REMARRIAGE AFTER DIVORCE

Virginian Meets Wife After 14-Month Separation and They Make Up. Washington, Aug. 30.—William C. Hoodlett, 34 years old, manager of The Culpener (Va.) Exposition, and his former wife, Bertha F. Hoodlett, 31 years old, were remarried in this city after 14 months' separation.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoodlett were first married in Logan, Ohio, when the former was only 20 and the latter 16 years old. The decree for their legal separation was granted in June, 1909. The time following the granting of the divorce was spent by Mr. Hoodlett in travel, while his wife and their two children visited the Central West and finally went to Fairmount, Va. Hoodlett was called to the West Virginia town recently to attend the funeral of a sister. The chance meeting of his former wife on the train resulted in the re-

SAVED BY BRAVE ENGINEER

Stuck to His Post Despite Scalding Steam That Filled Cab. Pittsburgh, Aug. 30.—Israel Brandt by his bravery probably saved the lives of scores of sleeping passengers on the Chicago & Pittsburg express on the Pittsburg Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad here. He may lose his life as a result of fidelity. A steam cap inside the engine cab blew off as he tried to check his train at the Allegheny station, and though the scalding steam filled the cab he stuck by his post until the damage was repaired enough to permit him to stop the train. Then he fell from the window and broke his leg. The upper part of his body is badly scalded. Had Brandt not remained at his post the train would likely have increased in speed enough to leave the river bridge on a curve or to crash into the union depot at the outer side.

Drudgery is the Right Hand of Genius.

He who sticks it out is the true miracle worker.—Sheldon.

Many years ago we learned the lesson of success as it is found after perseverance. We learned it in business after making some mistakes and suffering some losses. We learned long ago the importance of going into each succeeding season free from the shackles of deep in the mud precedent. We are on the eve of the new Fall season. We stand ready to meet it, with decks cleared, and the red blood of enthusiasm fired to boiling heat. We have prepared for a big business. We have anticipated so far as we were able to fill the wants of a buying public in every detail. Our stocks are bristling with newness, originality and ever uppermost, the importance of quality. Our prices, daringly conservative, will stand the closest comparison with the lowest named anywhere. In soliciting a share your patronage for the coming season we can only offer as an inducement the best of American products, priced reasonable and the broad spirit of satisfaction absolutely guaranteed.

Worthy of Special Mention

Is our magnificent assortment of High Grade Clothing, Knax Hats, E & W. Collars and Shirts, Sailor Waist Trousers, American Knitting Co. Underwear, Wilson Bros' Furnishings, Fownes Gloves, Bamberger Bros' Children's Clothing, Howard Hats, Schoble Hats and Croft & Knapp Hats, Carhart Overalls, Howe Neckwear, and Full Dress Requisites. We are ready any time to display for your inspection the most complete line of wearables ever shown in this city.

LABOR VOTE WILL LINE UP FOR TENER

Republican Nominee Popular With Workingmen.

FROM MILL BOY TO GOVERNOR

Former President of Amalgamated Iron and Steel Workers Tells of Interest of Candidate in Wage-earners.

(Special Correspondence.)

Pittsburg, Aug. 30.

Although the gubernatorial campaign in Pennsylvania has hardly got ten well under way, one fact has been demonstrated, and that is that John Kinley Tener, the Republican nominee for governor, is going to be one of the most popular candidates with the workingmen that ever ran on a state ticket.

This is not surprising to those familiar with his record and who have followed his course both in private and public life.

His whole history is that of a man who has worked hard himself and who is in full sympathy with labor by reason of his associations with the wage earners from his boyhood days.

Any one who, like Mr. Tener, had to begin at the very bottom of life's ladder and depend upon his own energy and resources to win success can appreciate his concern for the welfare of his fellow men, especially those who make up the great industrial army of this state and nation.

"From Mill Boy to Governor."

"From Mill Boy to Governor" is a slogan already heard among the enthusiastic admirers of a former worker in one of the great steel plants of western Pennsylvania and as the campaign shall progress and the great body of the voters shall become more intimately acquainted with the career and the policies of the Republican nominee for governor, it is predicted that he will grow in popularity and strength with the inevitable result—an overwhelming victory at the polls on Nov. 8.

An idea of the enthusiasm with which the nomination of Mr. Tener is being received and of the reasons for the interest shown in his candidacy by representatives of organized labor, may be had from a chat with M. M. Garland, a former president of the Amalgamated Iron and Steel Workers, who has known Mr. Tener for many years.

