—Ray Birtell garnered the first crop of ice from his pond yesterday. He expects to harvest at least one more crop before the winter is over. It would seem the part of wisdom for some others of our citizens who depend on the creek for their supply to be up and doing and not get caught napping as has happened on other occasions.

—In the near approach of Christmas our friends are again reminded that a most acceptable gift to an absent friend is a subscription to the FORGOTTEN REPUBLICAN, whose welcome visits will be a weekly reminder that you are thinking of them during the whole year of nineteen hundred eleven. Try it, and see how nice it works.

—The beautiful marble baptismal font which was presented to the Presbyterian church by the grandchildren of the late Mrs. Frances A. May, was dedicated at the morning services last Sunday with exercises that were simple yet impressive.
 The service of dedication followed an excellent sermon by the pastor, Rev. H.
 A. Bailey, on the origin and meaning of baptism, after which the rite of baptism was administered to two children.

—Rev. C. L. Rush is supplying the Mt.
 Zion's Lutheran congregation, German Hill, during his Christmas vacation.
 There will be divine services in the church Christmas morning at 11 o'clock.
 Text, St. Luke 2:8-14. Theme, "In Christ is joy for the whole world." The congregation will hold their Christmas entertainment on Dec. 25th, Christmas night, at 7:30 o'clock. Friends and neighbors from far and near are cordially invited to attend these services.

—In last week's Brookville Republican Dr. J. W. McKnight contributes a most valuable article on the history of the extinct city of Pithole, that once wild and woolly old region metropolis located on the hill just beyond the little creek bearing the same name. Dr. McKnight was on the ground when much of the history of this phenomenal town was made, and he therefore writes knowingly about it when he says: "The people were a grand congregation of thieves, pick-pockets, preachers, doctors, lawyers, financiers, sharpers and highwaymen. Ben Hogan was there in the height of his fame and glory. His hotel was the largest and vietest den in the city." As a valuable adjunct to the history of northwestern Pennsylvania the article is well worth preserving, and doubtless will be by many who have access to it.

—Through the efforts of some harumscarum space writer in that highly unreliable and sensational sheet called Grit, some simple-minded folk have gotten the impression that, as a result of the changes in population shown by the late census figures, the salaries of some county officials will be either increased or decreased, notably those of the county commissioners and district attorney of Forest county.
 This is sheer nonsense. The latest act affecting the salaries of county commissioners provides that in counties having 25,000 population or less the salary shall be $800. And the act fixing the salary of the district attorney provides that it shall be $400 in counties of more than 10,000 population, and $300 in counties of less than 10,000. Under this provision the district attorney elected in 1911 will receive $300, but the salary of the present incumbent cannot be affected by the decrease in population.

Christmas in the Sunday Schools.

The Presbyterian Sunday School will hold its Christmas exercises in the auditorium of the church next Saturday evening, December 24th, at 7:30. A fine program will be rendered and there will be a tree and treat for the scholars. And of course Santa Claus will be there to give the children a merry greeting. Everybody cordially invited to attend these exercises. Following is the program:

 from Dunkirk, N. Y., for the Christmas vacation.

—Paul Carson is home for the holidays, from Pittsburg, where he is engaged as a plumber.

—Mrs. Henry Arthur and daughter, of Ackley, Pa., were guests at the home of W. C. Imel over Sunday.

—Mrs. Harvey Kiser of Tarentum is a holiday guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Randall.

—Miss Maude Canfield, teacher in the Curwensville, Clearfield county, schools, is home for the holiday vacation.

—Thomas Fulton and Charles Imel, civil engineering students at State College, are spending the holiday vacation in Tionesta.

—Mr. and Mrs. John S. Carr of Lottsville, Warren county, are guests at the homes of the latter's brothers, F. R. and C. A. Lanson.

—A marriage license was issued Monday in the office of Clerk of the Courts J.
 C. Geist to Roy Huling, of Vowinkel, and Miss Ada Geer, of Sigel, Pa.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wertz and daughter Margaret leave today for a two months' visit with Mrs. Wertz's brother and sister, Joseph and Miss Annie Kautz, in Lancaster, Pa.

—Married, at the office of the officiating justice in the Court House, Tionesta, Dec. 14, 1910, by D. W. Clark, J. P., Harry Snyder, of the Fogie Farm, and Miss Lettie Baker, of Enterprise, Pa.

