-State game commissioner Kalbfus reports that over 800 deer were killed in Pennsylvania during the fitteen day season this year. The Doctor may have figures on this subject, but we seriously doubt their accuracy. As there are not more than 20 counties in the state, and probably less than that, in which any deer are left, this would be 40 deer to the county, an average entirely too great for any thinking person to admit. They are said to be handsomely coated, black as jet, and it is Mr. Cottle's intention to have the pounds, "set up" by the taxidermist.

-State Fish Commissioner William E. Meehan says the state's output of trout fry this winter will be greater than that of the United States Government fisheries. The catch of eggs so far amounts to about 13,000,000. This is more than ever before, and not only larger than the Federal Government output, but greater than that of four states combined. The eggs were secured from the Bellefonte, Spruce Creek and Corry hatcheries, and it is believed that about 12,000,000 trout fry will be secured. The cost through the improved methods and large collection will be about $4 50 per thousand. -One year ago the Northwestern Anti-Tuberculosis League was organized to carry on the fight against consumption in the Northwestern portion of Pennsylvania; they took the Bon Air Sanitorium, which had eight beds, and during the succeeding eight months increased the capacity to forty beds and today there are about thirty people on the waiting list, thus showing the necessity of the existence of such a work. The proceeds from the sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals will assist this society to increase the capacity of the Bon Air Sanitorium. -Joseph Stroup, for the past two years resident near Pigeon, this county, was found dead in his bed on the morning of the 25th uit, by W. L. Kerr of Marienville, by whom he had been employed for some time back. Mr. Kerr has a sawmill near Byromtown, and Stroup had been helping him load lumber, and was occupying a building in which Mr. Kerr also slept occasionally when unable to reach home. On the morning mentioned the latter had risen from his bed on the first floor and after calling for Stroup, who slept up stairs, and getting no response, went up and found the man had expired some time during the night. A physician was called who assigned heart lisease as the cause of death. Mr. Stroup. who was aged 67 years and a veteran of the civil war, was born near Fisher, Clarion county, where he had relatives still living, and where the remains were taken for burial. He was a single man, well spoken of in the community in which most of his life was spent,

Two Men Accidentally Shot.

Claude West, of Meadville, and Harry Lovell were quite seriously wounded by the hands of a third man, last Wednesday evening, at the home of Mr. Lovell on father was Lieut. John Range, buried at the lease of the Forest Gas Co., about two miles above Golinza, in Green township. Mr. West was one of a party of five Meadville hunters who had gone to the Lovell home on the Sunday previous for week's hunting, the other members of Krueger, Robert Larkins and Sol. Stern. The men had been hunting all day Wednesday and came to the house shortly guns, a 20-gauge hammerless shot gun in the hands of Mr. Stern was accidentally discharged, the solid charge of shot passing through the flesh on the inside of Mr. West's left leg about halt way between the knee and hip, from a distance of about ten feet. Passing on the scattered shot struck Mr. Loveil, who was sitting on a bench just back of where Mr. West was standing, in the right arm and side. Dr. H. H. Kahle, of Leever. was summoned and attended the injured men. Fifteen shot were taken out of the wound in Mr. West's leg. While his injury was very severe, no bones were broken, and he was getting along well at last accounts. He was brought to Tionesta Thursday evening and taken bome Friday noon. Mr. Lovell's worst injuries are in his arm, in which twenty eight shot were embedded below and above the elbow. A few of the shot went clear through the arm. Four shot struck him in the side, three in the leg and one in the breast. In a conversat on with him over the phone Sunday he informed us he was feeling fine and expected no trouble from the wounds. Some of the shot which missed Mr. Lovell riddled a towel escape for all who were in the room, as the solid charge did not miss Mr. Karn by more than six inches. Mr. Stern was much distressed at the accident. He had two shells in the gun and forgot them when he began wiping off the gun. The hunting trip was abruptly terminated, all of the party going home.

William McCullough Fatally Injured.

William R. McCullough, of Nebrasks, received injuries while at work on the S. & T. railroad at that place at about 7:30 o'clock Monday morning, which caused his death at six o'clock, Tuesday evening, December 6th, 1910. The young man was a brakeman on the freight train and with the other members of the crew was engaged in throwing some empty cars into a switch near the mill. They were making a flying switch, having a wire cable attached from the engine to the car and as the car was under motion he attempted to uncouple the cable, but time to give the printer a friendly call failed. When the engine and car came opposite each other the cable tightened and caught Mr. McCullough against the end of the car. He was badly bruised about the abdomen, hips and tack, but at the time his injuries did not seem to be serious. Herode to the store on the engine and then walked to the Lome of his grandmother, Mrs. Doress Thompson, at the hotel, with whom he made his home. In a short time his injuries became very painful and Dr. J. C. Dunn was summoned to attend him. Later in the day Dr. J. B. Siggins, of Oil City, went up to see him, when it was decided to postpone a possibly needed operation turned to the west last week, going to until the next day. #### RECENT DEATHS. OSGOOD,

Warren Barnbart Osgood, aged 48 years, was born in Kingsley township, Forest county, Pa., and died at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning, December 6, 1910. He had been in ill health for nearly a year when his friends persuaded him to go to the hospital at Warren for treatment, which he did last spring, but he failed to get relief and died at the hour stated. "Hart," as he was almost universally known to his friends, was reared within the community in which he was born, his parents being Hiram and Christine Osgood, deceased. He was a man of quiet and retiring disposition, industrious in his habits, and perfectly honorable in all his dealings with his fellowmen, and ss such was highly respected and esteemed by all who knew him. His wife, who was Miss Lydia Hartman, one son, Jay, and one daughter, Eva, survive to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father. The following brothers and sisters also survive: George W., of Tionesta, William L., of Starr, J. Edward, of Endeavor, Mrs. Otis Rudolph, of Hickory township, and Mrs. E. J. Behrens, of German Hill, The funeral will take place from his late home, at Ross Run, where services will be held at 10:00 o'clock a, m. Friday, followed by the interment in the Zuendel
