Life No Longer Worth Living, Writes Church Worker, Asking Immediate Burial.

Wellsburg, W. Va., June 13 .- Leaving behind him a slip of original poetry, in which he declared life held nothing more for him, and giving directions for an immediate funeral, Great Lazear, 81 years old, and prominent in this section, yesterday morning shot an killed himself at his home

Mr. Latear was to have made the Children's day address a few hours later at the Presbyterian church. Instead, at four o'clock in the afternoon the children of the Sunday school followed his body to the cemetery.

He spent the greater part of his life in this section, and had made and lost three fortunes and at the time of his death was building up a fourth.

He was the owner of the Lazear canning factory and was the originator of the Wellsburg-Bethany trolley plan. He obtained the franchise for this road three years ago and was a member of its board of directors.

He was deeply interested in religlous work, and for years had been superintendent of the Presbyteian Sunday school. His wife and all near relatives have been dead for years,

It's Better to be Getting Your "Coat"

"Than to Have Anybody Getting Your 'Goat.' "

We don't want you to buy our clothes until you are positive you are getting in actual dollars and cents value the best returns obtainable. If our qualities and prices were the same as you get elsewhere, as a matter of prior claim to your patronage it would be proper and courteous to buy from those dealers who have been catering for your trade for years. We are building up a remarkable business, we are building it on the sterling principle of value giving. We would rather sell $10.00 worth of merchandise that we knew was absolutely good than to sell $10,000 worth of the "hit and miss" kind. This business of ours is growing rapidly. It's not growing through our ability to mesmerize the public. It's growing through the ability of the buying public to understand what the word value means. Our merchandise is sold with our personal guarantee and that guarantee has never been questioned nor will it ever be shaken through mercenary motives,

RICH CLUB'S WAITERS STRIKE

Pitteburgers Go Hungry and Policemen Called to End a Riot. Pittsburg, June 13. - While 200 wealthy Pittsburgers waited Sunday night at the Pittsburg Athletic association clubhouse in Grand boulevard, 69 waiters at a signal quit the job and left the select in a wild state of hungry embarrassment. No better time could have been chosen by the "gargons" to leave than at the Sabbath dinner in the richest and newest of Pittsburg's many clubs,

The would-be diners pleaded for a little consideration, but the head steward ignored their grievances and they would not listen. One Greek waiter attempted to serve an order fo cocktails to a little group at one of the tables to merit a liberal tip. He did so at a risk, for the strikers made such a demonstration that the police were called.

Patrolmen dispersed the waiters when it was found that the would not yield to entreaties to "come back and il will be forgiven." The stewards are fine-combing the hotel and restaurant forces in Pittsburg to fill the places of the dissatisfied men. Not morsel was served at the tables of the Athletic club Sunday night.

RECORD COKE PRODUCTION

Output For 1916 Was 41,631,410 Short

Tons, Valued at $99,696,267. Washington, June 13.-More coke was produced in the United States in 1910 than ever before in the country's history, and the year also was a recil and she spent the last five months ord-breaker for value of the product according to a geological survey report yesterday.

The year was one of doubtful pros perity for the coke-making business however, for the increased value of coke was considerably more than offset by higher cost of coal used.

In 1910 the output was 11,681,410 short tons, valued at $99,696,267, while that for 1909 was 39,315,965 short tons, valued at $89,465,483. Against this increase of $9,730,794 in value of product there was an increase of $12,604,732 in the cost of coal used.
