—If there's luck in odd numbers 1911 ought to be a good year. The whole number is not only odd but so are all the digits and the total sum of the smaller digits. Divide the larger digit by the sum of the smaller or multiply and the answer is still odd. Odd, isn't it?
—Frank A. Chevalier, of Oil City, the secretary of the Producers Oil Company, was in Warren today interviewing stockholders about the proposed dissolution of the company next June, the end of the twenty years of its existence. He was in Tionesta yesterday and goes to Bradford tonight on the same business. The annual meeting of this company will be held in Warren Thursday, January 19th in the Hoffman block.—Warren Times, 11th.

—On Tuesday of last week the United States Senate approved the appointment of J. R. Dods as postmaster at Franklin. He will assume charge of the postal affairs at the Nursery as soon as his commission will have arrived. Mr. Dods will be the twenty-fifth postmaster of Franklin since 1801.
—The Big Two Oil and Gas Co. finished and shot their first well last Friday on the Harrison Sigworth farm, Tionesta township, which lies southwest of this company's producing lease on the Kelly tract. The well will make a good oil producer in the third or Clarion sand, which they found at 1,000 feet.

—Evangelistic services in progress this week at the Presbyterian church have been well attended. Rev. John F. Scherer, of Endeavor, Pa., is the evangelist in charge of the meeting this week, and his direct and forceful sermons have excited much appreciative comment on the part of those who have been fortunate enough to hear him.—Seneca Kicker.
—The statement of the condition of the Forest County National bank as published in today's REPUBLICAN shows a very healthy state of affairs existing in that financial institution. With an increase of $109,991.25 in the grand total which is $732,074.10, as compared with $622,082.85 at the previous statement, business would seem to be flourishing in that quarter.
—Bishop Walter A. Sellow, of Jamestown, N. Y., well known in this community in connection with his ministerial work in the Free Methodist church, has departed for Seattle, Wash., and will sail from that port for a visit to the missionary fields of his church, in Japan and China. He is expected to depart early in December, but had the misfortune to fall and break his left arm.
—At the annual meeting of the Forest Telephone and Telegraph Company, held in Marienville last Monday afternoon, all of the old officers and directors were re-elected, as follows: President, Asa H. Sigworth; vice president, J. H. Russell; treasurer, D. B. Shields; secretary, J. B. Cottle. Directors—Asa H. Sigworth, J. H. Russell, D. B. Shields, David Mintz, L. H. Mensch.

Application forms and information can be secured from the postmaster at Brookston.
—Every once in a while the news is circulated that the tanneries are to be closed down for an indefinite period. We had such a report last year, and the tanneries ran right along. The same report is being circulated now, but those familiar with the tanning process know that there is quite a difference between an order that no new hides are to be put to soak for the present, and one to prepare for closing the tanneries. There is little likelihood that any of the tanneries of this section will be closed down in the near future.—Sheffield Observer.
—Mrs. Edward Bell, of Shippensburg, Pa., brought habeas corpus proceedings against her former husband, J. E. Bortzer, of Stewart Run, to compel him to deliver to her their daughter, Maude Bortzer, aged 14 years. The child had been making her home with the mother, but of late has been with the father. Judge W. D. Hinckley heard the case here Tuesday and after taking testimony and questioning the child privately, decreed that she should remain with the father. The mother was granted the privilege of visiting the child at stated intervals.
—Milton Heim, aged 49, died Saturday at the home of his brother, Cyrus, Heim, near Kittanning, where he had lived his entire life. Mr. Heim was well known along the Allegheny river. Twenty-five years ago he owned a boat which he piloted between Pittsburgh and Kittanning, operating a floating photograph gallery. He made enough money in this occupation to retire 10 years ago. He is survived by three sons.—He was a brother of Mrs. F. C. Blocher, of Tionesta township, who is attending the funeral. Mr. Heim will be remembered by our older residents as having conducted a photograph gallery in Tionesta.
—W. G. Kemble of the drug firm of Wilkins & Kemble was yesterday mixing a liniment which contained acetic acid and ammonia, when the concoction exploded. His face was filled with the hot liquid and had it not been for his glasses, which protected his eyes, he might possibly have been blinded. He was attended by Dr. J. M. Wald. The physician marveled at his patient's narrow escape. His lips and face were quite badly burned and swollen but his sight was not injured in the slightest. He was able to continue his work and during the day received the congratulations of many friends, who called to pay their respects.—Titusville Herald, 12th.
—The regular January thaw which set in the latter days of last week, made a well nigh complete wreck of our pretty winter weather and most excellent sleighing. The streams were swollen far beyond floodstage, the river being higher than at any time since the phenomenal flood of last spring, reaching the top-notch about noon Sunday, and all but overflowing its banks. No damage worth mentioning is reported from hereabouts, but a heavy ice gorge at Kinzua diverted the water "across lots" and a new channel was washed out over the flats, destroying considerable farm land in that vicinity. Some heavy slides are reported on the "narrow" opposite West Hickory and for some time it is likely travel over that road will be considerably impeded.

