Six packing companies make twentyfive millions a year of profits. It is evident, therefore, that the beef people are not to blame for the high price of meat and the trouble must be that there is too much gold being mined, the farmers are azy and the country is extravagant. among the things under consideration.

For school legislation, a commission, appointed for the purpose, will report a proposed draft; the amending corporation and posed draft; the amending corporation and election and road laws have been among the topics chiefly discussed, while there has been very scant reference to forestry or other resources coming within the scope of the conservation idea.

A movement has been taken up, however, looking to the preservation of a property in this section of the state comprising ten thousand acres, still largely covered with virgin forests, such as gave Pennsylvania during the latter half of the past century the distinction of being the greatest lumber state in the Union.

The property referred to belongs to the Cook estate. It is not many miles from mersburg to spend the winter with her DuBois and is lying partly in each of three counties: Forest, Clarion and Jefferson, time. She steadily failed, since Thanks- The timbered portion shows the finest forest perhaps to be found in all the East. Among the present owners of the estate is A. W. Cook, some years ago, when Forest county was in this congressional district, a candidate for the Republican nomination for congress against a DuBois man, the late Hon, W. C. Arnold. The heirs have been extremely reluctant about assuming the destruction of the forest. They have wanted to see it preserved perpetually, but under the laws of the state the taxation is very heavy, and the cost of protecting it is omething to be considered where nothing is derived from it except the satisfaction and pleasure of sparing a noble forest which is almost the only remaining example of what the territory in Pennsylvania was be fore the white man's civilization was extended from the Delaware to the Ohio and Lake Erie. The Clarion river flows through it and the hills and valleys are sylvan cenes that are unmatched east of the great plains beyond the Mississippi.

A number of DuBois people have visited the estate, on which the village of Cooks-Clarion county where the most of his life | to Cochoeton Center, N. Mc Creight on one of these occasions their reluctance about stripping the tract of the timber, and Mr. McCreight suggested that he would assist in getting a proposition before the proper authorities for the state to tice of Governor Stuart and the State Forup very earnestly also with the Hon. S. B. Elliott, of Reynoldsville, a member of the commission and well advised on the condition of natural resources of the western part of the state. The result so far has been that the governor instructed Mr. Elliott to examine the property fully and make a report that would serve as a basis for urging legislation authorizing and proiding for its purchase and maintenance.

Oil, coal and natural gas abound all around the Cook lands. They are in the very midst of producing districts, and were at the very heart of the great forests of pine and hemlock covering the Alleghenies in Pennsylvania. None of the resources have been parted with. All underground rights are still intact, and the timber alone gives On the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 7th and 8th, 1 inch it large value as a commercial proposition. The park, as it would be under state control, is reckoned to be within a night's ride by train of one-half the population of the nation. It is within a few hours by automobile of Pittsburg, Cleveland, Toledo, Erie and Buffalo, besides hundreds of smaller cities and towns within the sam-

Mr. Elliott is on the property now mak ing his inspection, and it is expected that his report will be ready for the preparation of a bill in time to get it before the legislature early in the session,—DuBois Courier, December 30th.