Appreciation of a Co-Worker.

"John K. Tener is essentially a self-made man," said Mr. Garland. "He has ever been interested in the cause of the workingman, and today classes among his very best friends men who have been and are high in the ranks of labor organizations. Tener's first occupation was as an errand boy and then as assistant shipping clerk at the mill of Lewis, Oliver & Phillips, South Side, Pittsburg. He was then advanced to pay roll clerk. His associates were the men of the mills, and it was while he was employed at the plant of the Oliviers, at South Tenth street, he formed very close friendships with Miles P. Humphreys, who had just retired as president of the Amalgamated Iron and Steel Workers, then in charge of the puddling and muck iron departments; the late William Wehbe, then a puddler; Jack Davis, a well known boss roller, and others who were high in labor circles.

Once Ran a Locomotive.

"Tener spent most of his spare time in the mills and mill yards, and as a result he obtained a thorough knowledge of the practical end of the business. He soon mastered locomotive engineering and was often found on the engines in and about the plant and when a regular engineer was off duty on account of sickness he would take his place for week-end at a time. "When Tener left the industrial field to take up his battle he was a firm believer in organization, and during the closing months of 1889 he with several other base ball players, joined in a movement which resulted in the Brotherhood of Base Ball Players, and which had for its object the betterment of the conditions then imposed upon the players, and the extent of this move had its effect ever since. "Tener became a resident of Charlerol at its inception, and is known to nearly every man, woman and child in that town, and as the men pass by they address him as 'John,' and he in turn salutes them as 'Hello, Bill' or 'How are you, Sam?' as the case may be.

As a Friend of Labor.

"For several years he was engaged in the glass business at Buckhannon, West Virginia, where only union men were employed, and in all business in which he has been engaged or has had a controlling interest, the very highest wages have been paid. At the beginning of the strike at the Macbeth-Evans glass factory at Charleroi, the men appealed to Tener, and he was instrumental in securing a conference between representatives of the workmen and their employers. He was again called upon during a strike at the works of the Charleroi Coal company to intercede in behalf of the miners, and in this he was successful in assisting in an agreement satisfactory to both sides and winning the praise of the wage earners.

"Tener was sent to congress with the unanimous endorsement of the labor organizations in the Twenty-fourth district, he having declared for an eight-hour law. At the second session of the Sixty-first congress he introduced a resolution calling for an investigation of labor conditions in the mills and factories in western Pennsylvania, which went to the committee on rules which body as every one knows, was soon after the center of a bitter fight, resulting in the delay of this and other creditable proposed legislation. He is a firm believer in arbitration as his close friends well know.

"Tener's political enemies have unsuccessfully endeavored to make political capital out of the story that when the Hughes injunction amendment was before the house of representatives he was recorded as 'not voting,' but they failed to add that at that time he was paired with Representative Taylor, a Democrat, of Alabama, who was absent from Washington as will be shown on page 924 of the Congressional Record, and it would have been the height of dishonesty to have acted otherwise.

F. AUGUSTUS HEINZE TO WED

Mrs. Bernice Golden Henderson, the Actress, Will Become Mrs. Heinze.

New York, Aug. 30.—A few minutes after the marriage license bureau was opened F. Augustus Heinze and Mrs. Bernice Golden Henderson, the actress, whom Heinze is to marry, went to the City Hall and took out a license. They were the first couple to appear.

Heinze told Clerk Prendergast that he was going to be married some time today. Mrs. Henderson returned to her apartment at the Hotel Algonquin, after leaving City Hall, but at noon departed in a taxicab. Heinze told the clerk at City Hall that he lived in Butte, Mont., and that he was 40 years old. He said that he was a miner by occupation.

Mrs. Henderson is 26 years old and was born in Toledo, O. She has no occupation. Her father, Thomas Golden, was born in Dublin, Ireland. The paper which was filed out shows that Mrs. Henderson was divorced on July 1, 1908, in the supreme court of New York county.

Not Funny to Merritt.

Greenwich, Conn., Aug. 30.—The general store of Hallett Merritt, on the Boston Post road, between Greenwich and Port Chester, was entered some time last night and the entire stock of cigars, cigarettes and tobacco and some billiard balls were taken. The police believe it was the work of joy riders in automobiles who did it for a prank.

Shortage of Sauerkraut.

