—The borough of Warren is negotiating for the purchase of the water plant of that place. A committee appointed for that purpose viewed the property and appraised its value, and reports that it is worth $171,000. This is a pretty stiff price but it is understood a majority of councils as well as most of the citizens favor the purchase.

—Squire Z. S. Himes was down from Marienville Thursday on business, having, as constable of his township, brought a young man named Gregg down to beard with Sheriff Maxwell, he being charged with the larceny of a bicycle at Mayburg.

—An observant exchange truthfully remarks: The man who lets his back yard be filled with rubbish, who does not clean out his cellar, and who lets the weeds go to seed on his vacant lots, has no right to sing of the "New Jerusalem," pearly gates and golden streets.

—Isleman Birtell kept right up to his record during the exceeding torrid spell, and few if any of his customers had reason to complain that their "coolers" had not been kept fully replenished. Ray thinks there will be no danger of his running short before the summer is over.

—Attention is directed to the broad-gauge ad of the Kinter Co., on page 1 of this paper. Mr. R. E. Kinter, for so many years manager of the James store, is now at the head of the establishment, and patrons will receive the same courteous attention to their wants as has always heretofore been accorded to them, and whatever statements are found in the store's advertisements may be relied upon implicitly.

—A few of our citizens witnessed a spirited auto race on the main street of Tionesta one day last week. For several rod the two big machines ran neck-and-neck until finally the most powerful one forged ahead. Fortunately there wasn't a man, woman or child on the street, otherwise this item might have read differ-ently. The race was a pretty close one but, as one witness remarked, they looked like the devil tearing down the street at a 50-mile clip.

—A most enjoyable gathering of the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Ellen B. Catlin, at Kelletville, Wednesday afternoon, July 12th. The meeting was a complete surprise to Mrs. Catlin and was in the form of a reception in honor of her birthday.
As a token of the esteem and love which the members as friends and neighbors feel for her, they presented her with a cut glass sugar and creamer, as a memento of the occasion.

—The state of Pennsylvania will erect a state fish hatchery building near the Erie water works park which will cost $7,000, that amount having been appro-riated. The state fish commission, of which John Hamberger, of Erie, is a member, will have the plans and specifications prepared at once. The building will be quite attractive and will be a center of interest not alone for Erie people but thousands of others. The present state fish hatchery at Second and Sas-saratoga streets will also be kept in operation.

—Lyman Cook of Nebraska has authority from the Government to clean out and improve the channel of the Allegheny river between Hickory and Pittsburgh, and on Monday began work at the forer-point. Two of his assistants are Albert Lawrence and A. W. Stroup, experienced rivermen and pilots on the Allegheny.
During the winter and spring floods many obstructions were washed into the low water channel making the running of river craft quite hazardous and often causing much damage to boats and barges.

—Daniel Fritz, of Oil City, is a farmer.
He has a farm near Trunkley in the precinct Allegheny. Incidentally he raises fresh vegetables or tries to, but he has had bad success this summer. There are too many woodchucks on his farm and on an island near his residence, who chuck wood and devour all his green stuff.
He can't sit up nights with a gun for there are too many groundhogs to kill. Therefore all lovers of woodchuck should voyage down the river and fill up with their favorite meat and thus help Mr. Fritz to a good cause.—Warren Times.

—It would appear from the following from Monday's Oil City Derrick that the irrepressible Dave Traynor is again in limbo and ripe for another trip to Alleghenytown: "Through the arrest in New Castle Friday of D. W. Traynor three horses stolen in Somerset and Indiana counties were located in that city and returned to the rightful owners Saturday.
One of the horses had been sold to Charles Hoek, of New Castle, and when the officers found $50 in Traynor's pocket they gave $50 of it to Hoek, as that is the amount Traynor says he received for the horse."

—A committee of congressmen and their wives, on a tour of inspection of the Allegheny river, in connection with the improving of navigable conditions of the stream, will pass through this section on an special train of the Pennsylvania railroad. They will leave Washington today and expect to be in Oil City tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock, but can remain only about one hour. Leaving Oil City the party will stop at Franklin, Emlenton, Parker and other towns along the river.
A prolonged stop will be made at Parker, one mile south of the mouth of the Clarion river, where one of the sites for the storage reservoirs for flood prevention is to be located.

—Capt. E. L. Whitely and Capt. M.
V. B. Gifford, says the Erie Times, are making arrangements to receive the boys of the gallant Eighty-third regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, in a reunion to be held in Erie, Sept. 16th, the semi-centennial anniversary of the departure of the troops for the front. The regiment was recruited in the northwestern part of the state and every effort will be used to see that nothing is left undone for the entertainment of the survivors. A remnant of this famous regiment is still left in this section, Co. G having been re-recruited in Tionesta and vicinity by the late Capt. D. S. Knox, and it is quite likely a good percentage of them will be present at this reunion.

