He says 'go slow with the butter kids, it's 40 cents a pound,'" replied the lad.
—The way it looks out Punxsutawneyward, according to the Spirit: "It looks as though the buck wheat crop in this section of Pennsylvania would be very poor, if not a total failure, owing to the dry weather. Potatoes, too, will be very scarce, unless copious rains come to their relief without delay. Wheat, rye, and oats are about an average yield, and there will be scarcely more than half a crop of corn."

The last quarterly meeting for this conference year will be held in the M. E. Church, in Tionesta, Friday and Saturday of this week. Friday evening at 7:45 Rev. D. A. Platt, D. D., will preach, and at the close of the sermon hold the Quarterly Conference. Sunday at 10 a. m. Love Feast; 11 o'clock, sermon by the pastor, followed by the Holy Communion. Sunday at 7:45 sermon by the District Superintendent.
It is courtesy to your guests to see that their names appear in the local newspaper. It is due to your friends and yourself that, when visiting, your name should appear in the paper. Some one in the family should inform the newspaper of visitors in the home. Remember that a newspaper is made by human hands and brains, and that if the item concerning yourself or your friends does not appear it is largely your fault.
—Hats off to H. E. Moody, please. He hooked the big "lunge" of the season last evening just in time for the supper table. The fellow weighed an even 7 pounds, and though not the largest we have in these waters, still gave its captor a good fight. In landing the fine specimen Harry got a "gang" of the hooks on his artificial minnow imbedded in his hand, "but," he said, "I calculated if I got three or four hooks into the fish's jaw, and as many more in my hand, I'd fetch him all right." And he did.

A woman lost in the berry woods near Marienville caused considerable excitement in that community last Wednesday, and searching parties numbering nearly a hundred people were out a day and a night before she was found. The lady's name is Sarah Greenawalt. When discovered she was still much bewildered and almost completely exhausted by hunger and fatigue, having been out some 36 hours. She had been picking berries with some friends and got separated not long after entering the woods.
The recent Commencement of the Lock Haven State Normal School is noteworthy for several reasons: one being the fact that the school graduated the largest class in its history and the other that a very satisfactory lecture and entertainment course was completed during commencement week by a splendid presentation of Shakespeare's "As You Like It" on the front campus by the famous Ben Greet players of England. The educational value of this performance was in itself sufficient to warrant the large outlay. It will pay you to see the beautiful catalogue of this first-class school. It —Ben and Carl Hannah, brothers, who are employed at Beers' lumber camp, on Queen creek, Hickory township, were very badly bruised up Saturday evening, when a bicycle speeider on which they were riding from West Hickory to Endeavor on the Hickory Valley Railroad, was upset. The machine struck a root lying on the track at the Bowman switch and both the men were thrown quite a distance, alighting on their faces. Ben had his nose broken and face cut, while Carl had two ribs fractured and also received a bad cut over his right eye. Dr. Bovard was summoned from here and went up and attended to their injuries.

The Lock Haven State Normal School is easily accessible from every part of Pennsylvania either by means of the Pennsylvania Railroad or the New York Central. It is located in a thriving town of ten thousand people on the west branch of the Susquehanna and in a locality that is famous throughout the state on account of its scenic beauty. The buildings are modern, comfortable and convenient. It has a faculty of College and University trained men and women. Its professional work is peculiarly well adapted for the training of teachers for the public schools. If you are interested in a good school, address the Principal for an illustrated catalogue.
—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union elected the following officers at their annual business meeting Tuesday evening, Aug. 9th, for the coming year: President, Mrs. Anna Watson; first vice president, Mrs. Sule May Sharpe; second vice president, Mrs. Clara C. Carson; recording secretary, Mrs. Myrtle Huling; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Nettie Adams; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Irwin; page, Anna Mary Huling. Delegates to county convention, Mrs. Sigworth, Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. Mays; alternates, Mrs. Holman, Mrs. Jos. Clark, Mrs. Henry. All superintendents are expected to bring in their reports at the next meeting in the Presbyterian church, Aug. 23.

