Rugs, Carpets and Interior Decorations.

(Second Floor.)

We introduce for the fall season 1910 the celebrated

Whittall's Rugs and Carpets.

Representing the highest attainment in rug weaving, possessing all the beauty of a Persian Rug at about one-fourth its cost.

We can appreciate the pleasure of owning a beautiful bit of Oriental art and color. But how different is the Oriental of today, which are mostly crude in color. If they are soft and old in appearance, it is because they have been washed in acids, which will eventually so rot them that they will fall to pieces.

May we invite you to see the copies of them made by the famous Whittall mills right in our own country!

Whittall's Anglo-Persian Rugs.

The finest, most artistic Wilton Rugs made in America. Size 9x12 feet, $55.

Whittall's Royal Worcester Rugs.

Superior quality Wilton Rugs at popular prices. Size 9x12 feet, $40.

Whittall's Childema Brussels Rugs

Are noted for their durable qualities. Size 9x12 feet, $30.

TRIED TO KILL GUERRA

Commander-in-Chief of Cuban Army Shot by Policeman.

Attempt to Kill Cuban Commander Has Created Intense Excitement, the General Belief Being That It Was the Outcome of a Political Conspiracy to Remove Him—Would-Be Assassin Thought He Had Killed the General—Another Officer Seriously Shot While Defending Guerra.

The condition of General Pino Guerra, commander-in-chief of the Cuban army, who was shot in Havana by a national policeman, is satisfactory. He is now in a camp hospital.

The attempt to kill Guerra has created intense excitement, the general belief being that it was the outcome of a political conspiracy to remove him. It is argued that it was suspicious that he was called to the palace last night and was dismissed by President Gomez at the moment when the would-be assassin was waiting outside. The man who did the shooting thought he had killed Guerra.

When he was pursued he sought refuge in the Fuerza barracks, the residence of General Montegudo, commander of the rural guard. The barracks are only half a block from the palace. When he was stopped on the drawbridge the man told the sentry that he must see General Montegudo, but the sentry would not permit him to pass and the pursuing policeman, who had seen the crime, came up and made the arrest.

In 1905, when General Gomez was governor of Santa Clara, the Lucha repeatedly accused him of the assassination of certain men who were found murdered, alleging that General Montegudo was his instrument.

It is generally believed that he has for a long time wished to eliminate Guerra and make Montegudo supreme. A story was circulated some time ago that Guerra, learning that the president had such intention, told Gomez, if he attempted it, he would march to the palace with 3,000 men and remove him as a president, whose guilt was unquestionable.

The condition of the policeman who was shot while defending Guerra is very serious.

GAME PRESERVE SET ON FIRE

Outlaw Hunters Shoot Elk and Deer as They Escape From Park.

For the third time within a space of three years the large game preserve of Chester W. Chapin at Glen Spey, Sullivan county, N. Y., was set on fire. Great droves of deer and elk rushed from the preserve to escape the flames and many of them fell easy prey to the hunters.

Outlaw hunters in order to drive the deer from the park have started these fires which have done many thousands of dollars damage to the park land and burned to death many deer and elk. It is said that a hundred men are fighting the fire.

PASTOR WEDS SECRETLY

Steals March on Daughter Who Set Example by Eloping.

Rev. James Pierce, 61 years old, and for many years a Quaker minister at Dublin, Ind., in the absence of Mrs. Arthur Conner, his daughter, stole away to Hazelwood, Hendrick county, where he secretly married Miss Celia Leechman, a rich Quaker maiden of 47 years.

Mrs. Conner herself eloped to marry Arthur Conner, a prominent semi-professional baseball player, several years ago, and was chastised when her father followed her example.

SCHWAB TO BUILD HOTEL

Proposed $600,000 Structures For Employees and Others.

The Bethlehem Steel company of Bethlehem, Pa., is giving a great deal of attention to the appropriations for extensions in 1911, which will amount to about $5,000,000, including shops, storage houses, assembling buildings, coke plant and blast furnaces.

This amount does not provide for a $600,000 hotel which President Schwab proposes to erect for South Bethlehem, plans for which have been prepared.

HOPE OF SAFETY ABANDONED

Two Other Schooners Undoubtedly Lost in Late Hurricane.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 25.—All hope of the safety of the schooners Heironymus and Otis has been abandoned. Diligent inquiry here and from other ports failed to bring any tidings of either vessel. As to the Otis, the vessel is owned by Captain Clinton, on Pascagoula.

There seems to have been a misunderstanding as to the destination of the vessel. It was stated that the Otis sailed out of Moss Point, Miss., for Havana. Since the vessel sailed out of Moss Point, not a word has been heard from it.

