Showing the New Suits for Fall.

First Comprehensive Exhibit of Some of the Fashions That are Most in Vogue for Fall.

Because of the labor troubles in New York incident to the strike of garment workers, there has been some delay in a first presentation of fall styles of women's appareling.

We are ready now, however, with a fair representation of what is newest and best, gathered from the style shops since they have settled with the workers and are again in full operation.

Tailor-Made Suits

Still continue to find the favor they have for seasons back, but the smartest of them this season show the semi-fitted coat or jacket, cut so as to preserve almost a straight line from the shoulder to the edge.

The most practical coats, however, are the semi-fitted or the seven-eighths-fitted garments, cut with slightly curved in seams at the waists, which are preferred to the straighter cut garments.

The garment store welcomes you to its initial showing, and urges early selection, inasmuch as there is bound to be more or less of a scarcity. From now on there will be new arrivals daily.

MISTOOK FATHER FOR DEER

Son Shoots His Dad and Older Man May Lose a Leg. Utica, Sept. 20.—The first accident of the deer hunting season in the Adirondacks opened last Friday in reported from Signal Mountain, near Lowville.

William Andre and son Clyde of Grohgan, with several friends, were deer hunting near the mountain, the father and son being quite near each other.

The father took a red handkerchief from his pocket and was wiping his glasses when the son, seeing the bit of color through the bushes and believing it to be a deer, shot three times. Two of the bullets entered the right leg of his father just below the knee, breaking two bones. The father may survive but he will lose a leg.

WOMAN HURT IN "JOY RIDE"

Left Senseless in Street by Companions in Automobile. New York, Sept. 20.—In the Newark City hospital, with her left shoulder broken, is Mrs. Anna Burchell, 22 years old, of 272 Fairmount street, Newark, the victim in a head-on collision early yesterday in which two automobiles were demolished and several other persons had narrow escapes.

The car in which the woman was riding belongs to Philip J. Bowers, a real estate broker, and it crashed into one belonging to Frederick F. Van Keuren, owner of a Newark garage.

Beside Mr. Van Keuren in his car at the time were a man and woman who described themselves as W. W. Elder and Mrs. Vera Wadleigh of Manhattan. They were thrown out by the force of the collision, but escaped serious hurts.

In the other car were Mrs. Burchell and two men, who after the accident hurried away, leaving the woman unconscious in the street. The police are looking for them.

The Individual or the Trust Company for Trustee.

Where an individual is appointed to act as executor or trustee, the duty of fulfilling the office is sometimes very seriously interfered with because of personal interests.

It often happens that an individual executor is not qualified by experience to act advantageously and economically, whereas in the trust company, trained officials accustomed to work of this character, give personal attention to all details.

Then again there is a possibility of the individual, owing to inexperience or lack of knowledge, yielding to the temptation to employ the funds or properties in his charge in hazardous investments with results disastrous to the estate.

The Trust Company protects your estate against such risks.
