Republican Ticket.

STATE. Governor, JOHN K. TENER, Washington County. Lieutenant Governor, JOHN M. REYNOLDS, Bedford County. Secretary of Internal Affairs, HENRY HOUCK, Lebanon County. State Treasurer, C. FRED WRIGHT, Susquehanna County. COUNTY. Congress, PETER M. SPEER, Venango County. State Senate, J. K. P. HALL, Elk County. Assembly, W. J. CAMPBELL, Tionesta Borough.

REPUBLICAN MEETINGS.

Chairman Randall has arranged to hold a series of Republican meetings throughout the county next week, and has fixed the following places and dates for the same:

- Cooksburg, Monday at the noon hour, October 17th. Clarion, Monday evening, Oct. 17th. Redelyffe, Tuesday at the noon hour, October 18th. Marienville, Tuesday evening, October 18th. Mayburg, Wednesday at the noon hour, October 19th. Kelletville, Wednesday evening, October 19th. Nebraska, Thursday at the noon hour, October 20th. West Hickory, Thursday evening, October 20th. At these meetings Hon. Peter M. Speer, Republican nominee for Congress in this district, and Wm. J. Campbell, Republican nominee for Assembly in Forest county, will be present. It is hoped that all voters and the public in general will turn out and meet these candidates and hear what they have to say on the issues before the people. You will find Mr. Speer a very entertaining, clean cut and ready speaker, perfectly frank, and abundantly able to give a good reason for the faith that is within him.

THREE kinds of accidents may be expected each day: Automobile, trolley car and aeroplane. The innocent bystander has no more show than the ultimate consumer.

PRESIDENT TAFT's speech to the National Republican League in New York was up to his best standard. It may not satisfy his critics, but it ought to satisfy his party and the country.

It is said that Secretary of Agriculture N. B. Critchfield, of Harrisburg, has ordered a long list of prosecutions in various parts of the state for the sale of adulterated feeding stuffs for livestock. The prosecutions are the result of analyses made by the division of chemistry.

We know not how the recording angel may look upon it, but we hold that when a newspaper man wants to get off for a day's fishing he is justified in stealing a little copy from his contemporaries. In such cases there should be both reciprocity and a community of interest.—Blizzard. You're right Brother, just help yourself.

NOTWITHSTANDING the hysterical predictions of Colonel Waterston to the effect that Theodore Roosevelt is planning to Mexicanize the United States with himself as the Diaz, you will discover that Colonel Roosevelt is for President Taft for re-election, and that Roosevelt will succeed Chauncey Depew as senator from New York, observes the observant Puxxy Spirit.

MR. GRIM, who has recently gained some notoriety by being nominated for governor on the Democratic ticket, evidently has a keen sense of humor. He said in a recent speech at Butler that he "felt confident of the election." Meaning thereby, of course, that he had every reason to believe that the election would occur—with the usual result. Probably adding mentally that Mr. Grim would be in the "also ran" class.—Puxxy Spirit.

In the opinion of State Highway Commissioner J. W. Hunter, of Harrisburg the decision of Judge F. M. Trexler, of Allentown, wherein he said a township must pay its share of the construction of a state road will do much toward clearing up disputes about the state. In this case the township tried to evade payment on the excuse that the road was not up to specification. The court holds that where no protest is made at the time of acceptance by the state officer, payment must be made. Over $100,000 will now be paid in various parts of the state.

THAT "editorial" from the Greenville Progress, with unmistakable Oil City earmarks, which is being distributed in circular form, is liable to have a contrary effect from that intended. The attempt to make a goat of Mr. Speer, the Republican nominee for congress, will probably prove unavailing.—Blizzard. Most surely it will. And in P. M. Speer the 28th Congressional district will have a clean, brainy representative. One who has no enemies to punish nor pets to reward, but who will devote his whole energy to the best interests and greatest welfare of all the people in his district.

STATE CANDIDATES VISIT COUNTY

A Well Attended and Very Enthusiastic Meeting at the Court House, Friday Afternoon.