At the office of Heironymus Bros., owners of the Heironymus, it was stated that no tidings had been received from Captain Summerville or members of the crew.

Fears are now entertained that all perished in the hurricane. It is feared here that the British schooner George A. Lowry, from Truxillo, Honduras, for Mobile, with a cargo of coconuts, has been lost in the terrible hurricane of last week. The Lowry is now nine days overdue.

ENDS HIS LIFE WITH GAS

Depressed Man Inhales Illuminant through Newspaper Tube.

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 25.—William Rising, aged 35, a wire drawer from Bangor, Me., where his wife and three children reside, was found a suicide in his apartments. He had made a tube out of a newspaper, and, lying in bed, inhaled gas.

Rising suffered from nervous prostration and was depressed over the death of a man with whom he boarded. He went into hysterics at the funeral. A wife and three children, who are in Bangor, survive Rising.

CHECKS WERE WORTHLESS

Normal School Graduate Charged with Attempt to Defraud.

York, Pa., Oct. 25.—B. H. Fabs, a young graduate of the State Normal school at Shippensburg, was arrested, charged with having passed worthless checks on residents of Red Lion.

Fabs had informed leading citizens of the borough that he intended to put in operation a knitting mill at that place. Upon the strength of this it is charged he obtained money on his checks.

BABY SUFFOCATED TO DEATH IN SUIT CASE

Woman Gags It, Wraps Head and Leaves Grip in Doorway.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—A baby girl, about 24 hours old, was abandoned yesterday morning at Fifteenth and Filbert streets by a woman who, after trying various means to murder the infant, placed a gag in its mouth, bound a heavy shawl about its head, and threw the little form in an old suitcase, packing a blanket and skirt on the child's head.

From marks on the infant's body, the police are confident that the woman who abandoned the baby tried to choke it to death, but lost heart while in the act. Scratches were found about the face and body of the babe and its chest was badly bruised.

The suitcase in which the child was found was of cheap imitation leather and was bound with a rope. Detectives are searching for a woman with pale face and large eyes. A woman of this description was seen acting suspiciously about the doorway in which the child was found.

Cloth Prices Advance.

New York, Oct. 25.—Advancing prices in cloths to meet the advanced price of cotton have continued. Ticking, denims, plaids, chevrons, cotton blankets, brown and bleached sheetings, duck, cotton comforters, batings, etc., are higher.

Fatal Knife Duel at Party.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 25.—In a duel with knives last night at a party near Cannelton, Ind., between Conrad Berlin, aged 20, and Andrew Bynum, aged 20, Berlin was stabbed four times and will die.

DEMENTED MAN LOST

Hunters and Woodsmen Searching Adirondacks for Unfortunate.

Somewhere in the vicinity of Honnedaga lake, in the Adirondack mountains, a man whose identity is a mystery, but who is presumably a deer hunter from some city and who unquestionably is demented as a result of exposure and starvation, is wandering while scores of woodsmen and hunters have formed a great human net and are combing the forest for some trace of the unfortunate.

The man was first encountered at dusk Wednesday by Game Protector Roy Crandall, who, while near Swanson's Dam about 2½ miles from Honnedaga lake.

The man was eating from an old tin can, which he evidently found. He could not utter his name, but when given a piece of paper he managed to write "John Schmelmer."

Crandall prepared to lead the way to Honnedaga club, but the wanderer refused to go with him. The warden went to the club house and reported the case there. A searching party was at once organized, but up to the present time no trace of the man has been found other than a trail which indicated that he had, after leaving Crandall, crossed West Canada creek.

KELLOGG DENIES RUMOR

Wellknown Lawyer Will Not Accept Office of Solicitor General.

Frank B. Kellogg, after a call on the president at the White House, made it clear to the newspaper that he would not accept the office of solicitor general to succeed the late Lloyd W. Bowers, if it were offered to him.

There has been much speculation as to the probability of Mr. Kellogg's appointment and it is understood in official circles that he could have the office if he would accept it. Mr. Kellogg explained that he called on the president merely to pay his respects.

TRIPPED OVER THE CAT

Woman's Death May Follow Chase After Rat.

Minersville, Pa., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Falk tripped over a pet cat, which ran in front of her while chasing a rat, fell downstairs and sustained probably fatal injuries.

She is suffering from concussion of the brain and has been unconscious eight hours.

Many Attend Hill's Funeral Services.

Albany, Oct. 25.—Democrats of prominence from one end of the state to the other assembled here yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral services in memory of the late Governor David B. Hill. The members of the Democratic state committee and of the Albany county Democratic committee attended the funeral in a body, while there was a representative delegation from the Democratic Editorial Association of the State.
