WIFE BEATER WHIPPED

Magistrate Administers a Terrible Horsewhipping to Brute.

Wife Showed Deep Cuts and Bruises on Her Head and Arms, Saying There Were Similar Marks on Her Body—After the Justice Had Labored the Thoroughly Cowed Man, He Sent the Defendant Home With the Threat That He Would Get a Double Dose If Brought Before the Court Again.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 29.—Justice of the Peace J. C. Hayden of Swoyersville used a horsewhip yesterday to vigorously thrash Albert Gey of the same place, who is a chronic wife beater and who had again beaten and badly injured his wife.

She went to the office of Justice Hayden in the morning and showing deep cuts and bruises on her head and arms and saying there were similar marks on her body, she told how her husband had brutally beaten her and asked that he be punished.

"I'll punish him properly this time," declared the justice and sent a constable for Gey. When the prisoner arrived he found the justice in his shirt sleeves and armed with a heavy horsewhip.

"Take off your coat and get down on your knees, you brute," roared the magistrate. "The law does not provide the proper punishment for the likes of you, so I'll give you a taste of the medicine you like to administer."

Justice Wields the Whip. Swish fell the whip across Gey's shoulders and swish, swish, swish, other blows followed as the man jumped about the room begging for mercy and protesting that he would behave himself in the future and never strike his wife again.

"You bet you will not," cried Justice Hayden, slashing about the legs and body, "because I'll teach you not to," and he continued the thrashing until he was out of breath.

"Now, go home," he said to the weeping and cowed man, "and remember this, if you ever beat her again, I'll give you a double dose of this," and he shook the whip in the frightened man's face.

STEP HIGH FOR CHAMP

Flying Wedge Greeted Prospective Speaker in the Capitol Barber Shop.

Washington, Nov. 29.—They step high in the house wing of the Capitol these days when Champ Clark passes by. Mr. Clark entered the house barber shop this morning. He was greeted by a flying wedge made up of the proprietor, the star barber, and the bootblack.

The prospective speaker was acclaimed by all three. Never before had he received such a reception. He was shaved, shampooed, massaged and his shoes were polished, all with a delicacy of touch that soothed and comforted.

A speaker or a prospective speaker looks bigger to the house employees than a minority leader and Mr. Clark is now receiving the homage tendered by house-attaches only to the great.

HONOR DEAD STATESMAN

Business in Covington, Ky., Suspended During Funeral of John G. Carlisle and Wife.

Cincinnati, Nov. 29.—Mayor Craig of Covington, Ky., has issued a proclamation calling upon the citizens to suspend business this afternoon between 2 and 4 o'clock on account of the funeral of John G. Carlisle and wife and also asking that schools and public offices be closed at that time.

Members of the Kenton County Bar association met and adopted a series of resolutions on the death of Carlisle. He was paid the following eulogy: "It may easily be said that Mr. Carlisle was the ablest man Kenton county ever produced and that he was the peer of any man of his time."

Drowned in Erie Canal.

The body of an unknown inmate of the Wayne county home was found in the Erie canal directly opposite from the home. The man was apparently 45 years of age. He appeared around the town of Walworth, N. Y., about six weeks ago, was slightly demented, could give no account of himself, and was taken to the Wayne county home by the overseer of the Erie Canal.

NEWARK'S HOLOCAUST

Casualties in Factory Fire Will Reach Twenty Three.

Search of the Ruins Has Revealed No More Bodies — Victims and All Employees in the Building at Time Fire Broke Out Have Been Accounted For — Nineteen Persons Were Injured.

Careful revision of the list of casualties in the Newark (N. J.) factory disaster of Saturday showed that 23 persons, all of them young women, lost their lives in the disaster. Search of the ruins has revealed no more bodies of victims and all the employees in the building at the time the fire broke out have been accounted for. Nineteen persons were injured.

All Newark is in mourning. Flags were half-masted on private and public buildings and signs of mourning were everywhere displayed.

Prosecutor Nott is receiving reports from his detectives as to the origin of the fire, the condition of the fire escapes and the general facilities for escape. When all the reports are in, he will decide on a plan of action.

Great characters shine out through small crevices.

NATIONAL GRANGE

Adopt Resolutions Favoring Federal Regulation of Passenger and Freight Rates.

Drastic regulation of all of the railway lines of the United States with sweeping powers giving the latter state commerce commission permission to nullify freight and passenger rates shown to be extortionate, were demanded in resolution adopted at the closing session of the National Grange, Patron of Husbandry, at Atlantic City.

After warring for ten days over questions of administration policy, both factions of the farmers' national organization agreed to insist upon radical changes in the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill and to urge physical valuation of the railway trunk lines of the country.

Briefly the platform declares for federal aid for road improvement, the parcels post, conservation of natural resources, a national income tax, direct election of United States senators by the people, agricultural education, for tariff revision, for a non-partisan tariff commission and the speedy construction of a ship canal connecting the Mississippi river with the Great Lakes and Atlantic coast.

DOG GETS ROASTED TURKEY

Animal Saved Lives of Six Men by Going into Smoke-Filled Room

A black and white bulldog of Wilkes-Barre named Buster had a whole roasted turkey for his Thanksgiving dinner Thursday. It was presented to him Thursday morning when they were in peril of death.

The six were Greeks, employed by Nicholas, Compass & Co., candy merchants of this city. They slept in two connecting rooms and the occupants of one room were awakened in the morning by the dog which had pushed the door open, pulling off the clothes from their bed and barking until he aroused them.

The room was filled with smoke from a fire smoldering in one corner. Two of the men were in such a condition that they had to be carried out.

Banker Knapp Not Guilty.

Supreme Court Justice Gladding has directed a verdict of not guilty in the case of Charles J. Knapp of Binghamton, N. Y., who was formerly president of the Binghamton Trust company, who was on trial at Cooperstown, Otsego county, on an indictment found in Broome county charging him with having criminally received deposits in Knapp Brothers' private bank at Deposit, knowing it to be insolvent.

Broom Workers Go On Strike.

The broom manufacturing industry in Amsterdam, N. Y., the center of the trade in this country, was practically tied up Saturday afternoon when the sweepers and winders quit work after having their demands for an increase in wages denied.