Forest county was honored last Friday by a visit from the Republican State candidates, who arrived in Tionesta on the 11:00 o'clock train, having held a meeting at Titusville on the evening before. Mr. Tener the gubernatorial candidate came by way of Oil City in an automobile, having been called home to attend the centennial celebration at Washington Pa., and being unable to reach here on the regular train. He was accompanied by Walter Christy, the staff correspondent of the Pittsburgh Gazette Times, and by Harry S. McDevitt of the Philadelphia Press, who have been with the party since they started on their itinerary of the state. With the party was also Hon. P. M. Speer of Oil City, the popular Republican candidate for Congress in this district, and Wm. J. Campbell, Forest county's popular candidate for Assembly on the Republican ticket who joined the party at Irvineton.

At 2:30 p. m. the delegation marched to the court house where quite a large number had already assembled, and when the speaking began the handsome court room was comfortably filled, and a large and very enthusiastic audience faced the speakers, the meeting being graced by the presence of many ladies.

Chairman Randall called the meeting to order, and on account of limited time the customary organization was dispensed with, and the County Chairman introduced the several speakers, the first being the stalwart and handsome figure of Hon. John K. Tener. He stands six feet four inches, as straight as an arrow with a physique like Apollo. He received a wonderful ovation when he stepped to the front of the platform. He spoke but five minutes, but in that short space said more than some would in an hour. Among other things he said:

"Mr. Crim, the candidate for Governor on the Democratic ticket, has taken it upon himself to refute a statement of mine to the effect that Pennsylvania is appropriating more than any other state for educational purposes, and that $7,500,000 is being appropriated annually. Mr. Crim is quoted as saying the appropriation is $5,500,000, and is endeavoring to demonstrate my unfitness for office on such a meager pre-xt. This increased expenditure was advocated by Gov. Stuart when he was a candidate for governor, he having plainly stated that $5,500,000 was not sufficient. The following Legislature agreed with Gov. Stuart and the increase was allowed. It was also included in the last appropriation bill, and Mr. Crim voted for this bill. Therefore if he is quoted correctly, and I presume that he is, he evidently did not know what he was voting for.

"I am not an orator and I desire to say to you that if I am elected governor my administration will not be one of oratory, but one of business. I will endeavor to get 100 cents' value for every dollar of the people's money expended."

The next speaker was Hon. John M. Reynolds, candidate for Lieut. Governor, who took up the tariff for a brief talk, showing conclusively how the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania suffers from a free trade policy, and how every industry bums with prosperity under a protective tariff.

Hon. Peter M. Speer, the Republican nominee for Congress was next introduced, and judged by the spontaneous outburst of applause with which he received his nomination is most cordially approved by the people in this county. He cleared out talk and frank, open style captivated the whole audience which gave him very marked attention. The time was too short to enter upon an extended discussion of the issues involved in the campaign, and he would defer that until another date. He closed with this straightforward answer to some of his critics:

"I have been charged with being too friendly with the Standard Oil Company. This is absurd. The people of this locality know how my nomination came about and those who know me best fully understand I am not the tool of any man, set of men or any corporation, and if elected I will be my endeavor to represent the people of the district without favor or fealty. I am an attorney and I would not be much of a lawyer if I did not occasionally represent some corporation. If I am elected it will be my endeavor to represent every man, woman and child in the district. I will not represent any particular interest or interests, but will try to do my duty impartially and for the benefit of the district at large."

Perry A. Shanon, a neighbor and personal friend of Candidate Tener was next introduced, and for nearly half an hour had his audience with him every minute. He presented statistics showing how the finances of the State were handled with scrupulous care, and the disbursement of $27,000,000 was made to the schools, roads and charitable institutions. The county of Forest had paid to the State in the last fiscal year about $8,000, and in that same year had received from the State in return over $52,000, nearly six times as much as it had paid in. This fact was quite a revelation to those who heard it.

The last speaker, but by no means the least, was that of Prof. Henry Houck, nominee for Secretary of Internal Affairs, and who has so ably filled that office during the past four years. Mr. Houck is always happy before any audience, and this occasion was no exception to the rule. He had the large crowd in a roar of laughter from beginning to end. Having paid a visit to the school before going to the court house, the genial Professor, who has spent a lifetime in that work, paid a very high tribute to the efficiency of our schools under Principal Gill and his able assistant, Prof. J. O. Carson.

At the close of the speech making Chairman Randall invited the audience to shake hands with Governor-to-be Tener and his distinguished associates, and every one present took occasion to grasp the hand of the big hearted candidate and receive a kindly word of greeting.

