Jamieson; vice president, Miss Edith Hopkins; treasurer, Miss Elva Lanson; assistant treasurer, Miss Sara Carson; secretary, Mrs. Alice Swanson.  —John H. Allico of Tionesta township has been apprised of the sudden death of Daniel Kniesly, a cousin, living five miles beyond Brookville. He had gone to the barn on Thursday evening to attend his stock and is supposed to have died of heart disease. His body was found by the family in a short time after death. He was aged about 50 years, and was born near Tylersburg.
 —Next Sunday will be a day of special services for the Methodist Episcopal Church. The Holy Communion will be celebrated at 7:30 A. M., to which an invitation has been extended to the other congregations of the village. It is hoped that every member enrolled in the Sunday School will be in their place at 9:45 A. M., and in the evening at 7:30 there will be an Easter service in which music will be the prominent feature. A cordial invitation is extended to all to enjoy these services.
 —Dr. C. W. Stranahan, one of the state's prominent physicians, died at his home in Erie, on the 4th inst., after an illness of more than a year from a paralytic stroke. Deceased was a native of Warren county, where he was born 63 years ago, and where he was married to Miss Mary C. Lacy, who with one daughter, Mrs. Robert Saltzman of Erie, survives. Dr. Stranahan is well remembered by many Forest county people both professionally and socially, having often visited this community many years ago.
 —Anyone who objects to the bill recently passed at Harrisburg forbidding the setting of steel bear traps ought to step into one and realize just what the man or dog or bear for that matter, endures when he gets caught in that way, says an exchange. To which might be added that the catching of dumb animals of any species in steel traps should be forever forbidden from a humane point of view. It is a cruel and barbarous practice and deserves to be stamped out by enactment of law with severe penalties.
 —Good Friday comes on April 14 and Easter Sunday on April 16 this year. In the spring of 1865 the two important days in the religious calendar fell on these same dates. It was on the evening of Good Friday, 1865, that President Abraham Lincoln was assassinated in Ford's theater, at Washington, and his death occurred at 7:30 the next morning—Holy Saturday. Easter Sunday was a never-to-be-forgotten day in America, and in many churches the Easter service was omitted and memorial services held for the murdered chief magistrate of the nation.
 —The congregational meeting held in the Presbyterian church last Thursday night was largely attended and the reception which followed was especially enjoyed. The reports of the treasurers of the different societies showed the church to be in a healthy financial condition. Officers were elected as follows: Trustees, A. B. Kelly; treasurer, J. R. Clark; ushers, Archie Clark and Charles Johnston. The Sunday School elected the following officers Sunday: Superintendent, H. T. Klinesriver; assistant superintendent, A. C. Brown; treasurer, R. J. Hopkins; secretary, Archie Clark; assistant secretary, Miss Margaret Haslet; pianist, Miss Katherine Arner.
 —A bill appropriating one hundred eight thousand ($108,000) dollars to the Clarion State Normal School has been introduced in the legislature. The bill provides (1) for the erection of a boys' dormitory to cost seventy thousand ($70,000) dollars; (2) for erecting, furnishing and equipping a gymnasium twenty thousand ($20,000) dollars; (3) for establishing and equipping a water plant ten thousand ($10,000) dollars; (4) For furnishing and equipping an electric lighting plant eight thousand ($8,000) dollars. This school has had an unusual growth and the additional equipment is necessary on account of the increased attendance. Within five years the enrollment has practically doubled.
 —W. A. Wynn of Warren, Engineer of the State Highway Department, is at the head of an engineering party which arrived here yesterday with the intention of making the permanent survey for the new state road extending from the Borough line to the Green township line, through Tionesta township, a distance of nearly five miles. Application for state aid on this road was originally made when the township and borough applied, and under which application the macadam road above Tubbs run, and the paving in the borough were completed. It is, in fact, a part of the same system. The portion now under consideration is on the route embraced in the Sprout bill, now pending in the legislature, from Tionesta to Ridgway by way of Marienville, and should it be built under the provisions of that bill the entire expense will be borne by the state, and the road will be one of the real kind. The members of the engineering party, aside from Mr. Wynn are, F. C. Fowler, T. A. Jackson, E. R. Hue and J. H. Roberts.

