

Calendar table for October 1910 showing days of the week and dates.

Republican Ticket.

STATE. Governor, JOHN K. TENER, Washington County. Lieutenant Governor, JOHN M. REYNOLDS, Bedford County. Secretary of Internal Affairs, HENRY HOUCK, Lebanon County. State Treasurer, C. FRED WRIGHT, Susquehanna County. COUNTY. Congress, PETER M. SPEER, Venango County. State Senate, J. K. P. HALL, Elk County. Assembly, W. J. CAMPBELL, Tionesta Borough.

THE time for paying taxes in order to entitle you to a vote expires Saturday of this week. Don't forget, Republicans.

GOVERNOR STUART has announced the following appointments: R. B. Stone, Bradford and A. Lincoln Bell, Ridgway, trustees of the State Hospital for the insane at Warren.

SENATOR GRIM'S candidacy has made such wonderful headway during the last two weeks that the Penrose people are thoroughly alarmed.—Vindicator. For fear that he may "get skunked."

MR. ROOSEVELT is certainly in line with public opinion in refusing to reopen the Bellamy Storer controversy. The people have read all of the letters in that case they will ever care to read. Give us a rest.

OF course it looks like an easy thing for the Republicans of Pennsylvania this fall, but then the ticket will not elect itself. It will be necessary to go to the polls and vote.—Punky Spirit. Sure thing, keep that in mind.

DURING the last 10 years, says the census, the total number of immigrants who have come to this country has been 9,711,812. The Italians stand first with nearly 1,800,000 and the Jews next. The immigrants brought an average of $22 each with them.

MR. SPEER was a Wheeler man and voted for him at the primary, in opposition to Mr. Sibley. But the Democratic and Prohibition papers, which were opposed to Mr. Sibley and favored Mr. Wheeler, are now shouting themselves hoarse in denouncing Mr. Speer as the residuary legate of Mr. Sibley. They are fine specimens of consistency.—Oil City Blizzard.

PROSPECTIVE voters should not forget that Oct. 5 is the last day upon which to pay state and county taxes in order that the receipt therefor may be used for voting purposes this fall. Unless the voter has paid a state and county tax within two years of the coming Nov. 8, he should attend to the matter immediately. Republicans are cautioned not to overlook this important matter.

THE following from ex-President Roosevelt, in a recent address, is an admirable example of clean definition, thinks the Oil City Blizzard: "It is necessary and desirable that there should be leaders, but it is unnecessary and undesirable that there should be bosses. The leader leads the people; the boss drives the people. The leader gets his hold by open appeal to the reason and conscience of his followers; the boss keeps his hold by manipulation and intrigue, by secret and furtive appeal to many forms of self-interest, and sometimes to very base forms." That paragraph is worth pasting in one's hat.

THE Republican convention at Saratoga last Wednesday nominated Henry L. Stimson for Governor of New York, and named a full ticket in accord with the ideas of ex-President Roosevelt and his friends, the ballot resulting in 648 votes being cast for Stimson to 315 for other candidates. The ticket is conceded to be a very strong one and the prediction is freely made by the best judges that it will win, especially since the fearful mess made by Tammany boss Murphy at the Democratic convention at Syracuse on Friday, when, after about every prominent Democrat in the State had refused the nomination, it was thrust upon John A. Dix, with whom Murphy labored for 36 hours before he could be persuaded to stand for the deal.

THERE is a heap of truth in this editorial of Br'er Free in the Titusville Herald: "A newspaper may do many useful things and serve many excellent functions. But it can not make public morals or successfully officiate as the moral monitor of a town. Its principal reason for existence, as we apprehend it, is to furnish the news. It can not make character except by a slow process of evolution. Its influence is most potent when it tells the truth, keeps clean and works hard. It is too much to expect that a few common pieces of clay in a newspaper office shall revolutionize the earth, drive all the scoundrels to cover, make jails for the wicked and provide halos for the virtuous. If we tried to do all of those things we would be so busy that we couldn't get the paper out."

—Men who gloat over the misfortunes of others are human byones.—Blizzard. Yup, right again.

CANDIDATES TO VISIT TIONESTA.

Hon. John K. Tener and Party to be Here Friday Afternoon.

Chairman C. A. Randall has been notified that the State candidates of the Republican party will make Tionesta a visit on Friday next, and is arranging for a meeting at the court house in the afternoon, between 2 and 4 o'clock, the exact hour for beginning not having been decided upon.

The distinguished party will include Hon. John K. Tener, Republican candidate for governor; Hon. J. M. Reynolds, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor; Hon. Charles Fred Wright, candidate for state treasurer; Hon. Henry Houck, secretary of internal affairs; Lieutenant Governor Robert S. Murphy, Congressman J. F. Burke and Hon. Alexander McDowell, clerk of the house of representatives; Hon. Peter M. Speer, the able and popular Republican candidate for Congress in this district.

