PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION, BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, AND PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Number One.
A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.
Proposing an amendment to section twenty-five of article five of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the following amendment to section twenty-five of article five of the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

Section 25. All laws relating to courts shall be general and of uniform operation, and the organization, jurisdiction, and powers of all courts of the same class or grade, so far as regulated by law, and the force and effect of the process and judgments of such courts, shall be uniform; and the General Assembly is hereby prohibited from creating other courts to exercise the powers vested by this Constitution in the judges of the Courts of Common Pleas and Orphans' Courts; but amendments so that the same shall read as follows:

Section 25. All laws relating to courts shall be general and of uniform operation, and the organization, jurisdiction, and powers of all courts of the same class or grade, so far as regulated by law, and the force and effect of the process and judgments of such courts, shall be uniform; but not understanding any provisions of this Constitution, the General Assembly shall have full power to establish new courts, from time to time, as the same may be required by the public interest, and to prescribe the powers and jurisdiction thereof, and to increase the number of judges in any courts now existing, or to be created, or to reorganize the same, or to vest in other courts the jurisdiction theretofore exercised by courts not of record, and to abolish the same wherever it may be deemed necessary for the orderly and efficient administration of justice.

A true copy of Resolution No. 1.
ROBERT MCAFEE,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Number Two.

RESOLUTION.
Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, so as to eliminate the requirement of payment of taxes as a qualification of the right to vote. Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

Section 1. Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject, however, to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact.

First. He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second. He shall have resided in the State one year or if, having previously been a qualified elector or native-born citizen, he shall have resided in the State one year, immediately preceding the election.

Third. He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

ROBERT MCAFEE,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Number Three.

A JOINT RESOLUTION.
Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, so as to consolidate the courts of common pleas of Allegheny County.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:

Section 6. In the county of Philadelphia all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the district courts and courts of common pleas, subject to such changes as may be made by the Constitution or by law, shall be in Philadelphia vested in five distinct and separate courts of equal and co-ordinate jurisdiction, composed of the number of judges in any of said courts, or in any county where the establishment of an additional court may be authorized by law, may be increased, from time to time, and whenever such increase shall be made by law, the whole or such three judges shall compose a distinct and separate court as aforesaid, which shall be numbered as follows: In Philadelphia all suits shall be instituted in the said courts of common pleas without designating the number of the said court, and the several courts shall distribute and apportion the business among them in such manner as shall be provided by rules of court, and each court, to which any suit shall be thus assigned, shall have exclusive jurisdiction thereof, subject to change of venue, as shall be provided by law.

In the county of Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of said court shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in said court may be by law increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first day of January succeeding its adoption.

ROBERT MCAFEE,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Number Four.

A JOINT RESOLUTION.
Proposing an amendment to section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 8. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

Amendment to Article Nine, Section Eight.
Section 2. Amend section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:

city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, so as to read as follows:

Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, except that any debt or debts hereafter incurred by the city and county of Philadelphia for the construction and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenue in excess of the interest on said debt or debts and of the annual installments necessary for the cancellation of said debt or debts, may be expended for the purpose of the city and county of Philadelphia to become otherwise indebted; Provided, That a sinking fund for their cancellation shall be established and maintained.

THREW MONEY AWAY

Young Fowler's Suit Case Containing $5,600 Found by Police.

Two Red Bandanna Handkerchiefs, Which Had Been Pierced With Eye Needles, Also Found in the Woods Indications Point to Murderers at Being Employes of the Brick Company—None of the Robbers Has Been Apprehended.

The bandits who murdered young Denton Fowler, assistant treasurer of the Atlas Building Material company near Newburgh, N. Y., Saturday afternoon, fled through the woods in such haste that they dropped the treasurer's suit case containing $5,600 in gold, silver and bills. The police found the bag Sunday morning while beating up the woods.

In addition to the bag they found the weapons the robbers had used in the killing, a Winchester repeating rifle, a shotgun, two revolvers, two caps such as Italian laborers commonly wear in this part of the country and two red bandanna handkerchiefs which had been pierced with eyeholes and used for masks.

The trail of two of the assassins led in a wide course to the brickyard, where 150 of the employes—Italians, Hungarians, Poles, largely—had been waiting for Denton Fowler's approach with their three weeks' pay.

The discovery of the suitcase, the rifle, shotgun and revolvers, etc., together with the trail of the two men, indicate almost conclusively that employes of the Atlas company, Italians almost certainly, were the men who ambushed Fowler and his negro driver. These, the police think, had the audacity to run in behind the disappearing brickmakers and join in the hunt.

Lane believes that at least two possibly more of the brickmakers, detached themselves from the crowd sometime in the morning, slipped about 500 yards southward and waited in the small clearing for Fowler. Lane's party found that 5 or 6 men had squatted there for some time.

The clearing was within a few steps of the narrow little traveled road through which Dent Fowler and Driver Ragsdale were to pass, but so thick grown were the trees and bushes that the spot could not have been seen from the road.

