

Table with columns for 1910 and 1909, showing election results for various positions like Sen., Hon., etc.

Republican Ticket.

STATE. Governor, JOHN K. TENER, Washington County. Lieutenant Governor, JOHN M. REYNOLDS, Bedford County. Secretary of Internal Affairs, HENRY HOUCK, Lebanon County. State Treasurer, C. FRED WRIGHT, Susquehanna County. COUNTY. Congress, PETER M. SPEER, Venango County. State Senate, J. K. P. HALL, Elk County. Assembly, W. J. CAMPBELL, Tionesta Borough.

Vote for "Billy" Campbell for Assembly. He has the right stuff in him and will make a good member of the legislature.

Since Governor Stuart has taken the stump for Tener it is more than probable the mud batteries will be turned on him too. But he was vilified the same as his coming successor, and it never phased him.

When the Democrats were last in power in the United States a million men walked the streets of our great cities begging for work. They did not say: "Here is my labor. I want to sell it at so much a day." They said: "Give me anything you please for my labor. My wife and babies are hungry." Do you remember?

Yet a few more days and the campaign will have ended. Will you feel better, Mr. Republican, if you vote against your party and then, after election, hear the Democrats and other opponents of the party jeering at you because they have beaten you at the polls? Will you think it over. It is always the "citizen's opportunity" before election, if the Democrats tell the story, and "We did it!" after election, if there is any success for the foes of your party.

The state supreme court at Pittsburgh Wednesday decided that State Treasurer Charles Frederick Wright will hold his position for the full term, which expires in 1913. An election for a successor will take place in 1912. Wright was appointed by Governor Stuart to succeed J. A. Stober, elected in 1909, but who died before qualifying. All the political parties have nominated candidates for state treasurer to be voted for in November and the decision will necessitate changes in the tickets. The quo warranto bill alleged that no vacancies existed because of the appointment by the governor. Secretary of the Commonwealth McAfee held that Wright was appointed to serve only until the first election following, when the vacancy could be filled.

The form of the official ballot for the November election has been made up at the office of the secretary of the commonwealth, showing seven state tickets in the field and having three columns. The first column will contain the squares for straight tickets, there being a square for a straight ticket for each of the following parties: Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist, Industrialist, Key-stone and Workingmen's League. The second column will contain three blocks with the names of the candidate for governor, lieutenant governor and secretary of internal affairs, the nominations for each office being in a block with spaces for the voter to mark after each name. In the third column there will be blocks for congressional, senatorial and assembly nominations arranged in the same way. Under the decisions of the Supreme Court there will be no nominations for state treasurer certified to the counties.

MONDAY, at Philadelphia John K. Tener, Republican candidate for governor, swore out a warrant for the arrest of E. A. Van Valkenburg, editor of the Philadelphia North American, charging him with criminal libel. The warrant was not served, but counsel for Mr. Tener sent a letter to Mr. Van Valkenburg informing him of the action the gubernatorial candidate had taken and notifying him that a hearing in the case would be held on Friday. Later in the day there were also rumors that Mr. Tener would begin a civil action for heavy damages against the newspaper edited by Mr. Van Valkenburg, but this rumor could not be verified. In this action Mr. Tener gives notice that, candidate or no candidate, he will not stand to be lied about and traduced by a gang of bloodthirsty character assassins, and the whole state, regardless of party affiliations will honor and respect him for the stand he has taken. A lie will outrun the truth a thousand times, and while Mr. Tener has made and may continue to make the most straightforward and convincing denials of the slanders published by these dastardly muddlingers, they persistently keep it up, knowing that the truth cannot overtake the lies. And so it is that the people will heartily endorse his action in bringing his traducers before a bar of justice that the truth may be brought out to the full extent. No honest man believes that John K. Tener has been engaged in any scheme to defraud his fellow citizens, and such as some would like to make these falsehoods serve as a pretext for voting against him, other excuses will have to be conjured up. This vilification campaign is boomeranging terribly, and is bringing thousands of honest men to Mr. Tener's support because of their love of fair play and decency in politics.

Campaigning In The County.