—Miss Mary Alice Warden, attending school at Washington, D. C., is home at Edinboro for the holidays. Her roommate, Miss Cleo Barlow, of Spokane, Wash., came to be her guest during the vacation.

—Mrs. G. T. Anderson and Miss Maude Canfield went to Pittsburg Monday, where the former will consult Dr. Lip-pencott, an ear specialist, for defective hearing, with which she has been troubled for some time.

—Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Butler of Tioga county, paid a visit to their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Butler last week, where the former will attend a meeting of the State Grange, at Butler, Pa., to which convention they were delegates from their county.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Cook of Siverly are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter at their home last Saturday.
 The parents are former residents of Nebraska, this county, and their many friends will rejoice with them over this pretty Christmas gift.

—Mrs. Bert Black, of Durbin, W. Va., is home on a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mealy, of the Township, and sisters, Mrs. Harry Osgood and Vera Hyde, of Tionesta. She will visit her husband's folks at Knox Pa., and return home about New Year's.

—Geor. Ledebur, of German Hill, represents Forest Grange, No. 853, P. of H., at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Grange, held at Butler last week. At this meeting Wm. T. Creasy, of Catawissa, was unanimously re-elected Master and E. B. Dorsett, of Tioga county, Lecturer.

—Earle Hepler came down from Brookston Saturday suffering with a piece of steel in his right eye, which was removed by Dr. Bovard. The particle had been driven into the eyeball while Mr. Hepler was working on an oil well on the Aul lease in which Tionesta parties are interested.

—Friends of our worthy townsman, Solomon Fitzerald, will regret to learn of his serious illness from a paralytic stroke sustained last Friday. At first his life was despaired of, but at last accounts his physician believed the aged veteran had an equal chance for at least partial recovery, a hope which we all trust may be realized.

—Miss Maude Grove of Jamestown N.
 Y., accompanied by Mr. Leo Gibson, paid a visit to her old home and many friends in Tionesta, Saturday, remaining over the Sabbath, as the guest of Miss Lucy Huling. It was Miss Grove's first visit here since the family removed from Tionesta and her meeting with former friends was very cordial.

—In a note accompanying his remittance in renewal of his subscription our old friend and former Forest county citizen, Edward Klabbatz, now residing at Union City, says he is "still well and enjoying life while working every day, and still like to read my home paper." Mr. Klabbatz sends greetings to old friends, and we are sure these are cordially reciprocated by his many acquaintances.

—Mrs. Bessie Walters, wife of Henry M. Walters, is lying at the point of death at the home of Peter Walters on Cropp Hill, many friends will be pained to learn, Mrs. Walters, who is the daughter of Mrs. A. Kenniston of the borough, underwent a serious operation about a year ago while she and her husband were residents of Bridgeport, Ill., and it is from a recurrence of the trouble then affecting her that she is now suffering, and from which her physician has no hope of her recovery.

—Many old Forest county friends of Henry Miller, formerly of Marienville, will be interested in the following item of news sent out from Parker, Pa., under date of 15th inst: "Mayor H. L.
 Miller, who has been ailing for the past six months and losing weight rapidly, returned from Pittsburg Wednesday evening, where he consulted a specialist, who gave him considerable encouragement. His affliction is pronounced an affection of the oesophagus, which is expected to yield to treatment."

Settle Up, Please.

All accounts owing to the late firm of Dunn & Fulton, druggists, must be paid on or before January 1st, 1911, otherwise they will be left for collection, with possible instructions to invoke the strong arm of the law against all delinquents. Those knowing themselves indebted will do well, and save extra costs, by heeding this warning.

DUNN & FULTON,
 Tionesta, Dec. 13, 1910.

Look Here.

Everything one-half off in the Mill-nery line. Must make room for spring goods. Come and see the great bargains before Christmas. Mrs. E. E. Wilson, Kellettville, Pa.

Killed at Millereck.

