Victims Were Caught In the Wreck and Burned to Death-Four Were Employes of the Railroad - Dozens of Teachers Escaped From the Train With Their Hair and Clothing Ablaze - Greeted by Crowds on Their Return to Utica.

Eleven lives were lost in the derailment and burning of the teachers' rpecial near Martin's Creek, Pa., last Saturday afternoon. The railroad men themselves says the most remarkable feature of the wreck is that 100 were not killed in the terrific shock and the sudden sweep of the fire. CHAMBERLAIN HYDE Flames were rushing from end to end of the train while bruised women were clamboring up the sides of tilted cars or striving for windows. Their hands were burned as they raised themselves on the sills to be helped out. Half a dozen teachers got to the ground with their hair ablaze.

For minutes afterward the Utica women were teaving burning skirts from each other. One ran an eighth of a mile across a plowed field trying to loose herself from a burning skirt. It was lucky that Farmer Dan Hilliard saw her distress.

New York Lad Awarded Medal For Saving Another Boy From Drowning.

Pittsburg, May 2. - The Carnegie hero fund commission has awarded 35 medals and $34,100 in cash and $2,-200 a year to widows of deceased heroes. Among the awards was a bronze medal to Frederick W. Zengen of New York.

Zengen is 13 years old. He saved Ferdinand G. Ludke, aged 10, from drowning, on March 19, 1908. Zengen dived into the East river and swam to Ludke, who had fallen into the river and was being carried by the tide. Zengen trod water, holding Ludke by the hair until assisted.

Calvin C. Williams of 16 Easer street, East Orange, N. J., was awarded a bronze medal and $1,000 as need for saving the life of Louise Felberg. aged 20, and Bertha Whittaker, aged 18, from drowning in Spring Lake, N. J. Aug. 7, 1908.

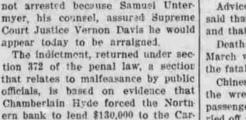

GRAFT CHARGED IN OHIO LEGISLATURE

Detectives Say 25 Members of That Body Have Taken Bribes.

Chicago, May 2 .- "Bribes from $100 to $500 were taken by 25 members of the Ohio legislature at Columbus from three of our operatives who posed as manufacturers desirous of having certain bills pass the house and senate." This statement was made by Raymond Burns, son of William J. Burns of the Burns detective agency, who received telegrams from his three operatives investigating graft charges in connection with a coterie of solons who for many years had passed certain legislative bills at so much per bill.

"No bill of any nature in recent years passed the legislature in Ohio which did not have its price," centinued Burns. "The price was named by the members of the legislature. Marked money was given to the members of the legislature and when secret indictments are returned by the grand jury against the men who solicited bribes and accepted them, many sensational disclosures will be made in Ohio state politics."

Three men from the Burns agency were the men from whom the members of the legislature took bribe money.