A well attended and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held at East Hickory, Thursday evening last, at which the local candidates were present, as well as other local speakers. Congressman-to-be Speer made one of his characteristic incisive speeches that carried conviction to every hearer in the audience and impressed all with the belief that in him the Republicans had a candidate who could easily take care of the interests of the 28th district in the halls of Congress. A. C. Brown, Esq., and Judge Samuel D. Irwin were also among the speakers of the evening and both acquitted themselves to the satisfaction of their audience and were frequently interrupted by enthusiastic applause. Throughout the meeting was a pronounced success, leaving a splendid impression on the assembly, and it can be set down as a fact that the community will return a good vote for the whole ticket on the 8th of November.

The Endeavor band was present and enlivened the occasion with some of the delectable music which the boys are in the habit of producing. At Kelleysville, on the evening previous, Wednesday, a fine meeting was also held, the audience being very attentive to what Mr. Speer had to say concerning the issues before the people in this campaign. The candidates were very cordially received and were made to feel that they were in the house of their friends. The Republicans of Kelleysville are alive to the situation and will be right on hand when the voting is done, as they always are. Here also the town's crack musical organization, the concert band, enlivened the meeting with a number of their best selections, a feature which lent charm and interest to the otherwise happy occasion.

Mr. Speer expressed great satisfaction at the very cordial receptions accorded the party wherever they went, and said he would be pleased to spend a month among the good people of Forest county, but the duties of the campaign compelled him to visit other parts of the district and he felt safe in leaving the matter with the voters, and he firmly believed that the 8th of November would see the party again loyal and victorious in Forest as well as all the other counties of the district.

Splendid Endorsement of P. M. Speer.

The kind of an endorsement that helps a candidate for public office is one that comes voluntarily from a man of high character. Such an endorsement has come to Peter M. Speer, Republican candidate for Congress. The endorser is Prof. George H. Lamb, who was a classmate of Mr. Speer for two years at Allegheny College and who has written to the editor of the Mercer Dispatch and Republican praising the Republican candidate. Prof. Lamb is a native of Mercer county and was formerly principal of McElwain Institute at New Lebanon and of the Mercer public schools. For several years he has been at the head of the Carnegie library at Braddock. His letter is as follows:

"Braddock, Pa., Oct. 18, 1910. "Editor Dispatch: Will you kindly give me a little space in your valuable paper to tell my old friends and neighbors in Mercer county what I know of your candidate for Congress, Hon. P. M. Speer. Peter and I were classmates during our freshman year at Allegheny College in '82 and '83. Like myself, he didn't have any more money than he needed in those days, and at the end of the year he had to stop until he could gather up the needed. Later he went to Westminster College, and still later to Washington and Jefferson, where he graduated in 1887.

"In college Speer was one of the good, substantial, hard-working, honest kind. Nothing showy, nothing done for effect, no playing to the galleries, but good, honest work every day. In Olney's third part geometry, under Dr. Goff, the whole book, consisting of original demonstrations without explanations or geometrical figures of any kind, the class soon came to know that when Speer didn't have them, nobody could do them. The same was true of his Latin and Greek and all other studies. Speer's room-mate was Rickenbrode, now a prominent Methodist minister, and the way Speer and Rickenbrode would come up with their Homer and their Horace was an inspiration to many a fellow.

"I was therefore not the least surprised, after a quarter of a century, to learn that Peter Speer was the Hon. P. M. Speer, a man of distinction in his own county, an honest man. If the people of the 28th district want to be represented by a fire-brand, something spectacular, something that will make a big noise, they don't want to vote for Speer. But if they want a man to represent them in Congress who is not afraid of honest work, a man who will go to the bottom of every question, a man who will have the courage of his convictions, who will take a stand and hold it because he has investigated and knows he is right, they will find such a man in Hon. P. M. Speer, and they will do themselves credit in electing such a man to represent them.

