The nuts, covered with a thick layer of leaves since last fall, were in an excellent state of preservation, crisp and fresh as if just taken from the burs.—Titusville Courier.
—Little Edward had been visiting his uncle's ranch, where they were very much bothered by rats. When he came back, he started to school, where he received the information which he gave his grandmother one day. He said: "Grandma, do you know how to get rid of rats?" "No, Edward, how?" "Why, a soft answer turneth away rats."—"Woman's Home Companion for May.
—State Fish Commissioner Meehan has offered a prize of a fine trout fishing rod to the member of any State sportsmen's club who catches the largest brook trout this year, and expects some fine returns. He says the trout are very plentiful this year, and the catch will be very large. On this point the amiable commissioner is, of course, fully posted, but if he should take a day off and try his luck it's dollars to buttons he'd take another guess.
—Close observers are quite sure this will be a banner fruit and crop year and base their calculations as to fruit on the backward spring, saying the present rough weather has its advantages, as it retards the development of the fruit until warm weather sets in right, the result being that the usual early spring frosts will do no harm. They say this is the first spring for several years that the outlook for early fruit has been so promising.
—The ladies of the W. C. T. U. of Nebraska recently held a health and heredity meeting at the home of Mrs. Emma Secor, who was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Marie Klinefister and Miss Pauline Gaiser. The program was fine, including some lovely selections on the piano by Mrs. Secor, Mrs. Klinefister and Miss Marie McKee. Miss Willa Thompson gave a very nice and appropriate recitation, and Mrs. Evadna Conner favored us with several very nicely rendered selections on Heredity. The Union heartily extended her vote of thanks, and expressed a hope that she might come again. The state report was read, after which the delicious luncheon was very much appreciated by all.—MRS. T. RESSA YOUNG.

