County Auditor. Many people have doubtless been puzzled about the origin of word "buncombe" as indicating political clap-trap.

County Surveyor. Bro Smith of the Ponceauxway Spirit has hunted the matter up and tells how it happened, and he is backed up in his opinion by Noah Webster, who wrote the dictionary.

County Auditor. "What a spectacle we have, to be sure, in the closing days of the extra session of Congress? Just a scientific sparring match between the Democratic representatives and the Republican discontents."

County Surveyor. It is a clear case of mid-summer madness running riot at the capitol of the nation. Senator La Follette and his boomers are firing in different directions.

County Auditor. They hope to discredit the Taft administration and then force the nomination of La Follette as the Republican candidate to succeed him.

County Surveyor. The Democrats aim to make the election of any Republican candidate to the presidency impossible, and they have been employing all the energies of the La Follette boomers to that end.

County Auditor. Senator La Follette seems to have persuaded himself that he has been using the Democrats in his raid upon the Republican administration, but the Democrats are convinced that raiding Republicans will count for them whether it be the regulars or the insurgents who are railed so that the merry war is being kept going without much injury to the regulars and with but very little promise of hope for either the Democrats or the insurgents.

County Surveyor. In the meantime little or nothing is being accomplished by Congress for the public good. United States Senator Boies Penrose the leader of the Republican majority in the senate, has been bending his energies to secure general relief by an adjournment. Senator Penrose has been unable to convince the Democrats and insurgents that any offensive legislation they may pass through any combination they may form will be vetoed by President Taft.

What a Spectacle!

What a spectacle we have, to be sure, in the closing days of the extra session of Congress? Just a scientific sparring match between the Democratic representatives and the Republican discontents with the regular Republicans without a voice, but enjoying reserve seats at the ringside.

It is a clear case of mid-summer madness running riot at the capitol of the nation. Senator La Follette and his boomers are firing in different directions. They hope to discredit the Taft administration and then force the nomination of La Follette as the Republican candidate to succeed him.

The Democrats aim to make the election of any Republican candidate to the presidency impossible, and they have been employing all the energies of the La Follette boomers to that end. Senator La Follette seems to have persuaded himself that he has been using the Democrats in his raid upon the Republican administration, but the Democrats are convinced that raiding Republicans will count for them whether it be the regulars or the insurgents who are railed so that the merry war is being kept going without much injury to the regulars and with but very little promise of hope for either the Democrats or the insurgents.

In the meantime little or nothing is being accomplished by Congress for the public good. United States Senator Boies Penrose the leader of the Republican majority in the senate, has been bending his energies to secure general relief by an adjournment. Senator Penrose has been unable to convince the Democrats and insurgents that any offensive legislation they may pass through any combination they may form will be vetoed by President Taft.

He has succeeded in allaying public feeling on that important question however, but those fellows who are playing politics, pure and simple, are too busy to hear anything that does not promise them something in the way of personal or political advantage.

Congress should have adjourned and gone home immediately after the reciprocity pact was finally passed. This life of Joseph Carey, a young miner near Joplin, Mo., was saved in a novel way a few days ago, and the utility of modern methods was at the same time nicely demonstrated.

The young man was imprisoned 78 feet below the surface, and by drilling a five-inch hole through the roof of the mine, it became possible to communicate with him. He was, in fact, furnished with many home comforts. The inky darkness in which he had been groping was dispelled through the instrumentality of an electric light bulb lowered through the hole.

Then followed a telephone, lowered in the same way, which enabled him to converse with those above. Then food and drink were sent down on which he could subsist until rescued. Whig Hill. The camping place has closed and all have "folded their tents" and retired to their several places of abode, without a doubt better fitted for life's duties after a ten days' recreation.

Our hill people are in the midst of an immense blackberry harvest. All are busy, or ought to be. The question is, who is going to the much heard of pie social. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Barnes were on the hill over the Sabbath.

Lura King of Sugar Grove spent a day at camping and visited her people here, D. I. Beck and family. Miss Alice Ledebur of German Hill was the guest of Miss Dorothy Shank over the Sabbath.

Haven't heard of any late news concerning the famous rattlesnake murders; hope it's all for one season. Everal, the young son of W. F. Weingard, had the sad misfortune of severing the extreme end of one toe, last Friday. He was taken to the doctor at Kelletville and is getting along as well as possible.

Another correspondent. The camping is running fine, although the attendance so far has been small. There seems to be a good interest. Elder Rich is with us and quite a number of other able speakers. We are looking for a large crowd over the next Sabbath day.

Fryebird is done with their haying and are now on top of their oats harvest. Oats seem quite light. Potatoes are struck with the blight, with few in a hill. The blackberry crop was drying up for want of moisture, but the rains during this week will be a big help.

While Mrs. Edna Ehlers of German Hill was coming down the hill from camping the other night she almost had a runaway. A young man in hitching up her horse ran the hold back strap through the strap around the thigh, instead of putting it in the right place. Coming down the hill the horse began to kick and run. There were two little children in the buggy with Mrs. Ehlers and had it not been for Delbert Decker she might have met with a great disaster.

The horse was coming on the keen jump when the boy made a desperate spring and first grab caught the breast collar and next the line and the animal was brought under subjection. After the mettlesome beast's nerves got settled George Burhen came along and offered to lead the horse. His kind offer was accepted and just as soon as George got hold of the bridle the horse knew he had met with a friend as well as master and stepped quietly down the road.

Struck out, by Best 9, by Collins 5. Mayburg will play two games tomorrow, Thursday, at the Snydersburg Harvest Home Picnic.

Spilled the Solemnity. Joseph H. Chouteau when ambassador to the court of St. James and Mark Twain were together in St. George's chapel, London, one hot day, both seemingly sobered by the solemnity of the place.

