 —A number of changes have taken place in a few of the schools of the county during the past two weeks. Miss Anna M. Burnham has resigned as teacher of Room No. 2 in the Clarington school, in West township, and her place is taken by Miss Mamie Engdahl, teacher of the Fagundus school, in Harmony township. Miss Ida Fones, of Tionesta, has taken charge of the Fagundus school.
 —Fred Hersh, of Parker, Pa., a well known baseball pitcher who has played here on several occasions, met with a gunning accident last Wednesday by which the third finger of his left hand was torn off at the middle joint. As he is a right-handed twirler the accident will not seriously interfere with his playing.
 He played with the Des Moines, Iowa team the last season and will be with the same team next year.
 —The court, with Associate Judges Hill and Aul on the bench, on Thursday canvassed the vote of Forest county cast at the recent election. At the conclusion of the count Sheriff Maxwell was appointed Congressional return judge, and John T. Carson appointed for the Senatorial district. The former met the other judges of the district at Warren yesterday, and the latter took the returns to Lock Haven, where the judges of the district met yesterday.
 —Hon. W. J. Campbell, our Assemblyman-elect, desires in this public way to thank the many friends who gave him loyal support on Tuesday, the 8th instant, making possible his election as Forest county's representative in the legislature of Pennsylvania. In return Mr. Campbell promises his best efforts in representing the interests of his constituency at Harrisburg, and hopes by faithful attention to his duties to prove that their confidence has not been misplaced.
 —The condensed report of the Oil City Trust Company to the Commissioner of Banking, under date of Nov. 9th, is published in this issue. The statement is the largest and one of the strongest ever published in Northwestern Pennsylvania.
 Capital, surplus and profits aggregate $841,791.00; deposits are over $3,000,000, and assets exceed $3,850,000.00. The statement speaks well, not only for the management of the company, but for the financial condition of the oil country.
 —The open season for shooting deer is now on and will extend to the last day of the month. The present snow makes it especially propitious for capturing this noble game, and it wouldn't be surprising to hear that some had been slaughtered. Killing them with other than a rifle, or gun propelling a single ball, is prohibited, meaning thereby that no man may shoot a deer with a shotgun, and no person may kill more than one in a season, and that one must be a male and have horns. The fact is, the law should forever prohibit the killing of deer in Pennsylvania. The few specimens of this grand forest ranger that still remain should be allowed to roam at will.
 —The home of Jonathan Harp and wife, who lived so many years in South Brookville, on Pickering street, is practically broken up. This fact was brought to our mind one day last week, when we heard of the marriage of their only remaining daughter to Samuel R. Brosius. They lived in Brookville about forty years.
 Now they are both dead, and all their children are married. One daughter and her husband are to remain in the old home till next Spring, when they will go to their own home, and the home the children knew so long will be entirely broken up, and what belonged to father and mother will be divided among the children. Two sons are married and live in Marienville, one daughter lives in Oil City, one in Brookville, and one near Stratton.—Brookville Democrat.
 —The recent fall of snow, beginning on Friday last and continuing almost without interruption till today, is the heaviest that this section has witnessed in many years at this season. It is estimated that not less than 20 inches fell during that period, and in some places the measurements ran to as high as 14 inches in depth. This reminds a writer in the Erie Times that "in 1880, thirty years ago, the day Garfield was elected president, there was two feet of snow on the ground along the lake shore and three feet at Watsburg, Waterford and Edinboro. It came on top of muddy roads. The writer driving from Swan-ville to Fairview to vote for Garfield, couldn't drive faster than a walk as the cutter runners cut through the snow to the mud. The snow all disappeared in two or three days."
 —In the Venango county court, on Tuesday last week, the following cases of interest to our readers were decided:
 In the case of An Osgood, administratrix of John R. Osgood, vs. Alfred Sperry and Quinton Jamieson and the Benton Lumber Company, Judge Criswell holds that there should be an accounting between the administratrix and Sperry and Jamieson as surviving partners of John R. Osgood in the Benton Lumber Company. In the case of the same plaintiff vs. Alfred Sperry, surviving and liquidating partner of John R.