"Very truly,
"GEORGE H. LAMB"

A VOTE for Wm. J. Campbell is a vote to send a man to the legislature who will be no man's man, but who will be guided solely by the will of the people who sent him there. Who has both the wisdom to know the needs of the people and the strength of character to stand up for their rights. Mr. Campbell is a self-made man, rising from a poor boy to a successful business man by pure pluck, hard work and an indomitable will. A staunch Republican from the day he cast his first vote, and one who will be found loyal to his party when his honor or integrity are assailed by foes without or within. He can be depended upon to vote for a Republican United States Senator who in turn will guard the interests of the great industrial state in the Union against the free trade bards who would destroy our industries and stop every wheel in the state if they could. Do not be deceived or lead into giving complimentary votes for the opposition, who will jeer and "grope" over you after you have helped them into office. No Republican ever gave aid to the enemy or aided in the election of an opponent that did not live to regret his action, and that very soon after.

Congressional Elections.

The choice of the voters this fall in every Congressional district is narrowed down to a simple selection of a furtherance of Republican progress or the substitution of Democratic obstruction. It is not the question of method or detail, for that we can well trust to those elected to work out for themselves at the proper time and place. It matters very little to the general voter who will be selected, chairman of a certain committee, or how that selection will be made, provided it is made by the party whose principles will be carried out by that committee in the framing of a bill which will look to the adoption of a progressive law, a law that shall benefit all the people without regard to class or section. It is truly as President Taft said in a recent speech:

"No one can read the list of measures actually passed and those proposed by the national Republican party and not admit that the party is progressive in the highest degree. It is a list to be proud of. The extraordinary achievements of this Congress may fairly be said to be part of a great Republican movement. It is not the work of the Executive alone, or of Congress alone. It is not the work of one man, or of one faction. As all shared in the work, so we all must share in the satisfaction of accomplishment. It is the work of Republicans. It marks the rising tide of progress that began at the end of a Democratic panic when William McKinley was our leader and that continued throughout the two administrations of Theodore Roosevelt.

"It is peculiarly a Republican distinction that our party has been able to place on the statute books far-reaching remedial legislation touching the very vitals of our social and economic structure without involving the country in financial disaster. "A party of true progress is not a party of radicalism. It is not a party of ultra-conservatism. A progressive Republican is one who recognizes existing and concrete evils and who is in favor of practical and definite steps to eradicate them." Surely this sentiment, so happily expressed by President Taft, can be agreed upon by a united Republican party throughout the country. For, as opposed to the Republican progress, is the menace of the Democratic party—checking and nullifying the much-wished-for progress.

AVIATORS DO SOME STUNTS

Ten Aeroplanes at One Time in Air at Belmont Park Meet. New York, Oct. 25.—Ten aeroplanes in the air all at once—a record flock for American atmosphere—was the sky view offered to the Belmont park grandstands yesterday, the third day of the international aviation tournament. Following close upon this spectacle, Armstrong Drexel climbs in his Blériot until his barograph registered 7,100 feet, which establishes a new American altitude record.

Courtesy of Lesseps carried Miss Grace McKenzie of Toronto, who is said to be the count's fiancée, around the shorter course of 2 1/2 kilometers. Incidentally the crowds at the meet voted Hubert Latham's Antoinette model the most imposing of all air craft. It soared evenly, majestically, with far stretched wings. At twilight Charles K. Hamilton shot across a saffron sky for two circuits of the course in his Hamiltonian, as he calls his racing biplane of the Curtiss type. It was Hamilton's first appearance on the course, but as his aeroplane is equipped with an engine of about 110 horsepower, the most powerful aeroplane engine in existence, he did not dare "let her out" on the short course.

Undecided Whether to Appeal.

London, Oct. 25.—It has not yet been decided whether an appeal shall be taken to the new criminal court against the death sentence imposed on Dr. Crippen last Saturday. Arthur Newton, Crippen's solicitor, has applied to the home office for permission to visit the condemned man at Pentonville prison. If the permission is granted, Mr. Newton and Crippen will hold a consultation as to the advisability of lodging an appeal.

Another Great Lake Found.

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—The announcement of the discovery of another great lake in the Canadian Northwest is contained in a letter received by P. W. Druard of Windsor, Ont., from his son, William F. Druard, now in Edmonton, Indians arriving in Edmonton from the Far North brought a story that a party of government surveyors have discovered a new lake supposed to be nearly as large as Lake Superior.