—Saturday afternoon Game Warden Hockenbury arrested W. H. Maeger, of Trumans, Forest county, for having in his possession a sea gull, which although not a game bird, is protected by law. The young man was given a hearing before Justice Wheeler and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10.00 and the costs which amounted to $4.12. The bird was not dead when found by Mr. Hockenbury, and was liberated on the river bank this morning.—Warren Times.
—The notorious Adam Ruth, who pleaded guilty before Judge Bouton of McKean county to obtaining money under false pretense from Mr. Steffen, father of the lost Ludlow boy, was sentenced to two years in the Allegheny work house on Thursday. Ruth represented himself to be a detective from Lima, Ohio, and claimed he knew where the boy was, and agreed to deliver him to the parents, on receiving the money he tried to get away with it but was captured at Sheffield.
—Friends in this vicinity have learned of the serious illness of Selden Whitman, one of the community's old and well known citizens, at the home of his son Charles Whitman, near Ackley, Warren county. Two of his daughters, Mrs. John Wolf and Mrs. Elmer Mealy, of Tionesta township, have gone to the aged father's bedside and it is feared this illness may be his last. Mr. Whitman is said to have reached his 93rd year in July last, and is one of the oldest men of his time.
—Proclamations have been made by the Governors of 27 States and two Territories for the setting aside of the second Sunday in May to be observed as Mothers Day. It has been customary to observe such a day for the past two or three years, and the celebration of it has gradually grown until it spreads over many parts of Europe. Within a comparatively short time it is thought that this day will be observed throughout the various parts of the world. The badge that will be worn on this day is a white carnation.
—All the social clubs in Franklin and Oil City having the so-called "side boards," were returned to court this morning on a charge of selling liquor without a license. The return was made at the opening of the April session of Court of Quarter Sessions. There was one exception in the list, the Oil City lodge of Elks, but it is reported this was brought about by the illness of the constable in the ward in which the club room is located. What action will be taken in the returns by the court or grand jury has not been made known.—Oil City Blizzard.
—Walter Hochberg, connected with the office of the Austrian consul at Pittsburg, was in Sheffield this week looking up the facts in the murder of David Gustafson on the night of March 18th, and for which crime Mike and John Pipik, natives of Austria, are held for trial. Mr. Hochberg wishes us to state that the influence of the office he represents will be used only to see that the accused have attorneys to defend them and are given a fair trial, and that he would report to his superiors that so far as he could learn their treatment so far has been fair and impartial.—Sheffield Observer.
—According to the Oil City Blizzard, Mrs. Robert Braddish, who underwent a Caesarian operation at the Oil City hospital March 23, was removed from the institution Tuesday morning of last week and taken to her home in Rousseville. She passed safely through the trying ordeal of this unusual operation and both she and her baby are in the best of health. At no time was the condition of Mrs. Braddish considered a serious nature, after the operation, but there was great rejoicing at the hospital when the mother and babe passed safely through the trying ordeal. The baby is a fine, healthy youngster and is the woman's first child.
—There's such a thing as carrying the joke a little too far and the green-eyed monster who sent us a post card with this devilish inscription will be taught a lesson if we find him out. The card reads: "Behold the Fisherman! He riseth up early in the morning and disturbeth the whole household; mightily are his preparations! He goeth forth full of hope! When the day is far spent he returneth, smelling of strong drink, and the truth is not in him. Once a fisherman always a liar." Now if this cowardly character assassin who thus basely insinuates that we're "it," will just show his nib we'll attend to his case with neatness and dispatch. In the words of the irate Teuton, "Dis iss de end off de limit."
—A. A. Hopkins, formerly of Neilltown, this county, died April 11 at Bay Horse Mines, Palo Verde valley, Cal. Funeral services were conducted at Yuma, Ariz., on April 13 and interment was made at that place. He was born March 27, 1841, in Maine. He is survived by his widow, two daughters and a son: Mrs. E. W. Woodcock, Washington, D. C.; E. A. Hopkins and Mrs. F. J. Hayes, Bay Horse Mines, Cal. Mr. Hopkins had been sick for two years, a sufferer from paralysis. He had been in the western mining and oil producing states for a number of years, while his family remained at Neilltown until last December. He was a prominent figure in the palmy days of the old Fagundes excitement, and many former friends will learn with much regret of his demise.
—The annual meeting of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church of Endeavor was held Thursday afternoon, April 29th, at Bonniebrae, the palatial home of Hon. and Mrs. N. P. Wheeler. This branch of the church work is made up of five twigs bearing the euphonious names of Cherry, Peach, Spruce, Apple and Plum. The members of the Cherry twig were the hostesses on this occasion, with Mrs. Wheeler as their chairman. A delightful luncheon was served at one o'clock, covers being laid for fifty. A very pretty color scheme was carried out in the decoration of the rooms, the flowers employed being red and white carnations and yellow daffodils, arranged with ferns in glass baskets. At two o'clock a recital was given by Miss Lenore Ritchey, soprano, Miss Genevieve Doutt, reader, and Miss Olive Lawson, pianist, all of Tionesta, which proved to be the most enjoyable feature of the meeting. These talented young artists were at their best and for an hour rendered a program that was highly pleasing to all. Many were the compliments showered on them at the close for their part in making the day such a notable success. The meeting closed with a praise service at three o'clock.

Mrs. Stitzinger suffered a stroke of paralysis several months ago, and while she is able to be about, her condition does not seem to improve.
—Fire which destroyed the building at Englewood, N. J., in which Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shawkey resided, consumed all their household goods and clothing, according to advices received by the former's father, Attorney C. M. Shawkey of this city. Charles was nearly overcome by smoke in attempting to escape and was carried from the building by the firemen. Fortunately Mrs. Shawkey was not at home that night.—Warren Mirror.
—To keep the neighbor's hens from one's garden there are three methods: the longer, the shorter and the intermediate says the Franklin News. The long method is to scatter corn and oats around the neighbor's chicken house, so the hens won't be starved into going away from home; the intermediate method is to chase them home, and the shorter method is unlawful and informal, connected with cookery and the meat business, so we won't mention it.