Every voter in the county should meet these gentlemen, who will unquestionably be elected to serve in the offices for which they have been nominated, and our Republican friends who are sure will be especially desirous of meeting and shaking them by the hand. Turn out and show the candidates what an old fashioned Forest county welcome is.

Whig Hill.

John H. Berlin, returned last Saturday from Gettysburg and reports a grand old time. He says the extreme dry weather is realized in that part of the country as well as here.

From every source far and near we hear the thump of the fall. Surely there will be an abundance of flajjack material, though it looked a week ago as if buck-wheat wasn't in it this year.

Our genial school professor, Claude Terrill, visited his people at Tylersburg, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. O. F. Miles, of Warren, is with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wortzkey. The former lady was Miss Caroline Wortzkey, well known to all our readers, no doubt. Mrs. W. does not recover from her injuries as rapidly as her friends would wish, yet we hope to see her about soon.

Fred Kifer is visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. Brown, at Onoville, N. Y. Mrs. E. Berlin visited her daughter, Mrs. T. P. Flynn, at Newmansville, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. M. F. Catlin and grandson, Kenneth Lee Davis, were callers on the hill one day the past week.

The numerous fox hounds of our vicinity are busy these days, no doubt, judging from the beautiful melodies that greet our ears, coming from hill and vale and resounding to the uttermost parts of the forest.

Mrs. John Taft and two children, of East Hickory, were on the hill Monday. Robert Grove is again sejourning among us. Rather think he has come to stay, Rob. thinks "there's no place like home."

Kelletrville.

Mrs. A. A. Ludwig of Titusville is visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Frampton.

Mrs. H. L. Davis spent several days in Oil City last week visiting Alice McCrea. Miss Katherine McMillen of Warren is visiting relatives here.

Edith Gayly of Mayburg spent Tuesday night with Maud Berlin.

Mary Harrington, who has been quite sick with pneumonia, is improving.

Goidia Hill was a Warren visitor Saturday.

Edna Zuendel visited friends at Minister over Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Russell is visiting in Warren.

Maude Berlin spent Sunday with her parents at Starr.

J. C. McKensie, one of our "old soldiers" of Newmansville, who has just returned from Gettysburg, is visiting his daughters, Mrs. W. E. Carbaugh and Mrs. J. P. Smith.

Lorraine Harkless, who has been quite sick for some time, is improving.

May Showers, who has been home for several days on account of blood poison in her hand, returned to her work here Thursday.

Mrs. A. H. Downing, Mrs. J. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Weller and son Rowe spent Sunday visiting friends at Golizna.

Nebraska.

Misses Anna Blausser and Beta Cole spent Saturday in Warren.

Dan Small is home from Pittsburg.

Mrs. Edwin Neal and sister, Miss Ella Klabbatz, spent a couple of days last week with their brother Karl at Tidoune.

Robert Shawkey, of Sigel, spent Sunday with Miss Anna Blausser.

Mrs. Henry Ledebur is visiting Mrs. Lyman Cook.

Misses Mary Thompson and Lulu Haugh were Tionesta visitors one day last week.

A surprise party was given Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Reed Weaver, in honor of his birthday. A large number were present and all reported a fine time.

Miss Ruth Wiant returned home Sunday from a week's visit at Crown.

There is some talk of a third room being added to our school. This is needed very badly and certainly would be a fine improvement.

The barge yard closed down Thursday for the season, having completed the contract of twenty-six barges.

Lockout Will Continue

Cotton Employes Refused to Enter-tain Secretary Askwith's Proposals. Manchester, Oct. 4.—The Cotton Employers' Federation has refused to entertain the proposals made by G. R. Askwith, secretary of the commercial and labor department of the board of trade, and the lockout of operatives will continue. Mr. Askwith had induced the operatives to agree to a compromise in regard to the strike at the Fern mill at Oldham.

The outstanding cause of the quarrel at this mill was the question whether George Howe, a grinder, whose discharge caused the original strike, should be reinstated at the Fern mill pending the arbitration of the dispute.

The operatives had insisted that he should be reinstated, but Sunday they agreed to be satisfied if he were given work in another mill. Mr. Askwith placed this proposal of the compromise before the masters and they declined to accept it.

OLD SKIRT CONTAINED $800

Woman Finds It in Street and Returns it to Neighbor.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Mrs. James Connelly of Spruce street, this city, because of her dislike for litter in the streets picked up an old skirt which was fluttering around in the wind and was about to consign it to an ash heap, when a roll of $800 in bills dropped from its folds.

The money which came to her in such a surprising manner, Mrs. Connelly surmised, after a little reflection, belonged to a neighbor, Mrs. Margaret Maher, who was burned out a few days ago, and whose household belongings, including the old skirt, were carried out of doors.

Mrs. Maher had not missed the money, but she readily identified it when Mrs. Connelly brought the roll in and dropped it on the table in front of her. She is poor, and had been a long time saving the $800. She thought the skirt was safe in a trunk until Mrs. Connelly told her about finding it in the street.