"What an awful thing it is!" Twain began in a whisper. Mr. Chouteau leaned closer to catch some ponderously sad expression from the humorist.

"What an awful thing it is," Twain repeated, "to be shut up in a place where one cannot smoke."

Seemed to Give Him a New Stomach. "I suffered intensely after eating and no medicine or treatment I tried seemed to do any good," writes H. M. Young, publisher, Editor of The Sun, Lake View, Ohio.

Cooksburg.

Jay Custer, who has been suffering from an attack of typhoid fever, is recovering rapidly.

Many of our people attended the birthday party of Mr. Slocum, of Scotch Hill, last Saturday. Mr. Slocum is one of the oldest and most respected citizens of that community and his many friends showed their respect and appreciation by helping him celebrate his birthday.

They all report a most pleasant time and we hope Mr. Slocum may live to see many more happy birthdays. Robert Cook and Miss Hattie Cook took advantage of the excursion and spent a few days at Connetquot last week.

They say "they had a fine time" and think the amusements at Connetquot are splendid. Mrs. Geraldine Thompson and daughter Kathryn, of Pittsburg, are visiting at the home of their uncle, George Braden.

The well on the A. J. Cook farm was drilled in last Friday and a big gasser was struck in the Speechley and Bradford sands. This is Mr. Heffren's fourth gas well which has been drilled in this vicinity and they are all good. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Calvin, of Bond, Maryland, are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Rebecca Cook.

We have had a considerable amount of rain in this vicinity during the past week. It was certainly needed.

A large number of our young people attended the social at E. A. Kuhn's last Saturday night. They report a very pleasant time, but think there would have been a larger crowd, had it not been for the rain.

The Greenwood Oil and Gas Company have a rig built on the Charles Black farm, but will not begin to drill for a short time, as the contractor is not ready.

A happy colony of eighteen surveyors arrived at our hotel last Saturday night, where they expect to stay while employed in this vicinity. We expect to hear the shrill whistle of the locomotive in the Clarion valley in the near future.

We hear that Bart, Slocum is a frequent caller in the vicinity of Greenwood. Mr. and Mrs. Chloé Ward visited at the home of the former's father, S. M. Ward, last week.

The ladies of the Clarion Women's Christian Temperance Union had a picnic at the home of Mrs. S. H. Cook last Saturday. They had a sumptuous dinner. The meeting was a very pleasant one. Mrs. Ella MacBeth and Mrs. S. H. Cook were elected as delegates to the county convention. They all had a pleasant time and extend their thanks to the hospitable hostess for her hospitality.

They were a fine bunch of ladies and we hope they will come again. William Fitzgerald, who is one of the superintendents for the Tri-County Gas Company, spent Sabbath with his family. J. C. Knight and son Lester, who are working on the pipe line, were at home over Sunday.

A Cooks Sons are very busy hauling lumber to Vowinkel. Many of our people are very busy picking blackberries.

Mayburg Wins Two Good Ball Games From Brookville and Clarion. Mayburg has "the goods" and when it comes to a base ball team and last Friday the team defeated the fast Brookville team at the latter place by the score of 7 to 6. Truman and Collins did the pitching for Mayburg. We are not informed as to the details of the game.

Saturday the Mayburg bunch moved over to Clarion, where P. K. Brown had the pleasure of seeing his team win again by the score of 8 to 7. The Clarion correspondent of the Franklin News gives the following account of the game: "The game was not as good as was expected and some ragged ball was pulled off by both teams. In Clarion's half of the second inning they scored seven runs, mostly by loose work on account of the Mayburg bunch, as they all seemed to go up in the air at once, our boys also indulging in some heavy hitting in this inning. Clarion was unable to score after this inning and the score stood 7-0 up until the sixth, when Mayburg finally got one run over. In the seventh Edmonson, for Mayburg, got a hit and was able to score by some daring base-running. The merry-go-round began then and after it was over Mayburg had pushed five runs over the plate and annexed two more in the eighth, which was enough to win, as Clarion could do nothing after the seven they piled up in the second. A peculiar feature of the game was that in a total of twenty-two hits on both sides none went for more than one base. Siverling and B. Gordon were the batting stars for Clarion, while Crossman, at short for Mayburg, played a fine game and carried off the hitting honors for that side. Best, for Clarion, pitched a nice game but was poorly supported at times and Mayburg bunched their hits, and were able to run the bases freely. A large crowd witnessed the game and they were not slow with applause for either side when a good play was made. Wilhelm and White were the umpires." The score:

BABY GETS $100 FOR CRYING

Alarm Saved Public Building From Burning in National Park, N. J. Philadelphia, Aug. 8.—The crying of Walter Morton, a National Park (N. J.) infant, increase his bank account by $100. Walter's cry at night gave the alarm for a big fire in the public hall owned by John Tubbs, across the street from Walter's home.

The youngster's parents were awakened early in the morning by the crying of the child. Getting up to attend to him, they saw the flames shoot up from the windows of the hall. They alarmed the village, the fire was put out and the building saved. When Tubbs heard of the incident of the baby's crying he deposited $100 in the bank in Walter's name, to draw interest until the child attains his majority.

BALTIMORE WATER FAMINE Drives Even Swell Society to Artesian Well With Water Jugs. Baltimore, Md., Aug. 8.—A Society was out with its water jug yesterday trying to get a drink, so serious was the water famine in this city become.

A long line of persons with bottles and jugs stretched away from the fashionable Hotel Belvedere through the exclusive residential section in Charles street all day. The Belvedere has an artesian well.

For two weeks the famine has been acute. Wells and springs all around the city are doing a land office business. Rain relieved the situation just a little, but the water was so dirty that nobody could drink it.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