—E. W. Summers, an officer of the American Steel Car Company, of Pittsburgh, has purchased the old Carter stock farm at West Hickory and will convert it to a summer home. The farm covers 3,000 acres and was formerly owned by the McCabe and was formerly owned by the McCabe Lumber Company, who recently finished cutting the timber on it. It is the intention of Mr. Summers to remodel the building and stock the farm with registered cattle and angora goats. Mr. and Mrs. Summers were at the Carver House today and the property was formally turned over to them by the lumber company.—Warren Times of Saturday.
 —The people of Clarion county are considerably wrought up over the publication of notices in the local papers advising that certain persons will make application for charter rights whereby they expect to take over the water privileges of the Clarion river for many miles. The same applications will be made for privileges along Tionesta creek in Tionesta, Green, Kingsley and Howe townships, and before these rights are granted the people should know what is involved in them, what use is to be made of them and what rights will be left to the people after the charters have been granted. These are questions which the people would like to have answered first. Not one in this community seems to be at all wise to the scheme.
 —Among the orchard demonstrations soon to be made in Pennsylvania under the direction of the Division of Zoology will be one at the farm of J. E. Gaul, near Marienville, on the 19th inst., and one on the farm of John T. Henderson, Hickory township, on the 21st of April. This work has been attracting wide attention throughout the state, and public interest in the matter is rapidly increasing. Forest county is peculiarly adapted to the growing of fruit, especially apples, and a little education along this line is bound to bring our fruit into prominence and vastly increase the wealth of our horticulturists, who will not be dependent upon the local market for their revenue, but can easily work up a demand for their wares from far and wide.
 —Although it is too early to do much at general road work, which most of necessity be postponed until weather conditions are more favorable, it is, nevertheless, not too early to do something in that direction right away, and that is the cleaning out of ditches here and there on hill roads thus avoiding much of the washing out of the road-bed by the heavy spring rains that are sure to come for the next few weeks. A very little attention of this kind now will save very much work and considerable expense a little later on. And just now would be an excellent time for every farmer to provide himself with one of those inexpensive split-log drags, and during the summer, when the roads are in the right condition go often over that portion running through or bordering his farm. The trouble would be very little, requiring but an hour or so at a time, and the expense would be practically nothing, while the sum total of improvement would be greater than can be made by any board of supervisors, and the benefit to each would overbalance the cost. Think it over a minute and then act upon the suggestion and see if you won't feel thoroughly recompensed when fall comes.
 —The following account of a social event, taken from the Port Allegany, Pa., Argus of the 8th inst., will interest many Forest county people to whom the bride's parents are well known: "A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Zahniser Thursday evening at six o'clock, when their daughter became the bride of J. Harold Fisher of Unionville, Pa. Rev. J. J. Zahniser performed the ceremony. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Elba Scott of New Castle Pa., and Mr. William Book of Buffalo, N. Y. Those who attended the wedding were Rev. and Mrs. Brownlee, Rev. and Mrs. F. B. Shriver, Miss Dora Clark, Miss Ethel Ault, Miss Ella Hopper and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carlson. Those from out of town were Mrs. E. E. Fisher from Unionville, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Spangler, of Gettysburg, Pa., Miss Eva Zanone of New Castle, Pa., Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Zahniser of Blairsville, Pa., and Mrs. Mrtia Bimber of Tionesta Pa. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The bridal couple left on the 10:14 train for Philadelphia and other Eastern points. Many valuable presents were received. Will be home to their friends after April 20, at Unionville, Pa."

A. F. Kinney is their pumper.—Chas. Guignon, gauger for the Standard Oil Co. for this district, ran three tanks of oil at Parrish, one each for F. W. Knapp, the Melva Oil Co. and Ed Heppinger.

Whose Seeds Do We Sell?
 This is a leading question, but it is so often asked that we are glad that all should know: After years of experimenting we have made selections that include only the most desirable varieties of Garden Seeds grown. No one seed house supplies all of these varieties, hence we gather our collection from the different growers who are able to furnish us just what we want, of seeds that will grow. A number of varieties are grown in this neighborhood by people who have grown seed for us for years. Box seed includes everything the seed grower chooses to send out. Our seeds are only the choicest varieties. H. C. MAPES.

Additions to Good Roads Bill.
 The main highway bill of Senator Sprout, which has been reported to the Senate from the roads committee, makes provision for seventy-three routes in addition to the 203 originally provided, with numerous changes in routes of highways enumerated in the bill when presented. The bill carries an appropriation of $6,000,000, of which $4,000,000 is for construction and maintenance of state highways and $2,000,000 for continuance of the present plan of the state aid to boroughs and townships, but on a different basis, the state paying only 50 per cent. of cost instead of 75, as under existing laws.
 The bill is not contingent upon the approval of the constitutional amendment for issue of $50,000,000 of bonds for road construction, although should that measure be approved by the people the proceeds could be used.
 Among the new routes for roads to be cared for by the state as embodied in the bill, in addition to those already provided for, is one from Tionesta to Smithport, McKean county, by way of Tionesta creek, Sheffield and Kane, and another from Brookville to Tionesta by way of Tylersburg. Many other routes are named in the bill but these are two our people are most interested in.