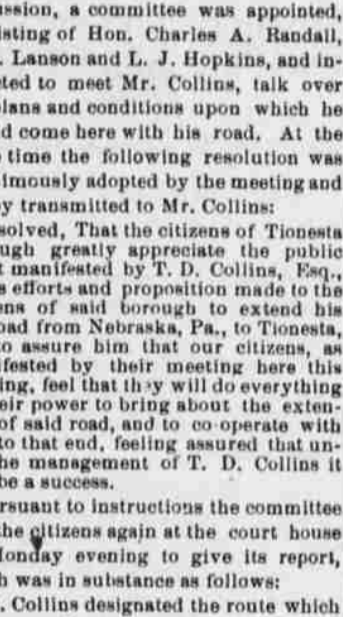

—Rev. and Mrs. Carroll Smith, returned missionaries from Africa, will conduct a public missionary service on Saturday evening, Jan. 21st, in the K. O. T. M. hall, East Hickory. An address will be given, there will be singing and speaking in the native dialects, and a collection of curios will be exhibited. Service to begin at 7:30. All are cordially invited to be present.
—A newspaper is in no sense a child of charity. It earns twice over every dollar it receives, and is second to no enterprise in contributing to the building of a community. Its patrons reap far more benefits from its pages than its publishers, and in calling for the support of the community in which it is published, it asks for no more than in all fairness belongs to it. Patronize and help your paper as you would any other enterprise because it helps you, and not as an act of charity.
—The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Oil City Trust Company was held at the office of the company January 10th. The following directors were elected: Joseph Seep, George Lewis, J. R. Campbell, Henry Suhr, D. T. Borland, W. R. Barr, S. H. Simpson, A. M. Low-entritt, W. W. Spiane, H. H. Fair, J. P. Kern. After the stockholders' meeting the new Board met and organized, at which time Joseph Seep was elected President; George Lewis, Vice President; H. R. Marritt, Secretary and Treasurer; Frederick Fair, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer.
—James Haslet, of this place, who had four of his prize white Orpington chickens on exhibition at the Rochester (N. Y.) Poultry Show, January 9th to 14th, comes out a good winner. In a class of fifteen birds of the Owens strain of single comb white Orpingtons he won second hen, and in a class of thirty birds of the same strain he won fifth pullet. The Rochester show is next in size and importance to the Madison Square Garden show in New York city, and Mr. Haslet's winnings show that he is keeping his birds up to their high standard and is entitled to class with the best of them.
—Governor Stuart Saturday decided that Alton V. Hoover, twice convicted of the murder of his wife, Cora Hoover, at Atlantic, Crawford county, on the night of November 27, 1907, is to be hanged on February 23, according to advices received from Harrisburg. Since Hoover's second trial in Erie county, when he was convicted of first degree murder after a hard legal battle, his parents and at least one other person have set forth every effort to secure a new trial, a commutation of sentence to life imprisonment or a pardon. Every effort has been in vain and they realized some weeks ago that there was no hope left for the young man.
—The REPUBLICAN acknowledges a pleasant call from J. S. Vail, of West Hickory, yesterday. One of Mr. Vail's driving teams indulged in a peculiar runaway one day last week that furnished no little excitement for a time, but did not result seriously. Starting near the West Hickory depot the horses ran up the track, crossed the river bridge and tore down the river road on the east side. On the "narrow" they passed no less than three rigs without a collision of any kind, the runaways keeping the outside of the road and so close to the steep embankment that the wheels of the vehicle lacked but six inches of going over. The team ran as far as the county home, a distance of about four miles, where they were halted. Neither horse was injured, and the rig was damaged only to the extent of a couple of dollars.
RECENT DEATHS.
HARTMAN.
Mrs. Cassie Hartman died at her home in Mayburg, Pa., at 10:30 a. m., January 11, 1911, after a lingering illness of several years' duration. The deceased was the daughter of Joseph and Sarah Jane Harrison, the latter of whom survives her. She was aged 41 years, two months and 14 days. She was united in marriage with Mr. George Hartman, of Shippensburg, Clarion county, September 10, 1890, at Tionesta, Pa., who died five years ago. Besides her aged mother she is survived by two sons, Harvey and Walter Hartman, aged 13 and 11 years, four brothers and two sisters, Charles Harrison, of Nebraska, Pa., Perry Harrison, of Marienville, Pa., John Harrison, of Cadillac, Mich.; William Harrison, of Tionesta, Pa.; Mrs. Joseph Brothers, of Crown, Pa., and Mrs. John Lusher, of Santa Maria, Cal. Funeral services were held in the Tionesta Free Methodist church Friday afternoon at one o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. F. M. Fox, of Mayburg, followed by the interment in Riverside cemetery.
The relatives desire to thank their friends and neighbors for their kindness during the sickness and death of their mother and sister, Mrs. Cassie Hartman.
Cook Lands For State Park.
[DuBois Courier]
Hon. S. B. Elliott, member of the State Forestry Commission, has very probably finished his inspection of the Cook lands, which the Courier recently referred to as a noble relic of the Pennsylvania forests which many were hoping the state would decide to purchase, and save it from the lumberman's devastating ax. And it is expected that he will soon have a report to submit to the governor and forestry department, upon which a bill can be formed for presentation to the present legislature. The Courier has no hesitancy in anticipating very strong endorsement by Mr. Elliott of a proposition for the state to buy.
The great attractiveness of this estate and incentives for preserving it for the enjoyment of the people, was discussed at some length in these columns quite recently, and since that time M. I. McCraith, one of the original advocates of purchase and preservation, has again visited the tract and developed some photographic views—taken with his own camera and by himself. A collection of these views are being displayed in the window at Hay's corner drug store, and they will help to interest almost anybody who inspects them in the call in this section for permanent preservation. Conservation is in no sense like charity—it begins at home.
Aside from beauty, park pleasure and gain in growth of timber, this tract of forest land is of inestimable worth to a large district in the western part of the state as a protection to the water supply. It remains as almost the sole natural reservoir in Pennsylvania west of the Allegheny mountains.
Let the members of the legislature know that you want them to become interested in the report that is to be made by Mr. Elliott on this Cook property.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.
T. D. Collins' Proposition to Extend His Road to Tionesta.
Two well attended meetings of citizens of the Borough have been held within the past week to consider a proposition from Truman D. Collins, Esq., the Nebraska lumberman, to extend his railroad from Nebraska to Tionesta. At the meeting last Wednesday evening, held in the court house, a letter from Mr. Collins was read in which he briefly laid his plans before the citizens, and after considerable discussion, a committee was appointed, consisting of Hon. Charles A. Randall, F. R. Lansons and L. J. Hopkins, and instructed to meet Mr. Collins, talk over the plans and conditions upon which he would come here with his road. At the same time the following resolution was unanimously adopted by the meeting and a copy transmitted to Mr. Collins:

