SUFFOCATED IN WELL. Second Death to Occur at Olean Under Like Circumstances.

Victim Went Down in a 14-Foot Deep Oil Well in the Vicinity of the Vacuum Oil Company's Plant to Repair a Leakage in a Pipe When He Was Overcome by Fumes of Gas—Other Items of General Interest.

The second death within the last week from asphyxiation in the 14-foot dug oil wells in the vicinity of the Vacuum Oil company plant at Olean, N. Y., occurred Saturday.

The unfortunate man was Charles Edwards, aged 39 years. He was employed by the Vacuum Oil company and went down into one of the wells to fix a pipe and was overcome by the gas.

The oil is supposed to come from the leakage of the big tanks and lines in the plant and soaks into the ground and stands in pools in the gravel. Mr. Edwards leaves a wife and child.

RAISE IN SALARY. Postmaster General Announces That Rural Mail Carriers Will Get an Increase.

Postmaster General Hitchcock at Washington has just issued an order for the disbursement of $4,000,000 in the current fiscal year as increases in the salaries of rural letter carriers.

This sum was appropriated for the purpose at the last session of congress in terms that left it discretionary with the postmaster general as to how much of it should be expended.

On June 29 last there were 41,562 rural carriers and their aggregate salaries for the fiscal year just ended was about $35,700,000.

It increased from 53 carriers at a cost of $14,840 for the fiscal year 1897 to 35,666 carriers at a cost of $24,201,530 for the fiscal year 1906.