The annual reunion of the Allison families was held at Monarch Park, Oil City, last Friday, and proved a most decided success numerically and socially, there being 78 of the family connection present on this occasion. Two bountiful meals were served in picnic style, and it was late in the evening when the large gathering reluctantly dispersed. A correspondent of the Franklin News, in her account of the affair, says: "After dinner the time was spent in getting acquainted and having a general good time. The president, Dr. F. E. Allison, of Nebraska, Pa., and half-sister, Mrs. Sarah Allison, of Salina, familiarly known as Uncle Doc and Aunt Sarah, were the oldest members at the reunion, and we were certainly glad they were able to be present and enjoy themselves. Uncle Doc made himself especially useful in figuring out relations, as he has the family history and can answer in a few moments all questions on that subject." Among the attendants from this vicinity were J. L. Kinstiver of East Hickory, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Copeland, Jason Copeland and Ellsworth Copeland, of Fagundes. The next reunion will be held at the same place on the second Friday of August, 1911.

—The Clarington W. C. T. U. at its annual meeting elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Olive Campbell; vice president, Mrs. A. R. Sloughaupt; secretary, Mrs. Lily Heasley; treasurer, Mrs. E. Mechlugg. Mrs. George Braden and Mrs. Gray were elected delegates to the county convention, Thursday last, at the home of our president, Mrs. Campbell, the union had a picnic for the mothers and children, which was greatly enjoyed.
—Our thanks are due John Brennan, Kellettsville's artistic photographer, for a nice postal card view of the REPUBLICAN office front, which he snapped-shotted as he was passing through town with his camera one day last week. John has taken some excellent views of the progressive town of Kellettsville and its picturesque surroundings, and is always on the spot ready to "snap" any doings of special interest or extraordinary happenings, and in this way has secured a fine collection of photos for his studio.
—Wm. Lowman and son, of Marienville, who are drilling for Corney Zellar of Kane, on the Dawson island in the Allegheny river about three miles above Tionesta, have had considerable bad luck with their machine of late, but are getting along better now, and expect to finish a well in a short time. Mr. Zellar has a lease of the Dawson and Haslet islands, and the McMullen, or old Jesse Dale property, lying on the east bank of the river, and proposes giving the territory a thorough test. Very little, if any, of this territory has ever been drilled over, and as it lies between two fairly good producing properties, Mr. Zellar should open up a nice lease. He will try for all three sands and it seems hardly possible he should miss it in all of them.

—From a social letter from our old friend and former commissioner of Forest county, we are pleased to learn that he is still in good spirits and enjoying a reasonable measure of health. Mr. Young recently returned from a six weeks' visit with his sons at Wilkinsburg, and friends at Butler, all of whom were prospering and happy. Two of Mr. Young's sons, Albert and Henry, are located at Centralia, Washington, and in their letters to their father they speak of the extreme heat and dry weather in that section, so it must be pretty much the same everywhere this season. One of Mr. Young's granddaughters, Miss Mabel Schroeder, Erie, Pa., is ill with typhoid fever, but was getting along well at last accounts. Kind regards to you, Peter, old friend; may you keep your health and live to see a hundred.
—Thursday afternoon while Albert Gordon was driving his automobile up the macadam road he met Mr. Watson's car coming down at the Tubbs run bridge and in attempting to pass, the Gordon car ran too close to the right hand guard rail below the bridge. The front wheel caught in the fence and it was necessary to use the emergency brake to prevent the machine going through the fence and over the embankment. In doing this the big car was brought up with a jerk. In the car were R. G. Schaeffer, Mrs. R. L. Haslet, of this place, and Mrs. Carrie McIntyre, of Philadelphia, a visitor to Tionesta friends. When the ladies saw what they supposed was going to be a collision, both jumped to their feet, and the sudden stopping of the car threw them forward and out with considerable force. Mrs. Haslet escaped without injury, but Mrs. McIntyre sustained the fracture of a bone in her left shoulder. Dr. Dunn attended the lady's injuries, and she was taken to the home of her brother, Walter Sively, at Sively, where, at last accounts, she was doing well considering the circumstances, she being upward of 70 years of age. The damage to the car was small, being confined to a broken lamp and hub. Mr. Gordon and party left Sunday in their car for their homes at Elkhart and Goshen, Indiana.