 Osgood in the firm of J. R. Osgood & Co. and Quinton Jamieson, Judge Criswell finds that the Benton Lumber Company and J. R. Osgood & Co. are not identical and that Jamieson is not a member of the latter firm. There should be an accounting of the court holds, between the plaintiff, as administratrix, and the defendant, Sperry.

 Misses Haugh at Nebraska.
 —Miss Hulda Randall, of East Brady, Pa., came up Monday evening for a visit with her brother, Hon. C. A. Randall.
 —Mrs. A. W. Rimer of Rimersburg, visited her mother, Mrs. Mary A. Carringer, the past week, returning home yesterday.
 —Bert Emminger, who brought in the returns from Duhring last week, gave the REPUBLICAN office a welcome call while in town.
 —H. V. Mathews was down from Mayburg Wednesday with the election returns from his precinct, and found time to give us a pleasant call while here.
 —Rev. W. O. Calhoun went to Buffalo last week and on Thursday returned with Mrs. Calhoun, who had sufficiently recovered from a severe operation to endure the trip. She is progressing well toward complete recovery.
 —John Cunningham, the Kellektiville mail man, has been suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia since Saturday at his home in Kellektiville, but was improving at last accounts. Glenn Shaw, of Kellektiville, is substituting for him.
 —Harry Lovel, who had for some time been employed on the Reck, Cooper & Co. lease, on Cropp Hill, is moving to Muzette, Green township, where he has taken a pumping job for the Forest Gas Co., which has a nice production in that field.
 —Howard Lusher went to Brookston yesterday morning near which place he will be engaged at drilling for the Aul Oil & Gas Co., which has on well on the property and expects to drill several more. A number of Tionesta parties are interested in the lease.
 —Ex-County Commissioner Herman Blum has been lying seriously ill at his home on German Hill for several days, his trouble being in the nature of pleuro-pneumonia. His physician, Dr. Dunn, feels encouraged at his progress and believes that Mr. Blum will recover.
 —Rev. Boyd F. Williams of Embleton will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning and evening at the usual hours. As Mr. Williams has preached here on former occasions this simple announcement will doubtless be sufficient to insure a good attendance.
 —Rev. J. F. Scherer of the Endeavor Presbyterian church, very ably filled Rev. Mr. Bailey's pulpit here Sunday evening, a good congregation hearing him and greatly appreciating his excellent discourse. Mr. Scherer is popular with Tionesta audiences, and we hope he can come down often.
 —Rev. H. A. Bailey's former congregation at Callensburg, Clarion county, remembered him with a post card shower last Thursday, when he received an expression of sympathy and good wishes from every member of the congregation.
 And his friends can rest assured that the remembrances are thoroughly appreciated.
 —R. D. Berlin, who has been a member of Warren's efficient police force for the past seven months, handed in his resignation last evening. While Mr. Berlin has only been on the force a short time, he has made an excellent officer, and has made a host of friends who dislike to see him leave.—Warren Times, Wednesday.
 He is a son of the late Eli Berlin of Whig Hill, this county.
 —G. D. Small was agreeably surprised Thursday evening at his home, 106 Jefferson street, by 45 of his friends who were aware that the natal day of Mr.
 Small had rolled around again in the time cycle and who came prepared to assist in its celebration. Dancing, cards, music and luncheon were events. A handsome reading lamp was presented to the host.—Oil City Derrick, Saturday.
 —Mrs. J. R. Morgan and Mrs. S. R.
 Maxwell returned Saturday evening, after a three weeks' visit with relatives in Pittsburgh and Dravosburg, Pa. They were accompanied by Earl Maxwell, who had been visiting relatives there for the past five weeks. While in Pittsburgh Mrs. Maxwell underwent an operation at the South Side Hospital for advancement of the internal rectus of the left eye, a trouble of long standing. The operation was performed by Dr. Chas. K. Owens, assisted by Dr. Markie, and promises to be entirely successful in remedying the trouble.
High Honors for Tionesta Boy.
 The following information, which comes to us under date of Nov. 10th, will be received with much pleasure by the many friends of our young townsman, in whom we all feel so just pride:
 "Edward Glenn Henry, a Tionesta boy, has won high honors at the University of Pennsylvania. The faculty of the Medical Department announced today that he stood third on the list of the twenty-five honor men of the Senior Class. There are 154 men in the class which means that Mr. Henry is an exceptionally brilliant student.
