THEY bark of the whiffet is still heard at the banks of Roosevelt, but what need the Colonel care when all the people are in sympathy with him in his terrible drubbing of the corrupt in high places as well as low.

Mr. Wheeler Not a Candidate.

The following very complimentary statement is from the Punxsutawney Spirit of the 24th inst., and is but one of the very many similar articles that have appeared in the leading papers both in and outside the 25th District:

Since the withdrawal from the contest of Hon. J. C. Sibley, Republican nominee for congress in the Twenty-eighth district, on account of badly impaired health, there is but one just and decent thing to do, and that is to nominate the present incumbent, Hon. Nelson F. Wheeler.

Scores of telegrams and telephone messages have come to Mr. Wheeler's home from leading citizens all over the district urging his candidacy, and pledging sincere support. Mr. Wheeler is at present in Europe and doesn't expect to be home for a month or more yet, but he has made it perfectly clear that under no consideration would he be a candidate, nor has he for a moment considered such a step.
