phone. The identity of his correspondent has not been discovered.

The deceased is aged 49 years and had been a resident of Warren from childhood, having come with his parents from Germany. His widow and two daughters, Mrs. Arthur Offerlee and Miss Lulu Amann, survive.

Whig Hill.

The snow is gone and people of this place are beginning to think about sowing garden seeds, while some are hustling out their fertilizer and getting ready for great harvest in the year 1911. The machine agents are selling machinery in this and other sections, which the farmers will find a great help in putting in and harvesting their crops. It has come to a time now when people will have to hustle to make both ends meet, as work is getting scarce and food stuff is high, but we are all looking forward and hoping and trusting for a change.

Fred Rudolph, of this place, has about completed his lumbering job on Ross Run and expects to move away in the spring.

We were all shocked to hear of the death of George Osgood, who formerly resided here, and we extend our heartfelt sympathy to his good wife and family.

Miss Bertha Rudolph is home from the Oil City hospital, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. The operation was performed by Dr. Higgins. She is doing fine. While her father, Edward Rudolph, was attending the funeral of Mr. Osgood, on German Hill, he received word by phone that one of his valuable horses had its leg broken. Mr. Rudolph is a jobber for Hon. N. P. Wheeler and is a hustler. It seems that he has lots of trouble and losses heaped upon him, but he never hangs his lip. Always jovial and jolly. We understand he paid $275 for the horse.

Thos. Barber has traded horses again and now has a fine team of grey horses. They look so much apart you can't tell them alike. Anybody wishing to purchase a good team for business would do well to call on Mr. Barber, for he will do business when it comes to a horse deal.

Messrs. Kribbs and Ray have their corn all in the barn and about all husked. They had about 1,700 bushels of good corn all told. People who don't believe this and think it sounds fishy can call on Mr. Ray at Kelleysville. He can produce the goods.

That much of importance in connection with the opium smuggling ring and the conviction of certain police officials in this and other cities had been gleaned from the partial translation of the letters and memoranda and that Collector Wm. Loeb now has all of this material in his safe was made known.

Car Steps Too High For Women. Albany, Jan. 31.—The update public service commission has received a complaint from the Council of Women's Clubs of Syracuse directed against the Syracuse Rapid Transit Railway company, as to the height of car steps. The complaint states that the steps are from 15 to 18 inches from the ground and the commission is asked to order that steps of less height be installed on the cars in that city.

Big Dam on the Euphrates. London, Jan. 31.—Sir John Jackson, the head of the firm of John Jackson & Co., contractors, has signed a contract with the Turkish government for the construction of a great dam at the Indian section of the Euphrates. The dam is part of the scheme for the irrigation of Mesopotamia.

Cruelty to Horses Heavily Punished. Burt D. Edwards of Woodhull was arrested in Bath, N. Y., by Constable John Hogue, upon a warrant sworn out by the Bath Humane society. Edwards is alleged to have cruelly beaten his horse with a club. This cruelty is alleged to have occurred several weeks ago and a warrant was sworn out at the time for Edwards' arrest, but he managed to elude the officers until yesterday. He was arraigned before Justice Charles Dudley and sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and spend 30 days in jail or a straight 45 days in jail, without fine. He chose the latter.

Carrie Nation Probably Near Death. Mrs. Carrie Nation, who became known throughout the country several years ago by reason of her fondness for smashing saloons, is reported to be sinking rapidly at Eureka Springs, Ark., and her death is said to be imminent. Mrs. Nation suffered a nervous collapse here a fortnight ago and recently was taken to a private sanitarium near Leavenworth, Kan.

Big Tree Transplanted. The hauling of an immense elm tree, roots and earth, through the business section of Hornell, N. Y., attracted much attention. The tree was several feet in diameter and over 50 feet high. It was hauled by two traction engines from the site of the new central fire station, in Broad street, to Maple street, where it will be erected in front of the residence of E. P. Merrill.

Will Drag Central Park Lakes. The lakes of Central park for the body of Miss Dorothy Arnold, who has been missing since the afternoon of Dec. 12. She was seen in the immediate vicinity of the park on that day and the supposition is that she was attacked and rendered unconscious and her body thrown into the lake.

APPROVES RECIPROCITY

President Taft Speaks at Ohio Society Dinner in Favor of the Agreement.

Washington, Jan. 31.—President Taft in the presence of 300 members of the Ohio society of Washington and their guests at a McKinley memorial dinner here last night, avowed himself the legate of McKinley's policy of reciprocity expressed in his public speech at Buffalo.

"I am proud," exclaimed President Taft, "as a son of Ohio to bring forward for approval and effective action a measure carrying out the policy which he proclaimed and made his own at the acme of his great career."

Three justices of the supreme court, several senators and representatives in congress and many others, prominent in official life, heard and vigorously applauded the president's appeal for Canadian reciprocity.

The president responded to the toast "William McKinley."

To those who heard the president's speech the conclusion was inevitable that Mr. Taft had squarely put up to his party's representatives in congress the responsibility in dealing with the Canadian reciprocity agreement of accepting or rejecting the last great public policy bequeathed to them by President McKinley.

THREE DEATHS IN WIND STORM

Gale Blew Down Sign Which Fell Upon a Man and Two Women.

Philadelphia, Jan. 31.—Death swooped down upon a crowd of shoppers in busy Market street yesterday when a big, heavy sheet metal sign blown from a roof fell among them and killed two men and a girl.

A half dozen other persons were injured, several so seriously that they were taken to a hospital. The dead: John Ellis, 40 years old; Henry Hahn, 56 years old; Ruth Seybold, 17 years old, all of Philadelphia.

The sign was about 50 feet wide and 10 feet high and stood on the roof of a four-story building in the heart of the retail shopping district. The street was crowded, it being the noon hour. Without an instant's warning the sign, which was old, was wrenched from its fastenings by a highwind and fell to the sidewalk.

The greater portion of the sign landed in the middle of the street and had it not been for this the loss of life probably would have been greater.

WIFE SENTENCES HUSBAND

Sends Him to Jail For a Year On Invalidation of the Court.

Philadelphia, Jan. 31.—Mrs. Nathan Kirkwood yesterday morning sentenced her husband to one year in the house of correction.

The woman appeared against Kirkwood in the Manayunk police court, which is presided over by Magistrate Grelis. After hearing the testimony the magistrate called Mrs. Kirkwood to the bench and informed her that she would have to be the judge as to the length of time her husband should remain in jail.

"You go to the house of correction for one year," Mrs. Kirkwood snapped at her husband, without a second's hesitation. According to Mrs. Kirkwood, her husband imbibed too freely and sold all the shoes in the house in order to get money with which to purchase intoxicating drink.