For a comparatively impromptu affair the meeting was a pronounced success. Only a brief mention had been made of the coming of the candidates, because the hour at which they would arrive was uncertain and could not be definitely stated. Among those from out of town who attended the meeting and met the candidates were, K. L. Haugh, S. H. Secord and W. L. Thompson of Nebraska; Congressman Wheeler, Gus B. Evans, W. O. Fuellhart and N. P. Wheeler Jr., of Endeavor; Jonathan Albaugh of East Hickory.

LAYS SUICIDES TO WOMAN

Dr. Da Costa Says Her Invasion of Man's Field is a Step Toward Degeneracy.

Philadelphia, Oct. 11.—In a paper on "Suicide," read before the American Philosophical Society, Dr. John Chalmers Da Costa declared that the invasion of man's field of work by women has contributed largely to suicide in this country and added that this and other ills would increase if women persisted in abandoning the home for business. "If woman continues to invade man's calling she will pay a dreadful penalty in insanity and suicide and in the idiocy of her progeny, and she will wreck the chief hope of civilization—the clean, decent, happy home," said the physician. "The blatant and militant suffragette is well along on the highway of degeneration."

MINISTER AT BOXING BOUT

Surprises Congregation and His Resignation Follows.

Pittsburg, Oct. 11.—Announcement (that the Rev. D. A. Green, pastor of Manchester Presbyterian church had resigned was followed by much speculation as to the cause. This was set at rest last night when it was learned that several weeks ago Mr. Green was the guest of ex-Sheriff A. C. Gumbert at a six-round boxing exhibition. On all sides of the minister, who was close to the fighters, were clubmen, gamblers, pugilists and men about town.

When the rumor spread that Mr. Green was at a prize fight, and as a result he will quit the church. He says his visit to the boxing bout is not the cause of his going, although the elders of the church are silent on that question.

IRON MINE TO BE REOPENED

E. & G. Brooke Company to Sink Shaft at Falls of French Creek.

Pottstown, Pa., Oct. 11.—The E. & G. Brooke company of Birdsboro, owners of the St. Peter's and Falls of French Creek iron mine, 12 miles from here, in Chester county, are planning to sink new shafts and reopen the mine, which has not been worked for many years.

A rich vein of ore of the magnetic variety, yielding about 50 per cent pure iron, runs near the surface. The shafts will be sunk near the old ones, and the ore will be shipped to the Brooke furnaces at Birdsboro over the Elverson branch of the Wilmington & Northern railroad.

A large number of men will be employed.

GREAT FAIR FOR READING

Business Men Plan Movement to Reorganize Agricultural Society.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 11.—A movement is on foot among business men to purchase the Reading fair grounds, reorganize the Berks County Agricultural society and give Reading a big fair on an elaborate scale next year. About $15,000 cash will be required, and of this amount $10,000 has been subscribed.

The plan contemplates the purchase of the property at about $35,000, to be secured by a mortgage to the present owners. Members of the agricultural society refused to discuss the plan, but admit that there is a movement on foot for a better fair. A speedway for horses and a mile track for the promotion of automobile races is needed, and efforts will be made to provide both.

PLAN TO REVIVE FARMS

Schuylkill County Capitalists Believe Enterprise Profitable.

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 11.—A soil analysis by the United States government of abandoned farms in this section has brought such easy means within reach for reclaiming these lands that many of them will be worked again next year. The organization of a corporation of Schuylkill county capitalists for this purpose was completed last night. Assurances have been received from soil experts that the particular elements and fertilizers needed for most of these lands are very cheap and plentiful, and, with the enormous prices now being charged for farm products, it is believed revived tracts can be worked with profit.

SLAIN IN THE ROAD

Waylaid and Robbed of Funds of a Benefit Society.

Greensburg, Pa., Oct. 11.—Highway robbers waylaid Steven Bortosh, president of a Slavish benefit society, stabbed him in the neck and, after a struggle, left him dead on a lonely road near Mt. Pleasant during the night. A trail of blood for nearly 200 yards bore evidence that the man had struggled before meeting with sick benefit funds of his society, which he is believed to have carried.

Chestnut Hunter Hurt.

Lebanon, Pa., Oct. 11.—Lee, an 18-year-old son of Harry Dettra, a photographer, was perhaps fatally injured yesterday afternoon in a fall from a chestnut tree at Cleona. He is at the Lebanon hospital suffering from a crushed skull, fractured right arm and internal injuries.