None of the robbers had been apprehended.

SENATOR HEMMED IN BY FIRE

Penrose and Hunting Party Fought Way Through Blazing Forest.

Colorado Springs, Col., Sept. 6.—Senator Boies Penrose of Pennsylvania and his two brothers, Dr. C. B. Penrose of Philadelphia and Spencer Penrose of this city, were hemmed in by forest fires in Montana, where they had gone on a hunting trip, and were compelled to spend several days cut off entirely from communication with the outside world before they won their way through the flames by a system of "back firing."

According to Spencer Penrose, who has just reached here from Montana, several were killed in the fires near the Penrose camp.

Annoyed by Tussock Moth.

Harrisburg, Sept. 6.—The tussock moth, the most bothersome of caterpillar insects, is reported as being unusually bad in Berks and Lancaster counties this year. The moths have been annoying farmers and owners of trees. The state authorities have been making inspections, and are urging praying and destruction of egg masses.

MARRIAGE DATE FIXED

Miss Elkins and Duke of the Abruzzi to Wed in February.

It is Understood That Before Her Wedding Miss Elkins Will Have Conferred Upon Her the Title of Countess of Teramo — Bride-to-Be Will Also Become a Member of the Catholic Church—Marriage Portion Will Be $5,000,000.

Paris, Sept. 6. — The date for the wedding of Miss Katherine Elkins and the Duke of the Abruzzi has been fixed for the latter part of February of next year, according to reports in circulation here, which seem to be absolutely reliable. It is stated that the date was decided upon after a consultation between the prospective bridegroom and his brother, the Duke of Aosta. The meeting took place at Venice on Aug. 2, and was carefully kept from the public until now.

There is every reason to believe that the Duchess of Aosta, who from the first has strenuously opposed the proposition, has at last withdrawn her opposition and has abandoned her proposed second trip to Africa, which was planned with the idea of avoiding being present at the wedding.

Duke Will Visit Elkins Family. Within 10 days the Duke of the Abruzzi will pay a visit to the Elkins family here and at that time arrangements will be made for the presentation of the senator's family to the Italian royal household.

In order to avoid newspaper publicity as much as possible the presentation will take place at some obscure town in Italy and the date will be kept a secret until after the ceremonies.

It is understood that before her marriage Miss Elkins will have conferred upon her the title of Countess of Teramo, in honor of one of the largest towns in the Abruzzi district. The statement is made at the same time that Miss Elkins will become a member of the Roman Catholic church and already plans for her instruction in that faith have been made. Her religious instructor will be Mgr. Beccari, the royal chaplain and he will be aided in the work by Mgr. Bisleti, who is well known in Europe as one of the pope's personal ministers as well as a close friend of the supreme pontiff. They have already agreed to undertake the task of converting Miss Elkins to the Catholic faith and it is understood that she will be placed under their tutelage in a very short time.

The financial arrangements which go with the marriage have been attended to and it is announced that the matter has been satisfactorily settled so far as both parties are concerned. The marriage portion will be $5,000,000, which is not considered extraordinary in amount here in view of the rank of the prospective bridegroom and the wealth of Senator Elkins.

All of the arrangements thus far made have been the result of negotiations between Lieutenant Marquis Negrotto de Cambiaso, as the representative of his personal friend, the Duke of the Abruzzi, and Senator Elkins himself or some agent acting for him with full power to sign any agreement arrived at.

All Details Have Been Worked Out. While it has been impossible thus far to get official confirmation of all this, Paris is firmly convinced that the wedding is to take place as stated and that all the details have been worked out and agreed by all parties concerned.

A call was made at the Italian embassy here today and the facts as outlined here were laid before the officials with the request that the reports be confirmed or denied. This was met with the statement that the members of the embassy staff were unable to confirm but that they would not deny that the wedding was to take place. In private conversation one official talked in a tone that tended strongly to confirm the whole matter.

KILLED BY HIS OWN CAR

Savannah Man Was Driving it When Tire Burst.

Savannah, Sept. 6.—Michael Jones, a local retail merchant, was almost instantly killed and four other occupants were injured when his automobile was crushed by a burst tire. The car was driven by Jones and was carrying a party of five. The car was traveling on a narrow road when the tire burst and the car was thrown into the air, landing on its side and crushing the occupants.

STOLE $10,820 IN GOLD

Young Woman, Friend of Mine Amalgamator, Had Some of It.

Telluride, Col., Sept. 6.—William Irvine, amalgamator at the Libbey Bell mine, was arrested last night on the charge of stealing refined gold, the property of the mine. He confessed to the police that he had stolen $10,820 worth of gold in the last year.

London, Sept. 6.—The Evening News prints a story to the effect that a German officer was arrested while sketching the fortifications at Portsmouth.

Sleep on Railroad Fatal.

Palmira, Pa., Sept. 6.—William Hemperly, a molder, employed by the Hershey Chocolate company, was killed last night on the Reading railway by being struck by a freight train. Hemperly was overcome by sleep on his way from town to his home on Grave hill, north of here, and lay down on the railroad. He was 45 years old and leaves a wife and three children.