Fremont, O., Aug. 30.—Because of the long dry spell, there will be a shortage of sauerkraut this year. The kraut factories of this city, which is the center of the industry, started their annual shelling today. They report that cabbages are smaller than usual and that entire fields have been destroyed by rot and the yellows. A rise in the price of sauerkraut is prospective.

HOSTILE ARMY IN PARIS

Fleas invade the City Regardless of Insect Powders.

Paris, Aug. 30.—A flea epidemic which just now makes certain quarters of Paris almost uninhabitable comes as an unlooked for consequence of last winter's floods.

The houses which suffer most are those which were inundated in February. Large and vigorous fleas emerge from the cellars, and in series bands hundreds of thousands strong, invade flats and apartments, regardless of insect powders and other remedies. Nothing like this epidemic has ever been recorded here. These particular fleas have been a persistence almost equal to that of the white ants of Africa. Nothing stops them except fire or streams of boiling water.

The arrondissements of Paris bordering on the Seine, also Passy, Auderly, Neuilly and the low level streets near the St. Lazare railroad station. They have also got into tramways, omnibuses and street cabs and the theaters.

The sanitary authorities are distributing insect powders gratis in districts where the pest is most troublesome.

ROMANCE ENDS IN DIVORCE

Daughter of Land Owner Seeks Separation From Engine Driver.

Pittsburg, Aug. 30.—One of the most sensational romances in the history of Western Pennsylvania was shattered when in the courts of Washington county Mrs. Ross Cage entered suit for divorce against an engine driver on the Washington & Waynesburg railroad.

Mrs. Cage six years ago was Miss Georgie Dunn, daughter of Thomas Dunn, for whom Dunn's Station, on the Washington & Waynesburg railroad, was named.

The road ran close to the Dunn house and the daughter of the household became interested in Cage, who pulled the solitary train over the 40-mile line twice each way daily. Cage was forbidden the Dunn house, but the pair arranged a system of signals, he with his locomotive whistle and the maid with her apron by day and a lantern by night.

By this system they arranged to elope, which they did July 5, 1905, going to Cumberland, Md. Miss Dunn on this occasion climbed to the engine and rode with her sweetheart to Washington, Pa., where they took a train for Cumberland.

CRIPPEN REMANDED TO JAIL

He and Miss Leneve Will Be Tried For Murder on Sept. 8.

London, Aug. 30.—Dr. Hawley Harvey Crippen and Miss Ethel Leneve appeared in the jurisdiction court at Bow street yesterday. They were charged with "feloniously, wilfully and from malice aforethought, killing and murdering Cora Crippen." Miss Leneve was further charged with "having received, harbored and maintained Crippen, well knowing that he had committed said felony."

Dr. Crippen, previous to coming to Bow street court, had an interview with his solicitor, Arthur Newton. He declared that he and Miss Leneve were confident of the result of their troubles and had no doubt but that the issue would be a favorable one. The doctor declared that he had confessed nothing.

Inspector Dew was called to the stand and testified that from evidence he discovered he believed that Crippen contemplated suicide while on his way by steamer to Quebec. After a short cross-examination for the defense the prisoners were remanded to jail until Sept. 8.

During the hearing Crippen's demeanor was bold, while Miss Leneve's was pale, unattractive and immobile.

Women Entered Suicide Pact.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 30.—Mrs. Mabel Williams, who yesterday entered into a suicide compact with Mrs. Lillian Dabler, and both took poison, died last night. The Dabler woman is at death's door. Before taking the poison the women argued an hour over the best way to end their lives.

Druggist's Fatal Mistake.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 30.—John, the three-year-old child of David T. Wilson, of this city, died from the effects of carbolic acid given by mistake for castor oil on a prescription filled by a local druggist. The child lived 24 hours after taking the dose.

women's autumn suits

With all the published comments by word and picture of Autumn Suit styles people are in an expectant mood and waiting with considerable anticipation to see what the Actual Suits for Autumn look like.

Today we'll show you a goodly assortment.

They are different—decidedly different just as a new season's Styles should be.

Skirts are narrower—coats shorter and plainer tailored—in fact masculine tailoring has been closely adhered to from the selection of the cloths and colorings to the last detail of the finished garment.

Greys, Blues, Tans, Browns, etc., of rather subdued colorings predominate the plain colorings. Rather bright Scotch colorings of heavy coarse woven materials easily lead the mixt fabrics.

New Autumn Suits for women, $15.00, $16.50, $18.50, $22.50, $25.00, $30.00, $35.00 and $40.00. As usual special attention paid to Women's Suits at $25.00.