A Fine Recital.
EAST HICKORY, Aug. 14, 1910.
The musical and oratorical recital given last night in the K. O. T. M. Hall by the Misses Olive Lanson, pianist, Anna Lenore Ritchey, soprano, and Anna Genevieve Dount, reader, was a decided success and certainly the finest entertainment ever given in the village.
Miss Lanson's splendid technique as a pianist is seldom excelled. She showed by her playing that she clearly comprehended all the depth of meaning of the various compositions.
Miss Ritchey, a graduate in the musical department of Grove City College, sang in a clear, distinct voice, showing high cultivation as a vocalist. Without any affectation her distinct articulation was effective and impressive.
Miss Dount, who is a graduate of Beaver College, is a natural elocutionist. She is an impersonator and reader of marked ability. Her dramatic instinct was forcibly shown in her rendition of "Dear Old Yale."
The frequent encores showed how well each took her part and speak louder than words can of the appreciation of the audience. We hope they will entertain us again and promise them a welcome reception. We bespeak a popular and successful career for these young home artists.
AN OBSERVER.

—Miss Evelyn Clark returned from the Oil City hospital Monday bringing her little patient, Jack Buzard, with her, he having made a remarkably quick recovery from typhoid fever under Miss Clark's efficient nursing. Mrs. Buzard, is still confined to the hospital but is making good progress toward recovery.
—Among the names of those from this vicinity who attended the Franklin Old Home week celebration, we note these: James S. Henderson, B. A. Wood, John Higfield, T. C. Way, William and Chas. Albaugh, Jonas Shunk, F. E. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Emert, Peter Walters, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Moon, Mrs. William Lease, Mrs. R. C. Whitton.
—In writing up the Franklin Old Home Week celebration for the Oil City Derrick of the 10th, John J. McLaurin makes the following mention of Judge Irwin: "Erect, sturdy, a trifle stouter, his eye bright, his brain clear and his heart in the right place, Samuel D. Irwin has dropped in from Tionesta to have a finger in the appetizing pie. Born near the site of the Park hotel over seven decades ago, he has seen Franklin bloom and blossom from a two-for-five hamlet into the tidest city of its size and weight on top of this green earth. Time has not borne heavily upon him and he would pass anywhere for a spry juvenile of a half-hundred summers. Locating in Jacob Wenk's natty town up the river to practice law, the one-and-only Peter Cover once said in his inimitable Forest Press 'Lieut. Samuel D. Irwin is a rare, original genius, a companion of our boyhood, whose life has been lively and stirring as our own in some respects. He is also a candidate for district attorney.'"

David Bly contemplates moving his family to Otter Camp in the near future.
Miss Nellie Emert, of Tionesta, is spending a few weeks with the family of her uncle, A. Emert, on the hill.
Misses Coral Price and Agnes Shunk are visiting friends in Youngsville and Garland.
Charles Decker, son of W. H. Decker, formerly of this place, but now located on a farm near Centerville, was on the hill last Sunday.
Mrs. David Beck and son are spending the week with the berry pickers at Hastings.
John Brennan, the famous photographer of Kellettsville, while passing over the hill enroute to Hickory, paused a sufficient time to get a view of the new church at Town Line. Success to you, John.
C. W. Smith, of Warren Business College, has made several visits to the hill of late. Some of our young people anticipate attending the college this year.
A basket social will be held this Saturday at the boarding hall connected with the M. E. church, for the benefit of pastoral support.

—Miss Evelyn Clark returned from the Oil City hospital Monday bringing her little patient, Jack Buzard, with her, he having made a remarkably quick recovery from typhoid fever under Miss Clark's efficient nursing. Mrs. Buzard, is still confined to the hospital but is making good progress toward recovery.
—Among the names of those from this vicinity who attended the Franklin Old Home week celebration, we note these: James S. Henderson, B. A. Wood, John Higfield, T. C. Way, William and Chas. Albaugh, Jonas Shunk, F. E. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Emert, Peter Walters, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Moon, Mrs. William Lease, Mrs. R. C. Whitton.
—In writing up the Franklin Old Home Week celebration for the Oil City Derrick of the 10th, John J. McLaurin makes the following mention of Judge Irwin: "Erect, sturdy, a trifle stouter, his eye bright, his brain clear and his heart in the right place, Samuel D. Irwin has dropped in from Tionesta to have a finger in the appetizing pie. Born near the site of the Park hotel over seven decades ago, he has seen Franklin bloom and blossom from a two-for-five hamlet into the tidest city of its size and weight on top of this green earth. Time has not borne heavily upon him and he would pass anywhere for a spry juvenile of a half-hundred summers. Locating in Jacob Wenk's natty town up the river to practice law, the one-and-only Peter Cover once said in his inimitable Forest Press 'Lieut. Samuel D. Irwin is a rare, original genius, a companion of our boyhood, whose life has been lively and stirring as our own in some respects. He is also a candidate for district attorney.'"