George Zents, the foreman of the woods at the A. Cook Sons Company timber tract at the mouth of Millereck, was killed Tuesday morning, Dec. 13, 1910, on the log railroad on which a cog engine, or "stem winder", operates as the motive power. Mr. Zents was on the engine and went to step off to throw a switch when the tail of a long mackintosh or rain coat he was wearing caught in the cogs and he was instantly pulled into the cogs and his arms, shoulder and one side were torn and ground up in such manner as to cause his death instantly. It is said he did not have time or power to make the least outcry. He was missed when the switch was not thrown and on investigation his body was found in the machinery. The engine was backed up and the body removed and other employes hastened to render aid, but he was beyond all help.
 The body was tenderly cared for and prepared for interment. Mr. Zents was about 46 years of age and was married and had a family of his wife and five or six children. He was one of the most capable and efficient woodsmen in this section of the state, and besides was one of the most trustworthy and honorable men known in the lumber business. His accuracy and reliability as an estimator of timber tracts was regarded as certainty. The body will be conveyed to Crown and the funeral will be held on Friday at the "Wilderness" church. To the bereaved family there goes out the sympathy of all.—Clarion Democrat.

Mr. Zents was formerly a well known citizen of Barnett township, this county.

December Argument Court.

President Judge W. D. Hinkley and Associates P. C. Hill and Samuel Aul held the regular session of December argument court Monday, when the following business was disposed of:

James D. Davis, of Tionesta, was appointed Court Auditor to audit the accounts of the Prothonotary, Register, Recorder and Clerk of the Courts for the year ending January 1, 1911.

Cora M. Felt was granted a decree of divorce from Mentor A. Felt.

The bond of George W. Holeman, County Treasurer, in the sum of $10,000 to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, was approved. This bond was made necessary by the extension of his term of office for one year by the amendment to the constitution.

The court filed an opinion and order striking off judgment in the case of Leona Bowman, administratrix of T. J.
 Bowman, deceased, vs. M. E. Abbott et al. Exceptions to the ruling were filed by the defendants and allowed.

On petition of A. C. Whitton and J. N.
 Allio, Road Supervisors of Green township, Henry Weingard was appointed Supervisor to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Herman Blum.

An answer of the respondent to the petition to bring an ejectment suit was presented and ordered filed in the case of Maxwell C. Heath vs. Nelson P. Wheeler.

B. V. Stoughton filed an answer to the petition for inquest to make partition in the matter of the estate of J. E. and Mahala Stoughton, late of Hickory township, deceased.

The report of D. W. Clark, artist, and J. J. Young and Orion Siggins, viewers, in the matter of a proposed new bridge over the "Race" at Nebraska, in Green township, was confirmed nisi. The viewers unanimously reported against the county building the bridge, stating that inasmuch as there were already three county bridges within two miles of the proposed bridge, and the township being in good financial condition, they did not feel justified in placing the expense of building and maintaining the new bridge on the county.

In the matter of the petition of Dr. M.
 C. Kerr for a mandamus vs. the School Directors of Harmony township, to compel them to admit him to his seat on the school board of Harmony township, a rule to show cause was granted and the school board ordered to file an answer in fifteen days after service of rule. The petition sets forth that the plaintiff was elected a school director on Feb. 18, 1908; that he was absent from the township from May 13, 1910, to Sept. 8, 1910; that at a meeting of the board Aug. 13, 1910, he was removed from the board and his seat declared vacant; that the meeting was unlawful in that it was not a regular meeting and that he had no notice; that he attended a meeting of the board Oct.
 22, 1910, demanded his rights as a member and was refused.

The equity case of The Eaton, Cole and Burnham Company, a corporation, vs.
 John Eaton, E. T. Cole, et al., was argued for the plaintiff by A. J. Barron, of Pittsburg, and for the defendants by George L. Roberts, of Pittsburg. Judge Hinkley took the papers in the case. The question involved is the ownership of about 80 acres of land near Neilltown, Harmony township, formerly owned by S. T. Neill and Orin D. Harrington.

The equity case of Anna Osgood, administratrix of John R. Osgood, deceased, vs. Quinton Jamieson, was argued for the plaintiff by W. J. Breaux, of Oil City, and for the defendant by M. A. Carriger, of Tionesta. Judge Hinkley took the papers in the case.

The court ordered the re-filing of the jury wheel with four hundred names, the names to be taken pro rata from the different parts of the county.

Owing to the absence of Court Stenographer W. B. Weed, who is lying ill in a Cleveland hospital, D. W. Clark was duly appointed and kept the court records for the day.

The court adjourned to meet on the fourth Monday of February, 1911.
