-Judge Taylor, of Washington county, has given the railroad trespass law a solar plexus blow. He ruled that railroad detectives cannot molest men for tresspassing, for walking on railroad property. Heretofore it has been the practice of these officials to seize trespassers and hustle them before a magistrate.

-A well known minister who had been preaching a begging sermon, concluded it as follows: "I don't want any to contribute who have not paid their subscription to the home papers, for country papers need money a great deal more than do the heathen." That minister knew what he was talking about.

-E. A. Handy, who recently purchased the Wm. Clark farm on Hunter Run, was a business caller at the REPUBLICAN office Monday morning. He informs us his apple crop was not a bad one this season, and that he will have a good lot of hand-picked Northern spies to dispose of this fall. For all purposes this variety has them all done to a frazzle.

-Tionesta ladies to the number of forty or more enjoyed a picnic supper up at the Jamieson farm last Wednesday evening. The feast was one of royal proportions, and after the bounteous meal, the atmosphere being a trifle frosty, the large gathering was delightfully entertained within the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thomson until train time.

-Mrs. Rhoda Kuhn, a widow of Reidsburg, Clarion county, died suddenly at her home several days ago. Mrs. Kuhn had lived alone over 20 years. Her husband was a Civil war veteran and she received a pension and worked at carpet weaving. Once when the hiding place of her savings, an old coffee pot, was discovered, she deposited about $3,000 in a Clarion bank. Examination of the house after her death disclosed $450.37 in cash and receipts and papers worth over $5,000 The value of the estate cannot be determined till it is administered. Mrs. Kuhn leaves two heirs.

-W. H. Klepper, high sheriff of Clinton county, advertises that at I o'clock on Saturday afternoon, October 15th he will offer for sale at the court house, Lock two miles south of Leeper, Thursday Haven, a plot of ground known as Great Island cemetery, in which many bodies about two hours, aged 74 years. -Apples are greater luxuries in New York than oranges. While single oranges paratory services will be held Thursday of the best variety can be bought for 5 cents, the best apples are being sold for 12 cents each. And don't forget that you are living in the greatest apple producing belt in the world, right here in Forest county, and for several miles north of us. There is not always a bumper crop-as for instance the failure this year-but the quality of the fruit is never surpas-ed.

-A meeting was held at the store of F. R. Lanson last Friday evening for the purpose of organizing for the Forest County Summer School for 1911, at which we understand the following officers and directors were elected: President, T. F. Ritchey; secretary, J. C. Dunn; treasurer. J. C. Geist; directors, S. S. Sigworth, John G. Jamieson, S. R. Maxwell, L. L. Zuver, W. H. Hood, J. B. Muse, C. F. Feit, D. W. Morrison, L. J. Hopkins, F. J. Bovard. The tuition was fixed at the sum of $2 00 and the length of the term at eight weeks, to begin at the close of the Tionesta public school.

-Now that the schools have begun their assions, we must not forget that our children are still our children and the more interest we show in their school the more its efficiency is increased. There is no teacher worthy of the name who is not pleased with the judicious advice and assistance and sympathy from the parents. The gulf is too wide between the home and the school, and the more we help to bridge it over the more we are improving not only our own children, but the general tone of the school. If the children see that the parents appreciate their teacher, they are much more apt to appreciate him or her themselves, lend cheerful and willing obedience to her wishes, and have certain pride in the success of the school.

-The dedication of the magnificent monument erected by the State in honor of the Pennsylvania soldiers who fought at Gettysburg will take place next Tuesday, 27th inst., and the occasion will draw an immense crowd of veterans to this historic battlefield. Among those who expect to attend from this vicinity are Comrades R. B. Crawford, G. W. Robinson, Wm. Lawrence, James Johnston, Wm. McCann, Tionesta; William and Jonathan Albaugh, of East Hickory; T. J. Van Giesen, President. There are doubtless others from here who will be present, but their names bave not been learned. The annual reunion of the 83d Regiment will take place on Little Round Top, which strategic point this famous organization did so much to save to the Union army.

-Percival Zerbe, a respected citizen of Farmington township, died at his home failure seemed to be the cause. He had Whitehill, who is lying very ill at his ady for the past two years and spoke to end as near. He is survived by his wife Mrs. Frank Mauk, Kellettville. Also four brothers and two sisters, all being present but one sister. His funeral was largely attended Monday, September 12, at two o'clock, from the Presbyterian church at Tylersburg, Rev. Price of the Lutheran church of Fryburg, officiating.

The organization seeks to bring improvement in methods and equipment to the smallest achool held in the country school house, as well as the largest city school on the Avenue. Representatives of these schools assemble annually in State Convention for the purpose of outlining its yearly policy. The next Convention will be the Forty-Sixth Annual, and is announced to meet in Altoona, Pa., October 12, 13 and 14. This annual gathering is the largest assembly of religious workers held within the State. Delegates and all others who desire to attend can secure card orders for reduced ratiroad fare by calling on or address Rev. W. O. Calhoun, Tionesta, Pa.

-Miss Olive Lanson attended the 20th anniversary of the Philomel musical association at the home of Judge and Mrs. W. M. Lindsey, at Warren, on the 13th inst. The Mirror's account of the function pays this tribute to Miss Lanson's splendid talent as a pianiste:/"The piano numbers were played by Miss Olive Lanson, of Tionesta, who studied for some time at the Hill Piano School of Jamestown and with Mr. Franklin Cannon of Warren. Miss Lanson is possessed of unusual musical ability. Her work is polished and smooth, and her careful attention to detail attests to her musicanship. In style she is exceedingly sincere and unaffected, which makes her playing so delightful. A splendid and most gratifying future is predicted for this young artist. Miss Lanson's interpretation of the Schumann group called forth such a burst of warm applause that she graciously played an encore. The applause only ceased when she returned, and played so well the beautiful and familiar melody in F by Rubenstein."

George Dawson's Saw Mill Burned.

The saw mill of G. R. E. Dawson, which was located near the farm of George L. King, below West Hickory. was totally destroyed by fire at an early hour last Friday morning. Mr. Dawson was sawing out some hardwood lumber for the McCabe Lumber Co, at that point and the mill had been running on Thursday. Elmer Bortzer, the sawyer, who lives near the mill, states that everything appeared to be all right a short time before the fire was discovered and the origin of the fire is not known. The fire was discovered at two o'clock and nothing could be done to save the property. None of the lumber was burned. There was no insurance on the property and in the line of Mr. Dawson places his loss at $800.

A Happy Birthday Party.

A German Hill correspondent sends us the following account of a very pleasant social event: We had quite a surprise on our friend, Henry Sibble, Thursday night, Sept. 15th, when fifty-two of his children, of Warren, visited Tionesta friends and relatives gathered in to help him celebrate his fifty-third birthday. An elegant supper was served about eight o'clock, and then to provide amusement one of the rooms was cleared and a dance was held, which old as well as young enjoyed. All departed early, having had a fine time, and wishing Mr. Sibble many more just such happy birthdays. The guests present were, Mrs. H. M. Allen, Mrs. C. W. Gesin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Glassner, Mr. and Mrs. Parker Kelly and son Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sibble and son Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Walters and children Bessie, Alta, Archie and Ethel, James Emert and children Alma and Wiles, Mrs. H.