 "Mr. Henry's average through the first three years' work was 93.2. From the first twenty-five men are chosen the resident physicians for the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, an honor much coveted by the medical students. Judging by Mr. Henry's standing he has an excellent chance of winning an appointment."
Notice to Jurors.
 All Grand and Petit Jurors summoned to appear at the November Term of Forest County Court, November 21, 1910, are hereby notified not to appear as such, not having sufficient business to justify the calling of same. You are therefore excused from duty at the above stated Term.
 As witness my hand and seal of said Court this 15th day of November, 1910.

Card of Thanks.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Hood desire to thank those who were so kind to them during the sickness of their son and daughter, and they do especially appreciate the kindness of the Odd Fellows, who were so attentive to their son, Simon, and also feel very grateful to the Lady Macabees of Nebraska and Tionesta lodges for the beautiful wreath and bouquets of roses.

RECENT DEATHS.
M'CAULEY.
 Mrs. Rebecca McAuley, of Pleasantville, visiting Oil City relatives, died Wednesday, Nov. 9th from paralysis.
 She was 83 years of age. She is survived by four sons, Alexander, of Kane; John, of Trueman; George and Gilmore, of Pleasantville, and one daughter, Miss Laura McAuley, of Pleasantville. The funeral services were held at her home in Pleasantville Thursday, Rev. Victor Blocher officiating. The interment was made in Fairview cemetery.
BRACE.
 The St. Marys correspondent of the Ridgway Advocate, under date of Nov.
 5th, gives the following account of the death of Mrs. Thomas Brace, a former well known resident of Tionesta:
 "E. H. VanDerlin left on train 3 today for Waterford, Pa., to attend the funeral of his wife's mother, Mrs. Thomas Brace, mention of whose illness was made in Thursday's letter. Mrs. VanDerlin hurried to her mother's sick bed that day, but arrived too late, her mother having expired two hours before her daughter could reach her. Mrs. Thomas Brace was seventy-six years old at the time of her death, and pneumonia was the cause of her demise. On October 4th Mr. and Mrs. Brace celebrated their Golden wedding at Waterford and at that time Mrs.
 Brace caught a cold which developed into pneumonia. Her condition was not considered serious until last Thursday, when she suddenly changed for the worse and her case proved fatal. Mrs. Brace is survived by her husband and six children, all of whom are married. She and her husband have been making their home with their son, Leslie, and interment will be made from his house in the Wales cemetery, tomorrow at 2 o'clock."
LONGSTRETH.
 Frank Longstreth was born at Stewart's Furnace, in Armstrong county, Pa., Dec.
 8, 1860, and died at his home in Oakdale, Pa., November 11, 1910. When quite young his parents purchased a farm near Newmansville and here he was raised to manhood, for a number of years being employed at the barge yard in Nebraska.
 About ten years ago he moved to the vicinity of Pittsburgh, for the past four years being a resident of Oakdale, where he was employed in the Carnegie Coal Mines. On October 15, while in the discharge of his duties, he was caught between a post and a loaded car, which was in motion, and sustained severe injuries, his hips being crushed in a terrible manner. He was removed to his home and received the best of medical attention, and for a time his friends were hopeful of his recovery but in the evening of Friday last a blood clot formed, causing instant death. About twenty-five years ago he was united in marriage with Miss Vesta Stevens, of Newmansville, who with their six children survive him, as follows: Mrs. Oscar Adams, of Oklahoma, and William, Harry, Hazel, Inez and Lulu, at home. Also by his aged mother, Mrs.
 Mary Longstreth, of Nebraska, and four brothers, John, of New Alexandria, Peter W., of East Pittsburgh, Steven Worth, of Oakdale, and Orlando, of New-mansville; also by two sisters, Mrs. Orris Walters, of Newmansville, and Mrs.
 Burt Carbaugh, of Colville, Wash. The body arrived in Tionesta on Tuesday morning and the funeral service was held in the Lutheran church in New-mansville at 2 p. m., Rev. W. O. Calhoun officiating. Interment in the cemetery at that place.