—Relatives here have been apprised of the death of William J. Beaver, in Los Angeles, Calif., on the 6th inst. He was taken with heart disease in the night, none of the family being aware of his death until morning, when he failed to respond to the call of his youngest child for breakfast. Deceased was aged 50 years and is survived by four children, Jeanette, John, Lawrence and Margaret.
He was a brother of Mrs. J. L. Craig with whose family, when a boy, he had visited frequently during their earlier residence in Tionesta, and is remembered by many of our citizens. Services in memory of the deceased were held on the 11th inst., and the remains were cremated at Rosedale cemetery, Los Angeles.

—Below is given the dates of the open season under the new game law passed at the recent session of the legislature: Deer, Nov. 15 to Dec. 1. Bear, Oct. 1 to Jan. 1. Woodcock, Oct. 1 to Dec. 1.
Raccoon, Sept. 1 to Dec. 1. Wild Turkey, Nov. 1 to Dec. 1. Squirrel, Nov. 1 to Dec. 15. Rabbit, Nov. 1 to Dec. 15.
Grouse, Nov. 1 to Dec. 15. Quail, Nov. 1 to Dec. 15.

—A pick-up team defeated the West Hickory ball team here last Thursday by the one-sided score of 14 to 7. Sam Haslet pitched a good game for Tionesta, the receiving end of the battery being Arthur Morrison and Clifford Foreman.
The Hickory battery was Sheehan and McMillen. With Haslet, Foreman, Joe Weaver and O. C. Stroup in the game it looked somewhat like old base ball days.

—Hurrying home from the Catholic church shortly after 8 o'clock Sunday evening, where she had taken part in divine worship, Mrs. Martin Welsh, wife of a section foreman living at Kinzua, was struck by lightning and instantly killed, says the Warren Times. Her young son was with her and they stopped for shelter under a tree. A second afterwards there was a bright flash of lightning and Mrs. Welsh dropped to the ground. The bolt struck her on top of the head, no doubt being drawn there by the steel hairpins she wore. It then shot downward to the neck circling around at this point to the back. Reaching the middle of the shirtwaist the bolt bored its way in tearing two holes in the garment.
It continued downward by following the back of the unfortunate woman and reaching the left ankle burned a hole in it, and tearing off the left shoe hurled it some distance away. The little boy was not harmed and no effects of the lightning could be noticed on the tree.

New Railroad Work is Begun.

A crew of railroad hands consisting of 10 or 15 foreigners arrived in town Monday and began work on the grade of the Collins railroad extension yesterday morning. Starting at the foot of Tia-worth hill, in the borough, they are working west around the creek bank toward the back channel and the Tionesta end of the road near the river bridge.
Frank Nelson, an experienced contractor, who built a large portion of the Sheffield & Tionesta road between Nebraska and Sheffield, has been retained as foreman and will have charge of the construction of the road, and it is altogether probable that as soon as they can be obtained a much larger gang will be put to work on the grade. A commodious camp has been built at a point on the creek near the water trough half a mile above Fred Reib's house, on the bank of the creek, where the men will be housed and fed until they reach a point farther up the creek where another camp will be established. We believe it is Mr. Collins' idea to have the grade completed and possibly most of the rails laid before winter sets in, and if the fall weather continues to be good cars may be running before the holidays.

Escaped from Clarion Jail.

James Ray and William New, two young men who were awaiting trial at the coming term of criminal court, escaped from jail at Clarion early Saturday morning. Their absence was not discovered until early Saturday afternoon owing to the prisoners having taken the precaution of placing dummies in their beds.
While Sheriff Snathers was looking about for a clue he received word that a horse and buggy had been stolen at Shippenville and it is supposed this outfit was made by the jail-breakers in order to make their escape easier. They were arrested for breaking into the shanty of a P. R. R. track-walker near East Brady and stealing his watch. They were placed in the East Brady lockup, where they escaped, but were recaptured at Pittsburg. Ray is described as five feet, eight inches tall and weighs 155 pounds.
New is heavier and of light complexion.
The horse is black and has stringhalt slightly. The buggy is painted red. They are the property of E. R. Lewis.

A LATER REPORT.

A later report of this smooth escape would indicate that this pair is about as clever as they make 'em, and that if the Clarion authorities are following up on the Lewis horse-stealing clue they are going to get left. The Franklin News of Monday contains the following details of the affair:

James Ray and William New, who escaped Friday night from the county jail at Clarion, were captured in Scrubgrass township, Venango county, early Sunday morning after they had stolen a horse from George Miller, residing near Eden burg. They were brought to Emlenton and placed in the city lockup, from which places they escaped an hour later.
They made a clean getaway. Upon discovering the loss of his rig Mr. Miller recalled that a man named Latschaw, of Eau Claire, Butler county, owning an automobile, was in the community with his machine and induced him to go on a chase for the thieves. Armed with Winchester rifles, they started in the direction of Emlenton and near the residence of James Bell, in Scrubgrass township, overtook the pair with the stolen outfit.
Mr. Miller favored wreaking vengeance on the pair, but was restrained by Mr.
Latschaw. While one of the captors stood guard the other bound the men with ropes and started for Emlenton with them. They were met there by Police Officer Frank Evans, who after cutting their bonds, lodged them in the boro lock-up, which is in the basement of the town hall.