Resolved, That the citizens of Tionesta Borough greatly appreciate the public spirit manifested by T. D. Collins, Esq., in his efforts and proposition made to the citizens of said Borough to extend his railroad from Nebraska, Pa., to Tionesta, and to assure him that our citizens, as manifested by their meeting here this evening, feel that they will do everything in their power to bring about the extension of said road, and to co-operate with him to that end, feeling assured that under the management of T. D. Collins it will be a success.
Pursuant to instructions the committee met the citizens again at the court house on Monday evening to give its report, which was in substance as follows:
Mr. Collins designated the route which his proposed extension would follow from the Green township line to the river, bridge in Tionesta. He would want to occupy the east side of Elm street, inside the curb, from Moses Hepler's lot to the corner of Elm and Bridge streets, thence down Bridge street to the river bridge; thence forming a loop by running back to and up Walnut street and connecting again with Elm street between the two national banks. He would expect the citizens to secure the right of way over this route at their expense, and in addition would require the citizens to raise and pay over to him the sum of ten thousand dollars. He would be willing to sign an agreement not to run any steam locomotives on the borough streets, but would adopt the motor cars and power exclusively on said streets.
These points were discussed pro and con, but no definite conclusion was arrived at, and another committee, consisting of F. R. Lansons, B. M. Herman and S. S. Sigworth, was appointed, whose duties shall be to confer with the Borough Council and the citizens generally as to the possibility of meeting these conditions; to also again confer with Mr. Collins on the subject, and report at a citizens' meeting called for one week from next Monday night, 30th inst.

The Clearing Sale That's Expected, That's Looked Forward To, Opened Saturday Morning, Jan. 14, and Closes Saturday Night, January 21st.

The reason for this semi-annual clearance, we believe, is known to you. We've told it twice a year for a good many years. Small lots must accumulate in this busy store. We expect them—you expect them. It's a decided opportunity for you. This sale in this store always does, and always will mean the best qualities at prices in many instances lower than the cost of manufacture.
The value of a suit of clothes or an overcoat is the same after Christmas as before, but the worth of it is governed by demand, and demand is influenced by price—therefore we reduce prices to increase the demand and convert surplus stocks into money.
Visitors at our store will find that prices are not first over-estimated in order to be stated as below our regular prices. Terms of sale cash.
Positively no goods sent on approval or charged at sale prices, but we will cheerfully change at any time any goods not satisfactory or refund the purchase price.