LACY.
 Many Forest county friends will learn with deep regret of the death of Frederick C. Lacy, which occurred at his home 405 W. Pine street, Philadelphia, Pa., on the 9th inst., after an illness extending over a period of several years. He realized latterly that recovery was impossible, yet he never complained but met the inevitable with true courage and fortitude.
 Mr. Lacy spent many years of his early life in this vicinity, being engaged with his father, the late George S. Lacy, in lumbering operations at Golliza, Green township. During these years he made a host of friends by his kindly, benevolent attitude toward all with whom he came in contact. He was the soul of honor in all his business transactions, and his correct life and good moral habits were an inspiration to those about him.
 Disposing of his interests in this county he removed to Philadelphia, where he had since been successfully engaged in business.
 Those who knew him best will fully endorse what another has written of him, as follows: "Mr. Lacy was one of the highest types of a citizen. His thought was ever for the comfort and happiness of others and his entire life has been one filled with kindly deeds toward those less fortunate than himself. He was quiet and unassuming, but one who was greatly liked and highly prized by all who had the pleasure of knowing him." Mr. Lacy was for many years a faithful member of the Walnut street Presbyterian church, of Philadelphia, and the pastor of which speaks beautifully of the manly Christ in his life. It was the request of deceased that he be buried in the Erie cemetery by the side of those whom he loved many years ago, and his request was granted, the services taking place at the chapel in the cemetery, Friday afternoon last, and were attended by a large concourse of friends. Frederick Charles Lacy was aged 55 years. Mrs.
 Dr. Stranahan, of Erie, Pa., sister of the deceased, is now the only surviving member of the Lacy family. Mr. Lacy is also survived by his wife and two daughters.
HOOD.
 Simon Roll Hood was born in Tionesta township, Feb. 1, 1868, and died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
 John Hood, in Tionesta, Nov. 12, 1910.
 The greater part of his life had been spent in this vicinity and with the exception of two years the past twenty-two had been in this borough. In the spring of 1883 he spent some time in Chicago but after a few months he returned and took up his old occupation, working on the boat-scaffold for Joseph Morgan. In the summer of 1885 he was employed at a barge yard at Glenwood, near Pittsburgh. From there he went to West Virginia, where he worked in the oil country until the next spring, when he returned to Tionesta.
 Since that time he has made his home with his parents. Mr. Hood was an honest and industrious man, one who loved his home, and the great delight of his life was to make some gift or perform some service for his parents, to whom his death brings a loss they will feel most keenly. For the past eight years he had been employed by W. H. Hood in general work and while his health had been steadily failing for many months he was furnished employment as long as he was able to do anything at all. Last Wednesday he suffered a stroke of apoplexy from which he never regained consciousness, death coming to him as an angel of mercy.

 In March, 1893, he was initiated into Tionesta Lodge, No. 369, I. O. O. F., and proved to be one of its most faithful and devoted members, being at his death a Past Grand. Several years ago he united with the Presbyterian church and was ever true to the vows he assumed. Besides his parents he is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Leo Andrews, of Nebraska, and Mrs. Edward Baumgardner, of Tionesta; also by three brothers, W. E. Hood, of Hunter Run, James Hood, of Bakersfield, Cal., and Frank Hood, of Nickerville, Pa. Funeral services were held at the home Monday at 2:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. W. O. Calhoun, the ritual of the I. O. O. F. being used at the grave in Riverside cemetery.
Ladies' Annual Bazar.
 The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church will hold its annual Bazar Friday evening, December 2nd, in the basement of the church. The ladies are taking special interest in this Bazar, and hope to make it the banner year. The following committees have been appointed: Fancy Work—Adelva Randall, Mrs. James Kelly, Mrs. James Hasiel, Mrs. George Kilmer, Kate Arner.
 Linen Booth—Mrs. Muse, Mrs. Ritchey
 Mrs. Grove, Miss Randall.
 Handkerchief Booth—Mrs. Floyd Proper, Mrs. George Holeman, Mrs. Sharpe, Miss Paise.
 Apron Booth—Mrs. Amos Ledebur, Mrs. Dickrager, Mrs. Chas. Clark, Mrs.