KATHERINE ELKINS

Will Marry Duke of the Abruzzi Latter Part of February.

FORCED TO STEAL

Girls Take Plunder From Department Stores to Get Food.

New York, Sept. 6.—Declaring that they were forced to steal in order to buy food and clothing, Annie Cambrorich, 16 years old, who said her mother lived in Wade, Pa.; Helen Marshall, 16 years old, and her sister Sophie, 16 years old, pleaded in the police court at Paterson not to be sent to prison.

The Cambrorich girl was arrested Saturday night in a department store in Paterson, and when searched by the police matron a large quantity of women's clothes was taken from her. She confessed that she had been stealing from stores for several weeks, and she implicated the two Marshall girls, with whom she lived at 91 Spruce street.

The police found a great variety of articles at the Spruce street home. They included dresses, coats, household utensils and fancy postal cards. The elder Marshall girl was held as a prisoner, but the younger was paroled until this morning. Recorder Carroll fined Annie and Helen $10 each. Sophie was given a warning.

CRAWLED INTO WOLVES' DEN

Ranchman Has Life and Death Battle With Maudslaws.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Sept. 6.—To crawl into a wolf den with a rifle and fight a life and death battle with gray wolves, was the experience of George Forch, a ranchman, in Western South Dakota.

Forch and four of his neighbors started to hunt some of the animals which had been killing their young cattle and sheep. The five men came upon the trail of four full grown wolves, which they followed for many miles. They succeeded in killing one of them on the open prairie. The three other animals took refuge in their den.

MEN PINNED UNDER AUTO

Machine Overturned and Held Five Prisoners Until Help Came.

Hackensack, N. J., Sept. 6.—Michael Pascale, a wholesale paper dealer of 232 West Broadway, New York, living at Emerson, six miles north of here, invited three New York friends on a ride in his new automobile. His son said he knew how to run it and he was allowed to try his hand.

When near the Old Hook cemetery, between Westwood and Emerson, something went wrong with the steering gear. The automobile left the road, climbed a steep embankment and then turned turtle.

The five occupants were made prisoners under the car, but all miraculously escaped injury. Men in a passing machine rescued the party. The new car is now in a Hackensack garage, a wreck.

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW

Report on the Condition of Business by R. G. Dun & Co. R. G. Dun & Co's weekly review

Though there has been no pronounced change in business conditions and while a quiet conservatism still prevails yet the movement in most departments of trade and industry is indicative of increased confidence and wider activity as the fall season draws near.

Further progress appears in iron and steel, the improvement in demand now becoming more imperative. Conditions in the pig iron division are distinctly better and higher prices are asked for next year's delivery, although some concessions are noted for early shipment. Sales of close to 70,000 tons have been made of late and several important inquiries are pending.

Manufacturers of sheet and tin plates in the Pittsburg district purchase bars more freely and considerable tonnage is under negotiation. A better general trade is reported by drygoods distributors although the trend of buying is still conservative, there is a wiser recognition of the scarcity in textiles, which will result from extraordinary curtailment of the output.

Commercial failures this week in the United States are 157 against 192 last week. Failures in Canada number 23, against 23 last week.

OFFICIALS ARRAIGNED

Held to Blame For Lynching of Anti-Saloon League Detective.

One of the most bitter excoications of public officials ever called to the attention of the Ohio courts was embraced in the report of the special grand jury at Newark, O., directed by the state attorney general's department on the lynching of Carl M. Etherington, an Anti-Saloon League detective, July 18 last.

The report carried with it 58 indictments, of which 25 were for first degree murder, 27 for rioting, 10 for assault and battery and 10 for perjury.

Former Sheriff William Loring of Lincoln county, former Mayor Herbert Atherton of Newark and former Chief of Police Robert Zerbe are held to blame for the lynching. The sheriff is said to have cowardly deserted his post, the mayor to have gone to bed at home and the chief to have gone to a nearby saloon to play cards.

FOUR MEN KILLED

Were Sleeping in a Small Tent, When Struck by Lightning.

During a terrific storm four men were struck by lightning and instantly killed at Lamoure, N. D. They were Fred Osborn, Murray Ellis, Peter Nelson and Edward Peterson.

The men were members of a threshing crew and, with four companions, were sleeping in a small tent.

The four who were killed laid with their heads towards the door of the tent, the wing of which had been blown open by the wind.

Their companions laid with their heads to the rear end of the tent, so close that their feet touched the others.

They escaped with a severe shock and only minor injuries.

WILL BE MODEL CITY

Mrs. Russell Sage is Building One at Forest Hills, L. I.

Mrs. Russell Sage, the financier's widow, has established at Seawater, N. J., an experiment station for the testing of fireproof building materials in connection with her "model city" project.

The construction of the "model city" has just been started at Forest Hills, L. I. The purpose of the undertaking is to enable men of moderate means to own homes with gardens and plenty of fresh air.