New Railroad Seems Assured.
 T. D. Collins spent several days of the past week in Tionesta going over the proposed route of the new railroad which it is intended to extend to this place, connecting us with the Sheffield and Tionesta Ry at Nebraska. Mr. Collins made what might be termed a preliminary survey of the "back channel" route, taking the creek bank a short distance below the bridge and following around the point at the mouth of the creek and up the back channel to Hepler's livery barn, thence across the lower lots, past the Mapes machine shop to the terminus on the ball ground. Mr. Collins expressed surprise and gratification at the ease with which this route can be followed and with very little inconvenience to the property owners.
 Asked how soon he would begin active work on the grade he said, "as soon as the right of way is secured." This feature of the project is now in the hands of a committee of Tionesta gentlemen who go at once to work to secure rights of way from the property owners in the name of the Sheffield and Tionesta Railway, and as most of the privileges will be given free it is expected that part will be completed within a couple of weeks, in which case Mr. Collins proposes to put a force of workmen on either end of the extension—at Nebraska and Tionesta—and rush the work with all possible speed. Under favorable circumstances this should mean the running of cars over the road before the inclement weather of early winter sets in.
Suicide Caused by Fear.
 Robert Weaver, aged 25 years and single, employed as a bundler in the kindling wood factory of the Standard Wood Co., at Kellestville, committed suicide at 10 o'clock last Friday morning by cutting his throat in a terrible manner. The deed was committed in the kitchen at the home of his friend, Ludwig Ruhmnsader, with whom he had been staying for several days. Weaver had intended leaving last Saturday morning for Portland, Ore., in company with his sister, Mrs. Mathew Messenger, and her husband, of Laquo, Pa., who arrived in Kellestville Thursday and were at the Ruhmnsader home. A few minutes before the tragedy his sister was talking to him in the kitchen, when he said he would shave and began stropping his razor, while the sister went out doors. Shortly afterward Dr. W. W. Serrill, who was attending a patient in the house, heard a noise resembling running water and informed Mrs. Ruhmnsader of the fact. She opened the kitchen door and discovered Weaver with his back to the wall and slashing at his throat with the razor. She screamed for the doctor, who ran to the kitchen and grappled with the young man, holding him until she secured the razor. It was too late however, as the young man had severed both jugular veins and the wind pipe and died within five minutes from loss of blood and suffocation. No reason is known for the desperate deed, except that he had suffered from two attacks of pneumonia and feared he would develop tuberculosis. He had worked until Thursday evening and seemed in the best of health and spirits. He had no bad habits, was one of the steadiest men in the employ of the company and had been with them for many years. He had been in Kellestville about five months at this time, but had worked there before.
 Weaver came from White Haven, Pa., near Wilkesbarre, where he is survived by his father, Robert Weaver. No inquest was deemed necessary and the body was taken to White Haven, Saturday, for burial.
Pleasantville Man Murdered.
 John Spence, aged 40 years, a well-known resident of Pleasantville, was shot to death last Friday night in the home of Perry Gray, a Civil War veteran living one mile south of Pleasantville. Gray said that the killing was done by burglars. He has the reputation of getting drunk whenever he has the money particularly about the time he gets his pension. Spence was inclined to be intemperate in his habits, also, though not to the same extent as Gray. He had no regular occupation and made a living for himself, his wife and three step-children by doing odd jobs about town.
 At 6 o'clock in the evening the two men were together in Pleasantville and shortly after that left for Gray's home. That was the last seen of either man until 9 o'clock, when they showed up at the home of John Cole, a neighbor, living a stone's throw away.
 Leaving Cole's the men went to Gray's house. Near midnight Gray came back to Cole's apparently much excited and said, "I've got a trouble, I've got a trouble," and talked of someone having tried to rob him, and also said something about Spence having been hurt. The Coles finally persuaded him to remain there and lying down upon the couch he was soon asleep. About 5:30 next morning Gray awoke and went to his house. He returned shortly and told Cole he thought Spence was dead. Other neighbors were notified and an investigation proved this to be true. Spence was found on the floor with one bullet in his breast that had pierced the lungs and heart, and another had gone through the right arm.
 Gray claims that two strangers entered the house while he and Spence were seated at the table about 10 o'clock who seemed to be acquainted with Spence. He got suspicious of them and left the house going to Cole's. Gray also said his 32 calibre revolver was missing. This was afterward found concealed under a hay-rack near Gray's barn. Two cartridges had been expended.
 Gray has been arrested and is being held at Franklin on a charge preferred by detective Hiram Brown for being responsible for the killing of Spence.
 The accused man is a widower aged 70 years, his wife having died suddenly last September. Except for his drink habit he has borne a good reputation in the community, and he stoutly protests his innocence, saying Spence was one of his best friends and he would have no object in killing him. He says one of the men who came to his house that night was, he thinks, a man whom he had treated at one of the bars at Titusville. He had drawn his quarterly pension only a few days ago.

The All-Wool Idea
 Goes Away Back to the Cradle of the Human Race.

You cannot talk it out or breed it out of mankind. Whether rich or poor, men never have and never will be satisfied with garments made of anything except the fleece of the sheep.
 It's easy enough to make all wool clothes for persons who will pay $30 or $35 or $40 for a suit.
 But there's never been a time in the world's history when it was so difficult to produce absolutely pure wool, dependable and satisfactory clothing for the man who can and wants to pay from $10 to $15 for a suit and get his money's worth. And for that customer we carry and have for years sold

The Clothcraft Clothes.

Guaranteed both by us and the manufacturers that every garment carrying the Clothcraft label is made from absolutely pure woolen cloths, and will give satisfactory wear and the prices are as stated—$10 to $15 for an honest suit for men or young men.