 Jacob Smearbaugh, Mrs. Samuel Carson, Mrs. Bailey.
 Candy Booth—Florence Haggerty, June Hermon, Bertha Lawrence, Katherine Osgood, Alice Swanson, Edith Hopkins, Country Store—Lenore Ritchey, Ethel Clark, Emma Arner.
 Market—Mrs. Thomson, Mrs. Lee
 Davis, Mrs. Chas. Kilmer, Mrs. Sigworth, Supper—Mrs. John Osgood, Mrs. Wm.
 Kilmer, Mrs. Reek, Mrs. J. W. Jamieson.
Nebraska.
 F. X. Kreitzer was a visitor in Pittsburg a few days last week.
 Miss Depeau, teacher at Henry's Mills, spent Sunday at the home of K. L.
 Haugh.
 Robert Jones has moved his family from Keppeltown into the house recently occupied by Robert Bean.
 Warren Bean is moving his family to West Hickory, where he will be employed in the tannery.
 Robert Shawkey, of Sigel, spent Sunday with friends in town.
 Mrs. Fred Klinstiver and young son returned from Williamsport, Pa., on Saturday evening.
 School Room No. 3 was opened on Monday morning in the K. O. T. M. building, under the management of Willis Maybon. Miss Marie Dunn, of Tionesta, has charge of Room No. 2. This is certainly a wise move on the part of the directors of the township, as Rooms No. 1 and 2 have been over-crowded for the past four years, and the patrons of the school hope that by another year they will establish a high school.
Porkey.
 Misses Ruth Cooper and Mamie Dodge of Minister were the guests of the Rupert girls on Sunday last for a few hours.
 Sunday school was well attended on last Sunday, even if the weather was very unpleasant and the snow wet and sloppy.
 The children did well and the attendance was 19 in all.
 The Thornton family are entertaining a young gentleman from Pittsburgh who is on his way to the hunting grounds that abound with game near Nebraska. The game in Forest county is getting to be scarce and most of the hunters are going home disgusted with their luck.
 Mrs. J. W. Littlefield returned from a visit to Bucher's Mill, where she has been staying for a week and reports a son born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Littlefield of Dunkirk, N. Y.
 George Blum spent Sunday with his family at this place, returning to his work at Hastings on Monday morning.
 Robert Burdick, Jr. returned to his home at Henry's Mills for a few days while the Wilburine work is shut down, but expects to resume his work here on the 20th inst.
 The Proper Oil Co. is drilling a well on the mountainside bordering on Hell Hill.
 (Don't misunderstand this, but fully realize the situation.) This recent storm has made it very unpleasant for the men who are working on this well on account of the cold experienced in an almost open rig.
 O. E. Rupert attended a meeting of the directors of the Howe school board at Blue Jay on Saturday last, where business matters of importance were taken up and discussed.
 E. L. Littlefield was a Warren visitor on Saturday last, returning in the evening.
 Wm. Meager of Fools Creek passed through the village on Sunday morning going home from his labors at Mayburg for a visit with his parents.
 Samuel Anderson made a visit with friends at Blue Jay on Sunday last while the Proper well was shut down for Sunday, and owing to the bad weather on Monday morning the well was not started.

Perhaps You Have Never Taken the trouble to find out where the best clothes are. Most men don't like to "shop around"; they are apt to be influenced by friendship; or are indifferent where they buy. That is not the way to buy clothes. Every man ought to think enough of his looks and his money to buy where he is absolutely certain of quality; and where he is sure of getting the most value possible for the money he invests. We ask a man for his trade on just that basis, and no other.

Men's Suits, Men's Overcoats.
 Adler Recheater and Clothcraft made—two of the best clothing manufacturers in the country in their classes—every garment made by either one or both we guarantee to be made of absolutely all wool cloth and to give satisfactory wear or your money back.
 $10, $12, $13.50, $15 and $18 Clothcraft made.
 $18, $20, $22.50, $25 and $30 Adler made.

A New Hat.
 A great Soft Hat season as far, but the Derby is coming to its own, as no matter the price or quality of the Soft Hat, if you want to dress you must wear a Stiff Hat.
 $2 to $6 and all prices between.