Whose Seeds Do We Sell?
This is a leading question, but it is so often asked that we are glad that it should know: After years of experimenting we have made selections that include only the most desirable varieties of Garden Seeds grown. No one seed house supplies all of these varieties, hence we gather our collection from the different growers who are able to furnish us just what we want, of seeds that will grow. A number of varieties are grown in this neighborhood by people who have grown seed for us for years. Box seed includes everything the seed grower chooses to send out. Our seeds are only the choicest varieties. H. C. MAPES.
—Try our "Tan Straight" Toilet Paper. Finer than silk and 1500 sheets to the roll. H. C. MAPES.

—Tested Garden Seeds in bulk, and only the choicest varieties, at Mapes', Tionesta, Pa.

Argument and License Court.
When our report closed last week the liquor license application of Harry S. Canfield for the Globe Hotel at West Hickory was being heard by the court. The hearing continued until Thursday afternoon, when the license was granted. At the same time the application of Ruland Putnam for a license for the old Bender Hotel at West Hickory was refused.
The application of John N. Gerow for a wholesale license for the Gerow Restaurant in Tionesta was withdrawn.
The court appointed Tipstaff J. B. Eden to be Court Crier to fill a vacancy caused by the death of ex-Judge C. A. Hill. Ex-Judge R. B. Crawford was appointed Tipstaff in place of Mr. Eden.
In the matter of the petition of M. C. Kerr for a mandamus to the School Directors of Harmony Township, which was argued in court on Tuesday of last week, Judge Hinckley on Monday handed down a lengthy opinion in favor of Mr. Kerr, and filed an order commanding the school board to forthwith permit Mr. Kerr to resume his seat as a school director in said township, from which he was removed by the board Aug. 13, 1910.

Sharpe; first vice president, Mrs. J. H. Derickson; second vice president, Mrs. J. F. Proper; secretary, Mrs. J. J. Landers; treasurer, Mrs. B. M. Dewees; librarian, Mrs. Joseph Clark; press superintendent, Mrs. J. E. Wenk. After the election of officers Mrs. J. J. Landers gave a very interesting paper on "The Evolution of the Novel." This was followed by "current events."
During the past year the club has been studying South America and Mexico. Beginning with "Prehistoric South America," the club has studied the history of this marvelous country down to the present day. The study of Mexico began with its conquest by Cortez and closed with the conditions as we find them today. The study of these countries has proved to be of perhaps more interest than any other heretofore taken up by the club.
At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.
The meeting of May 10th will be the closing one of the year's study, for which a splendid program has been arranged. It will be held at Mrs. Kelly's home and the principal feature will be an account of her trips abroad by Mrs. Nelson P. Wheeler, of Endeavor. It is needless to say this treat will bring out a full attendance of the membership.
Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Cummings Were Both Elected.
Mrs. Orion Siggins and Mrs. L. L. Hunter, delegate and alternate for Tidoute Chapter, D. A. R., arrived in Tidoute, Saturday, from Washington, D. C., reporting a delightful social time, and a most successful and interesting business Congress.
Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, administration candidate for President General, and who succeeded herself to many during her term of office. As state after state endorsed her nomination (Pennsylvania the greatest of them all) the applause was deafening. Mrs. Scott, the insurgent candidate, had many ardent admirers but not sufficient to elect her over Mrs. Scott. The ten administration candidates for Vice President Generals, including one from Pennsylvania, Mrs. Allen P. Perley, of Williamsport, were elected, making a sweeping defeat for the insurgents.
The Pennsylvania state meeting was held Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. H. H. Cummings, of Tidoute Chapter, and Mrs. A. K. Drisbach, of Skiklimo Chapter, were nominated for the office of State Regent. Mrs. Orion Siggins, of Tidoute Chapter, in a short speech, nominated Mrs. Cummings and Mrs. S. E. Walker, of Gen. Warren Chapter, Warren, ably seconded the nomination. Mrs. Cummings was elected by a fair majority. The Warren and Tidoute delegates were most pleased with the election of both Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Cummings.
