AN INSANE MURDERER

Creeps Up Behind Fireman at Asylum and Kills Him.

Victim Was Sitting In Chair In Engine Room of Institution When Maniac Crept Silently Upon Him and Burled a Hammer In His Head. Other News of General Interest to Busy Readers.

Thomas Carroll, a fireman at the Willard State hospital for Insane near Geneva, was murdered by Charles Conklin, who has been an inmate of the institution for some time. The story given to the press is that Carroll was sitting in a chair in the engine room when the maniac crept silently up behind him and dealt him a heavy blow on the head with a hammer.

It is said that the hammer was buried in the man's skull. After Carroll had fallen to the floor the madman dragged him into the coal room and there completed his fiendish act by dealing his victim another terrible blow on the head with a coal

The murder was discovered by a teamster at the institution named Dean, who reported it to the superintendent. Carroll was apprehended and placed in solitary confinement.

They are Mr. Sartwell's wife, who sustained several broken ribs and a fractured wrist: Mrs. I. W. Worden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sartwell and wife of the cashier of the Exchange National bank of this city, who suffered contusions about the body; Mrs. Worden's son John, who sustained injuries about the body; Mrs. George Cowper, another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sartwell, who is cut and ruised about the b ing from shock; Jules Foder, the chauffeur, who was badly shaken up and bruised about the body.

BETTER THAN FRESH EGGS

Woman Says Cold Storage Eggs and . Chickens Are Best.

The life, habits and characteristics of the great American hen, from nest or incubator to cold storage, were described to the senate committee on manufacturers Friday by Dr. Mary E. Pennington, chief of the food research bureau of the department of agriculture. The committee is investigating the effect of cold storage on food. Dr. Pennington argued that chickens, properly prepared when placed in cold storage, were wholesome and healthful after nine months or a year; "better," she said, "than those fresh killed and kept for twenty-four hours without care or refrigeration." Eggs laid in winter and propertly refrigerated six or nine months, she declared, surpassed eggs fresh laid in summer and kept 24 hours before consumption. #### 0.000 Men In Baldwin Locomotive Works May Be Called Out.

Philadelphia, May 30.-Representatives of the 10,000 workers in the 17 trades at the Baldwin Locomotive works met yesterday afternoon and decided to call a strike tomorrow unless the 1,200 union men laid off in the last three days were reinstated. About three weeks ago an employe of the plant committed suicide, leaving a note saying wis life had been made unbearable by union men. Following this the company posted notices in the plant prohibiting a discusslof of unionism during working hours.

The union men resented this, and some of them broke the rule. Shortly after this the force was cut down and union leaders declare that only loyal union men were laid off. They assert that the company is trying to discourage unionism among its employes.

The company says that business conditions demand a reduction of force, and that it cannot afford to employ more men at this time. It also refuses to take down the "no-talk" signs, as demanded by union leaders.

Says "The Mention of God Has Gone

Out of Fashion." London, May 30, - In addressing a gathering of undergraduates at Cambridge yesterday, George Bernard Shaw said: "The man who says that Christ was the highest possible being is not worth talking with. Christ was a failure." Mr. Shaw's subject was "The Future of Religion." Among the other things he said on the matter besides that already quoted was: "The mention of God has gone out of fashion. You never hear about God now in parliament and only occasionally in the law courts. The people are governed by a system of idolatry. The clergy-'men, the judges and the king are idols who generally have to be given enough money to dress better than other people. The king cannot impose upon me. I know that the king is merely a man, but scarcely anyone else in England seems to know R. When Darwin came along with the theory of natural selection people jumped at it and tucked God out of the window."
