Now everybody take a kick at Teddy who is always on the firing line and ready,-who is seasoned through and through, and will not feel it at all, if for the football season he is utilized as ball .-

THE majority for Tener over Berry in this State, according to complete but unofficial figures, is 34,194. In this count one county is missing, Wayne, which is estimated to have given Berry 600 to 800 majority.

SPEAKING of Roosevelt's critics, the Buffalo Express says before many months have passed they may have occasion to remark that "The corpse has got out of the coffin and is dancin' a jig on the lid."

It is now asserted that Congressman Champ Clark's real name was originally won't they bring up against a man the minute he shows signs of becoming Warren prominent.

WITH an eye turned in the direction o the "Interests" who have representatives not a thousand miles from the mouth o Oil Creek, the Blizzard remarks: "In some quarters there is more joy over the outcome in New York than there would have been over the success of the Republicans in every other state."

BOTH New York and Ohio will elect Democratic United States Senators at the New York has run his jokes and afterdinner speeches till their pretty much threadbare, so there's nothing greatly to be regretted at the change after all.

THE greatest loss sustained by the Republicans in the United States Senate is the defeat of Senator Beveridge of Indiana, whose successor will be John W. Kerr, Bryan's last running mate. The Republicans also lose a Senator in each New Jersey, West Virginia and Connecticut, but none of these is to be considered with loss the of the brilliant young Indiana Senator to the country.

"IT is evident that the result of the election of a Democratic house of representatives of the national congress has already borne truit, as may be inferred from the fact that those who are posted say the price of pork is due for a drop and a big one," shouts an exuberant Democratic exchange. To the farmer who helped along with the big Democratic victory, and who has a few fat porkers to sell, nothing could be more happifying than this bit of news, unless it were a report to the effect that the price of about every other commodity that he has to sell is about to take a big slump-on account of the Democratic victory.

'Don'T advertise a prepaid letter bearing the sender's name and address on the outside, but send it back to the writer if of yesterday's defeat, the next President uncalled for at the postoffice of delivery." This is an order of Postmaster General Hitchcock issued Thursday dealing generally with the problem of undelivered letters. Whenever these letters bearing the sender's name and addresses are directed to street and number in cities, or to general delivery or for delivery by rural carriers, they shall be returned to senders within five days; but uncalled for letters in offices of the fourth class and not intended for delivery by rural carrier will be returned in fifteen days without additional charge.

In New York State.

The Republicans of New York State are swallowing their defeat gracefully, as all good Americans should, and are consoling themselves with the reflection that they were in the right if they were not in the majority.

The Buffalo Express gets nearer the sensible conclusion as to the causes and reasons than any of them when it says;

"There was a heavy snow throughout New York State yesterday. The Republican farty was snowed under. It has happened before. Governor Stuart Proclaims Thanksgiving.

Governor Edwin S. Stuart issued his Thanksgiving proclamation at Harrisburg Friday, using these words:

"In accordance with a well-established custom, I, Edwin S. Stuart, governor of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby set apart Thursday, November 24, 1910, as a day for thanksgiving and prayer. "The enstom of naming a day for special thanksgiving and prayer has been observed for many years; and is one of the most beautiful heritages of our national life. It is therefore, meet and proper that in the midst of our activities we should pause to acgnowledge our dependence upon the giver of all good things, and to render to him our grateful thanks for the material and other blessings vouchsafed unto us.

"We have been favored with bountiful harvests, and with freedom from plague, pestilence and famine. Our schools, libraries and educational facilities have inspired and elevated our people. Our agencies for fighting disease and preserving the health of the people have been active and efficient. But we should recognize that over and above the power of man a divine being shapes our destinies, and that his wise and loving care has directed our steps into the paths of peace, prosperity and happiness,

"On that day let us refrain from our usual vocations, and, meeting in our on the homes, churches and places of worship, give thanks to Almighty God for his manifold mercies and blessings. Let us also remember to give aid and comfort by word and deed to the sick, the afflicted and the unfortunate."