At 9 o'clock Sunday forenoon Officer Evans invited some of his friends up to the lockup to see a "couple of birds" he had copped up. When the party arrived Officer Evans was rendered almost dumb by the discovery that his birds had flown.
When he placed the men in the cell the officer overlooked the fact that an iron bar was leaning against the wall. The prisoners discovered this and used it to pry open the lock-up door. They are supposed to have made their getaway in less than an hour after being locked up, for two men answering the description of the prisoners were seen at the Pennsylvania station at 5 o'clock. They are supposed to have boarded the southbound passenger train.

That the two men are the same ones who escaped from the Clarion county jail there is no doubt. Mr. Miller and Mr. Latschaw say that one was an Italian and the other an American and that they answered the description in other respects.

little niece, Helen Mong, left yesterday morning on a two weeks' visit to Boston friends. They expect to meet Col. and Mrs. A. Gifford at Old Orchard Beach, Maine, and will enjoy the fine surf bathing at that well known resort.

—John A. Thomson and wife of East St. Louis, Ill., are paying a visit to relatives and friends in Tionesta and vicinity. It is John's second visit to the scenes of his boyhood in 31 years, at which time he took a sudden notion to strike out for himself, going west. His parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. John Thomson, at that time lived at Stewart's Run.

—The Warren Times of Monday says:
In Jamestown last Saturday Mr. Paul W.
Seiger and Miss Hazel McKean, of Endeavor, Forest county, were united in marriage by Rev. C. T. Shaw.

—Returning from an auto tour including Cleveland, Erie, Buffalo and other lake shore cities, Senator and Mrs. T. M.
Kurtz and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, of Pottsville, stopped a few hours in Tionesta Sunday to call on relatives and friends.

—Tionesta was well represented at the Fieldmore, near Titusville, Friday evening. James Wilbur, of Pleasantville, was host at a finely appointed and enjoyable dinner, at which there were ten guests. Most of the company went from here by automobile. Mrs. E. T. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fulton and Harold Herman were in the former's car, while Mrs. Cora Feit, Miss Maude McKean and Leo Gibson of Jamestown, N. Y., went in the Watson car. At a dancing party at the Fieldmore the same evening Ed.
Lawrence, Charles Weaver, Miss Hazel Fones, and Miss Norma Perrine of Oil City, were guests, going in Ed's car.

—The descendants and relatives of the late Capt. C. W. Clark to the number of thirty-five met in a picnic on the banks of the beautiful Allegheny in this vicinity Thursday, July 13th. The picnic gathering was gotten up in honor of James B. Clark and family of Philadelphia, here on a visit. The day was all one could desire, and all enjoyed themselves from the time of sitting down to a well-filled table, until their departure from the grounds. Our one regret was that twenty-nine of the relatives were not able to be present—some too far away, while business vocations prevented others from being present on this most joyous occasion.

—Sheffield Observer: Mrs. M. Andrews, for a number of years a resident of Kelletville, where she conducted a mercantile establishment, but now residing in Cleveland, was in town last week on her way home from spending some time with friends at Kelletville.—Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Morrison and sons, Chester and John, of Pittsburg, were in Sheffield a short time Tuesday. They were on an automobile trip, visiting friends at Brookville and Marienville, and going from there to Chautauqua, Niagara and Toronto.—Mrs. Ben. George and Miss Mary Wood left Wednesday for Erie, where they meet the other members of the Erie Dispatch touring party. The party will go to Montreal by way of the St. Lawrence river, sailing from that point Saturday for a visit to England, Scotland and France. The trip will take six weeks, and all expenses will be paid by the Erie Dispatch as a result of the recent contest in which Mrs. George and Miss Wood were winners.

—Counsel Assigned for Mrs. Hodge.

Mrs. Stella Hodge has at last been assigned attorneys to defend her on the charge of the murder of Emile Amann.
This afternoon at a session of argument court, Judge Hinckley designated Attorneys Bordwell and Lindsey as the legal representatives of the Hodge woman.

In September Mrs. Hodge will be tried, if the grand jury indict her, for the killing of Amann. The opinion prevails that Mrs. Hodge will not be indicted for murder. Mrs. Hodge was in the court room this afternoon. She shows traces of her confinement.—Warren Times, 17th.

Mrs. Hodge, it is alleged, has made another confession in which it is said she gives an account as to how she accompanied a detective to Atlantic City and there was induced to make the confession that she killed Emile Amann, accidentally.
The confession, it is alleged, was made under promise that she would be in jail but a short time and would then be sent away and provided for. The signing of her latest confession, the Times says, is witnessed by Deputy Sheriff Russell and Rev. Drummond of the Baptist church.

of the beautiful Allegheny in this vicinity
Thursday, July 13th. The picnic
James B. Clark and family of Phila-
from the grounds. Our one regret
